SENATE JOURNAL

EXTRA SESSION

1998

FIRST DAY

Senate Chamber
Tuesday, March 24, 1998

In accordance with law, as set forth in the Constitution of the State of North Carolina, and pursuant to the Proclamation issued by the Governor, the Honorable James B. Hunt, Jr., on February 27, 1998, the Senate of the 1997 General Assembly convenes in Extra Session at the hour of 12:00 Noon in the Senate Chamber in the Legislative Building in the City of Raleigh.

The Honorable Dennis A. Wicker, Lieutenant Governor, presides and calls the Senate to order.

Prayer is offered by the Reverend Mike Morris, Senate Chaplain, as follows:

"Our God, it is good to look around and see the Senate family together again, called into Special Session by our Governor to consider health care for children.

"Help us all to recall the times when we have been more than just casual observers of children, times when our gazes actually locked with theirs. At those times, eye to eye, we confess we had a sense we were looking into origins that this gaze of theirs was welling up at us from deep beyond the past's past.

"Of course that sense of things was all wrong, for eye to eye, it was the child who was gazing into the past. We were gazing into the future's future.

"And so, whether it is considering legislation in their behalf, stooping down for a conversation or just being role models, help us, O God, to be worthy of a child's gaze through us into his or her origins. In Your Holy name, we pray, Amen."

Led by the Lieutenant Governor, the members and guests remain standing and pledge allegiance to the United States of America.

The President instructs the Reading Clerk to read the Proclamation issued by Governor James B. Hunt, Jr., on February 27, 1998, as follows:

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, there are more than 71,000 uninsured children in North Carolina whose parents make too much to qualify for Medicaid but cannot afford to purchase health insurance for their children; and

WHEREAS, children who do not receive proper medical care have more trouble staying healthy enough to attend school and often have trouble learning when they are in school; and

WHEREAS, under Title XXI of the Social Security Act, North Carolina now has the opportunity to receive $79.9 million in federal money in order to provide health care for children; and

WHEREAS, to meet federal deadlines, North Carolina must adopt by legislation its state plan and needs to submit the plan to the Health Care Financing Agency; and

WHEREAS, the Children's Health Insurance Plan is designed to comply with federal requirements and provide the health insurance coverage described herein.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, James B. Hunt, Jr., Governor of the State of North Carolina, pursuant to the authority granted to me by Article III, Sec. 5(7) of the Constitution of North Carolina, find that the circumstances stated above constitute an extraordinary occasion within the meaning of Article III, Sec. 5(7) of the Constitution of North Carolina and PROCLAIM that the General Assembly is hereby convened in an extra session for the purpose of considering the adoption of a state plan in accordance with the above.

This extra session shall begin the 24th day of March 1998 at 12:00 p.m. and shall continue as provided by law and the rules of each House until both Houses shall have adjourned sine die.

Done in Raleigh, North Carolina, this the 27th day of February, 1998.

S/James B. Hunt Jr.

SEVENTH DAY

Senate Chamber,
Thursday, April 2, 1998

The Senate meets pursuant to adjournment and is called to order by the Honorable Dennis A. Wicker, Lieutenant Governor.

Prayer is offered by the Reverend Mike Morris, Senate Chaplain, as follows:

"Dear God, some words we use as adults are confusing to children and maybe confusing even to those of us who are supposed to know their meaning.

"Take for example, the words fiscal and physical. One might say we want health care to be a bill about fiscal responsibility. Another, we want health care to be a bill about physical responsibility.

"They sound the same but they can be as confusingly ambiguous as the religious idea of the already and not yet of the Kingdom of God.

"One of the terms seems to deal with the not yet, the other deals with the now. They don't have to be mutually exclusive.

"Help the Legislators, Oh Lord, bridge the gap between the two so that no matter which term is used, fiscal or physical, those who need health care don't have to worry about the difference. Amen."

With unanimous consent, the President grants leaves of absence for today to Senator Allran, Senator Clark, Senator Forrester, Senator Garwood, Senator Hoyle, and Senator McDaniel.

"And God, despite as awkward and as cumbersome as it may seem at times, we are also bonded by a belief that our system of government is still the best system in the world.

"Help us to use it to the fullest of our abilities to further Your case for the people of this state and especially the children of our low income working families who, despite our best efforts, are too often neglected.

Prayer is offered by the Reverend Mike Morris, Senate Chaplain, as follows:

"Even as the debate continues here over the issue of health care for children, we are reminded Oh God, that this is Holy Week.

"From the Torah and Hebrew narratives about Your rescue of the Israelites from Egyptian captivity following the first Passover to the Gospel's accounts of Jesus, the cross, and resurrection, we walk humbly this week in the shadow and light of those stories.

"Our participation in them can never be reduced to debate, to words, and to personal ideologies. At some point a childlike faith in these oral and written traditions must transpire.

"Only then are we liberated to live the stories as they were intended for us, in flesh and blood, in death and life.

"Today, create in us clean hearts, Oh God, and renew a right spirit within us. For it is in Your most Holy, loving Name we pray. Amen."

"But, when we hit the wall there is a prayer that opens doors, opens minds, opens hearts. It is the prayer of Gethsemene and it goes, 'Nevertheless, not my will, but Yours be done Almighty God.'

"We pray that prayer individually and collectively tonight from the Senate floor and hope that it is quietly felt and unanimously heard throughout this building. Amen."

"We pray for the children and their parents who will be given hope and a source of celebration when a health care bill is passed by the Legislature.

"We pray for the grace givers, like hospitals and service organizations who will provide medical attention and funds to children and their families until Legislative help is available.

"Having no money, though, Peter responded, 'What I do have I will give you. In the name of the Lord, rise up and walk.' The lame man rose and took his first steps, rejoicing.

"We would not presume to be faith healers here in the Senate, Oh God, but we are people of faith. When asked by the working poor to help fund insurance for their children, may we put our faith into action by responding, 'What we do have, we will make available to you.'

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

The remarks of Senator Basnight who rises to a point of personal privilege memorializing the late Honorable Terry Sanford, former Governor and United States Senator, who died on Saturday, April 18, 1998, are spread upon the Journal as follows:

"Most of us who are in this Assembly today, probably don't remember the contributions made by Governor Terry Sanford. But those of us who sit here today, and the ones who will follow us when we are gone, are building on that very foundation that he laid during his tenure of time in service to our State.

"You know his accomplishments: strong community colleges, universities and public schools, performing arts, equality for all citizens, and economic development. To me, his greatest achievement was realizing that the cornerstone to making our state the success that it is today would be, and will continue to be, a good education for all.

"Here's what he wrote in his book:

> 'By starting with sound, meaningful education, we make it possible for each person to add his own gift to his generation, to become a part of the progress of man. In turn, the individual makes the nation stronger, defends against its enemies, adds to its wealth and carries forward its ideals and faith.'

"Terry Sanford was the best of what North Carolina has to offer. We want to remember him in our prayers, as well as his family, particularly his dear wife, Margaret Rose. We can only hope that we can carry on a legacy that would make him proud."

"Funeral services will be held on Wednesday at 11:00 A.M. at the Duke Chapel. I will be attending and invite all of you who can come to do so and join me on behalf and yourself, of this North Carolina Senate in honoring this great man. Buses will leave at 9:45 A.M. We will meet between the buildings on Lane Street. If you want to ride, please contact Norma Mills. Thank you."

"Lord, You have dealt with us, not on the basis of what we deserve (for who among us would want to be treated like that), but on the basis of Your extravagant, unconditional love. Overlooking our faults, forgiving our sins, setting aside our guilt, You have loved us with a love that will not let us go.

"Forgive, therefore, our inability to love as we have been loved. Continue to overlook the ways in which we condemn others for the sins of which we think we are innocent. Make us more forgiving, more understanding, more willing to see the world from their perspective, more eager to use what we have for the good of others in need.

"Today, O God, compromise is a vehicle of Your grace.

"Continue to give the Senators, all of us, some measure of Your expansive, inclusive love so that, in some way, we might see others as You see them and see ourselves as You see us. Thank You, Father. Amen."

"(c) The Executive Administrator and Board of Trustees shall establish premium rates for benefits provided under Part 5 of this Article. The Department of Health and Human Services shall, from State and federal appropriations and from any other funds made available for the Health Insurance Program for Children established under Part 8 of Article 2 of Chapter 108A of the General Statutes, make payments to the North Carolina Teachers' and State Employees' Comprehensive Major Medical Plan as determined by the Plan for its administration, claims processing, and other services authorized to provide coverage for acute medical care for children eligible for benefits provided under Part 5 of this Article."

(h) The title of Article 3 of Chapter 135 of the General Statutes reads as rewritten:

"Other Teacher, Employee ~~Benefits~~ Benefits; Child Health Benefits."

Section 5. (a) Division II of Article 4 of Chapter 105 of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new section to read:

"§ 105-151.27. Credit for child health insurance.

(a) Credit. -- Subject to the limitations provided in this section, a taxpayer is allowed a credit against the tax imposed by this Division if the taxpayer paid a health insurance premium during the taxable year that provided insurance coverage for the taxpayer's dependent children. The amount of the credit is the amount provided in the table below that corresponds to the taxpayer's adjusted gross income, as a percentage of the applicable federal poverty level (FPL), as defined in G.S. 108A-70.18, based on the taxpayer's family size.

AGI as % of FPL	Credit Amount
Over 225	$100

(b) Income Limitation. -- To be eligible for the credit allowed under this section, the taxpayer's adjusted gross income (AGI), as calculated under the Code, must be less than the amount listed in the table below:

Filing Status	AGI
Married, filing jointly	$100,000
Head of Household	80,000
Single	60,000
Married, filing separately	50,000

(c) Credit Limitations. -- The credit allowed by this section may not exceed the amount of health insurance premium the taxpayer paid during the taxable year that provided insurance coverage for the taxpayer's dependent children. A nonresident or part-year resident who claims the credit allowed by this section shall reduce the amount of the credit by multiplying it by the fraction calculated under G.S. 105-134.5(b) or (c), as appropriate. In order to claim a credit under this section, a taxpayer must provide any information required by the Secretary to establish the taxpayer's eligibility for the credit and the amount of the credit.

(d) No Double Benefit. -- If the taxpayer claimed a deduction for health insurance costs of self-employed individuals under section 162(l) of the Code for the taxable year, the amount of credit otherwise allowed the taxpayer under this section is reduced by the applicable percentage provided in section 162(l) of the Code. If the taxpayer claimed a deduction for medical care expenses under section 213 of the Code for the taxable year, the taxpayer is not allowed a credit under this section. A taxpayer who claims the credit allowed by this section must provide any information required by the Secretary to demonstrate that the amount paid for premiums for which the credit is claimed was not excluded from the taxpayer's gross income for the taxable year.

(e) Credit Refundable. -- If the credit allowed by this section exceeds the amount of tax imposed by this Division for the taxable year reduced by the sum of all credits allowable, the Secretary shall refund the excess to the taxpayer. The refundable excess is governed by the provisions governing a refund of an overpayment by the taxpayer of the tax imposed in this Division. In computing the amount of tax against which multiple credits are allowed, nonrefundable credits are subtracted before refundable credits.

(f) Definitions. -- The following definitions apply in this section:

(1) Comprehensive health insurance plan. -- Any of the following plans, policies, or contracts that provide health benefits coverage for dependent children for inpatient and outpatient hospital services, physicians' surgical and medical services, and laboratory and X-ray services: accident and health insurance policy or certificate; hospital or medical service corporation contract; HMO subscriber contract; plan provided by a MEWA or plan provided by another benefit arrangement, to the extent permitted by ERISA, and the North Carolina Teachers' and State Employees' Comprehensive Major Medical Plan established under Part 3 of Article 3 of Chapter 135 of the General Statutes. `Comprehensive health insurance plan' does not mean any plan implemented or administered through the Department of Health and Human Services.

(2) Dependent child. -- A child under the age of 19 for whom the taxpayer is allowed to deduct a personal exemption under section 151(c)(1)(B) of the Code for the taxable year.

(3) Family size. -- The number of individuals for whom the taxpayer is entitled to deduct a personal exemption under the Code for the taxable year.

(4) Health insurance premium. -- An amount paid by the taxpayer for insurance coverage of the taxpayer's dependent children under a private or employer-sponsored comprehensive health insurance plan and an amount paid to purchase extended coverage under the Health Insurance Program for Children pursuant to G.S. 108A-70.21. The term does not include, however, amounts deducted from or not included in the taxpayer's gross income for the taxable year, as calculated in subsection (d) of this section."

(b) G.S. 105-160.3(b) is amended by adding a new subdivision to read:

"(4) G.S. 105-151.27. Credit for child health insurance."

(c) The Department of Revenue shall withhold from collections under Division II of Article 4 of Chapter 105 of the General Statutes for the 1999-2000 fiscal year the amount necessary to reimburse it for its additional costs of printing, postage, programming, and administration directly attributable to this act. It is the intent of the General Assembly to appropriate funds to the Department of Revenue for the 1999-2001 fiscal biennium to cover the costs of auditing ten percent (10%) of the tax credits claimed under this section. These costs include salary, benefits, and work space for 10 auditors and two clerical support positions. It is also the intent of the General Assembly to appropriate funds to the Department of Revenue for the 1999-2000 fiscal year for the one-time programming costs required for the credit authorized by this section.

(d) This section is effective for taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 1999, and expires on the effective date of an act repealing the Health Insurance Program for Children established under this act.

(e) This section becomes effective only if the United States Secretary of Health and Human Services approves the State Plan to implement the Health Insurance Program for Children established under this act.

Section 6. G.S. 143-626(2) reads as rewritten:

"(2) Accept applications by carriers to qualify as Accountable Health Carriers, determine the eligibility of carriers to become Accountable Health Carriers according to criteria described in G.S. 143-629, designate carriers as Accountable Health Carriers, approve one additional qualified health care plan to be offered to small employers beyond the basic and standard health care plans, and approve programs that provide options for the purchase of private insurance for dependent coverage that meets the requirements of the Health Insurance Program for Children established under Part 8 of Article 2 of Chapter 108A of the General Statutes and Title XXI of the Social Security Act. The Board shall report programs approved to the Joint Legislative Health Care Oversight Committee established under G.S. 120-70.110."

Section 7. In order to ensure that health insurance coverage provided to children from public funds is not duplicative of coverage provided to the same children pursuant to court orders for medical support or health insurance, the Department of Health and Human Services shall develop a plan for collecting and retrieving data to enable the Department to readily identify children covered by support orders and also covered under private health insurance, or eligible for coverage under the State Medicaid Program or the Health Insurance Program for Children established in this act. No later than October 1, 1998, the Department shall report on the development of this plan to the Joint Legislative Health Care Oversight Committee.

Section 8. Except for immunization, no State funds, federal funds, or funds from any other source may be used under the Health Insurance Program for Children established under this act to reimburse medical services performed in school-based health clinic settings. The Executive Administrator and Board of Trustees of the Teachers' and State Employees' Comprehensive Major Medical Plan shall conduct a survey of any claims paid by the Plan's self-insured indemnity program during each of the last three plan years. Any results of the survey shall be used by the Plan in conducting a study of the array of medical services delivered in school-based settings and whether or not such services should be eliminated, curtailed, or expanded. No later than March 31, 1999, the Plan shall make its findings and recommendations pursuant to this study known to the Committee on Employee Hospital and Medical Benefits, the Joint Legislative Health Care Oversight Committee, and the 1999 Session of the General Assembly.

Section 9. Not later than September 1, 1998, the Department of Health and Human Services shall select a name for the Health Insurance Program for Children established under this act. The Department shall establish procedures for public input into the selection of the name of the Program. Prior to final selection of the Program name by the Department, the Department shall report to the Joint Legislative Health Care Oversight Committee the results of the public input solicited by the Department and the name selected by the Department.

Section 10. (a) There is appropriated from the General Fund to the Department of Health and Human Services the sum of fifteen million six hundred seventeen thousand eight hundred twenty-two dollars ($15,617,822) for the 1998-99 fiscal year to be used for the Health Insurance Program for Children established under this act and under Title XXI of the Social Security Act, as added by Pub. L. 105-33, 111 Stat. 552. The Office of State Budget and Management shall include in the proposed continuation budget the amount of State funds necessary for Program implementation for the budgeted fiscal year but not more than the amount necessary to draw down the maximum amount of federal funds available to the State for the budgeted fiscal year for the Health Insurance Program for Children under Title XXI of the Social Security Act, as added by Pub. L. 105-33, 111 Stat. 552.

(b) Of the funds appropriated under subsection (a) of this section, the Department of Health and Human Services may use up to two million dollars

($2,000,000) for the 1998-99 fiscal year to cover unmatched start-up costs for the Health Insurance Program for Children established under this act.

(c) No State funds appropriated under this act may be expended for any purpose other than as provided under this act for the implementation of the Health Insurance Program for Children established under this act and approved by the United States Secretary of Health and Human Services under Title XXI of the Social Security Act, as added by Pub. L. 105-33, 111 Stat. 552.

(d) Funds appropriated under this section and not expended or obligated in the 1998-99 fiscal year shall revert to the General Fund on June 30, 1999.

Section 11. Section 10 of this act becomes effective July 1, 1998. Health insurance coverage provided to children under the Health Insurance Program for Children established under this act shall become effective no earlier than October 1, 1998. The remainder of this act is effective when it becomes law. Since the Health Insurance Program for Children established in this act is dependent upon federal funds, it is the intent of the General Assembly that the Health Insurance Program for Children will continue and benefits will be paid for so long as federal funds are available and State funds are specifically appropriated for this purpose.

"Thanks for giving us the strength to wait out this tug-of-war to give children health insurance, especially those children of the low-income, uninsured.

"Thanks for allowing us to walk these halls and not get weary in our efforts to provide for the least of these.

"Bless the staff members of the Department of Social Services who will search out the children to provide services to build healthy lives so that these children may have productive lives.

"Thanks for giving us the power to make a difference in the lives of others. Amen."

RESOLUTIONS FROM OTHER STATES

HOUSE RESOLUTION NO. 120

BY REPRESENTATIVE WRIGHT

STATE OF LOUISIANA
A RESOLUTION

To urge and request the Congress of the United States to propose an amendment to the Constitution of the United States for ratification, for submission to the states, to provide for election of members of the federal judiciary.

ORIGINATED IN THE
House of Representatives

ENROLLED

WHEREAS, a common complaint that the public makes about federal district judges is that they are not accountable to the people because of this life tenure; and

WHEREAS, this public complaint continues that these judges, because of their insulation and isolation after a certain length of time in office, lose touch with the problems facing and feelings of the majority of the American people; and

WHEREAS, state district, appellate, and supreme court justices in Louisiana have specific limited terms of office, as do other inferior federal courts, such as bankruptcy judges whose term is fourteen years; and

WHEREAS, this constitutional amendment would not give the people the right to vote for a federal judge, but only the right to voice their opinion on whether the appointment of federal district judges should be for a limited term short of life tenure; and

WHEREAS, the system appears to still maintain an independent judiciary uninfluenced by undue public pressure in the inferior federal courts in which judges are not granted life tenure; and

WHEREAS, Article V of the Constitution of the United States provides that an amendment to the constitution may be proposed by congress which shall become part of the constitution when ratified by three-fourths of the several states.

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the House of Representatives of the Legislature of Louisiana does hereby urge and request the Congress of the United States to propose an amendment to the Constitution of the United States, for submission to the states for ratification, to provide for election of members of the federal judiciary .

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that certified copies of this Resolution be transmitted by the secretary of state to the president and the secretary of the United States Senate, to the speaker and clerk of the United States House of Representatives, to each member of this state's delegation to the congress and to the presiding officer of each house of each state legislature in the United States.

STATE OF MINNESOTA
A RESOLUTION

memorializing Congress to support legislative initiatives to discourage use of public resources for movement of professional sports franchises and to repeal antitrust exemptions for professional sports.

WHEREAS, professional sports can play an important role in the social and cultural atmosphere of a community; and

WHEREAS, various communities seek to have professional sports franchises; and

WHEREAS, the use of public resources to encourage professional sports franchises to relocate from one community to another is a form of counterproductive economic competition that produces overall detriment to all states, while providing potential unjust enrichment to the owners of these franchises; and

WHEREAS, community ownership of professional sports franchises have the potential to maximize the social, cultural, and economic advantages of sports franchises to a community, while minimizing threats of relocation that result in counterproductive economic competition; and

WHEREAS, certain professional sports leagues and associations have adopted policies that prohibit or restrict communtiy ownership of professional sports franchises; and

WHEREAS, federal laws and policies, such as exemption from antitrust laws, contribute to economic inefficiency and to wasteful use of public resources; NOW, THEREFORE,

BE IT RESOLVED by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota that it strongly urges the Minnesota congressional delegation to support legislative efforts in Congress that will:

(1) discourage movement of professional sports franchises, including prohibiting the use of public resources in connection with this movement;

(2) prohibit professional sports leagues from forbidding community ownership of professional sports franchises;

(3) tax benefits that are provided by the public to professional sports franchises; and

(4) repeal antitrust exemptions for professional sports.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota that it strongly urges the governors and legislatures in the other states to promulgate this message.

SENATE JOURNAL

SECOND SESSION

1998

ONE HUNDRED TWENTY-FOURTH DAY

Senate Chamber
Monday, May 11, 1998

The Senate meets at 12:00 Noon pursuant to adjournment as provided by Resolution 33, and is called to order by the Honorable Dennis A. Wicker, Lieutenant Governor, in the Senate Chamber in the State Capitol.

Prayer is offered by the Reverend Mike Morris, Senate Chaplain, as follows:

"Almighty God, in this historic place and on the opening day of this Session we might be prone to a moment or two of nostalgia--remembering the great Statesmen who sat at these desks and debated issues in behalf of the people of our State. But the men and women who now occupy these Senatorial seats are also great Statesmen. Help them raise the bar and set new standards of statesmenship for future generations to remember.

"We might be prone to think of the past as the good old days, but let us remember that it was easier to conquer adversity in those days of relative poverty than it will be now for these Senators to conquer the prosperity that blesses us. Help them to continue to reach out to the disenfranchised and needy in our State.

"Finally, Oh God, remind us that this is Your world. You began it in creation, You live among us, work within us, sometimes despite us, to bring all things to Yourself. Renew in these Senators a vision of Your kingdom in its fullness. Keep that vision ever before them particularly during the times in this Session when the going is rough and when they might be tempted to lose hope.

"Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done on earth, in North Carolina, as it is in Heaven. In Your Holy Name we pray. Amen."

PLEDGE OF ALLEGIANCE

Led by the Lieutenant Governor, members and guests remain standing and pledge allegiance to the flag of the United States of America.

Senator Basnight, President Pro Tempore, announces that the Journal of Thursday, August 28, 1997, has been examined and is found to be correct. On his motion, the Senate dispenses with the reading of the Journal and it stands approved as written.

The President of the Senate extends courtesies of the floor to Dr. Carl King Rust, II, from Wilmington, North Carolina, who is serving the Senate as Doctor of the Day.

EXECUTIVE ORDERS

Executive Orders received in the Office of the Principal Clerk are presented to the Senate and read as follows:

Executive Order Number 134, The Commission on Substance Abuse Treatment and Prevention.

Executive Order Number 135, Extending Executive Order No. 47, Board of Education for the Schools for the Deaf.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Basnight is recognized for a point of personal privilege as follows:

"Today is a very important day for all of us, so to these Chambers we welcome you back to your Capitol and your Chambers. It was four years ago that we came here, back when the ... of this great State ... This day, again, is very special for those of you who are now serving in here.

"As we take a step back into history, we should take this opportunity to focus on where North Carolina was 150 years ago and how far we have come. Our population has grown tenfold, from 700,000 to 7 million, our economic development, once struggling, is now booming, and where we were once a collection of poor communities, we have become the envy of many states.

"But some of the same challenges our leaders faced then are still with us today. I am thinking specifically of our great responsibility to educate North Carolina's children.

"I would like to leave you with this statement from Senate President Francis D. Winston on opening day in 1909:

'We have built a new schoolhouse every day in the year during the last five years. The tick of the clock has not been more regular than the hammer of the schoolhouse carpenter.

Our little school districts have become the centers of local self-government and are illustrating the wisdom and the power of government by the people, of the people and for the people.

Our army of school children will grow until, clasping hands, they may reach from seashore to mountains. These are the true guardians of the State.

Let the State be true to them and they will ever be true to her—will give her peace, prosperity, virtue and happiness. The real hope of the world is in the constant improvement of each generation of children.' "

The President recognizes the following pages serving in the Senate this week:

Julie Elizabeth Clark, Wagram; James Blakley Gwatkin, Jarvisburg; Bethany Hinson, Greensboro; Catharine S. Huisman, Raleigh; Elizabeth Jernigan, Raleigh; Christy Ann Johnson, Hope Mills; Kristen Lane Jones, Garner; Danielle Logan, Garner; April Lyle, Fayetteville; Cara McNeill, Southern Pines; Michael Oliphant, Charlotte; Stephen Oliphant, Charlotte; Crystal Michelle Rogers, Sanford; Matthew Vernon Smith, Greensboro; Michael Sean Sullivan, Beulaville; Laura Tanzini, Raleigh; Jason Godfrey Ward, Kitty Hawk; and Nichole Ashby Weston, Yanceyville.

On motion of Senator Basnight, seconded by Senator Rand, the Senate adjourns at 12:15 P.M. to meet tomorrow, Tuesday, May 12, at 2:00 P.M.

ONE HUNDRED TWENTY-FIFTH DAY

Senate Chamber
Tuesday, May 12, 1998

Prayer is offered by the Reverend Dr. James Donald Phillips, Pastor of First United Methodist Church of Henderson, North Carolina, as follows:

"Almighty and Eternal God, we bow before You at this time, mercifully asking that You receive our prayers of thanksgiving for Your goodness to us as Your people.

"Our great nation has been blessed with fertile fields, scenic wonders, and great natural resources. Because of Your divine influence, many people have sacrificed, some with life itself, that we may gather in freedom here in this place. As individuals, we are recipients of life, health, material possessions, keen minds, and the trust of the people whom we serve. What a great opportunity! What a sacred trust! What an awesome responsibility! How blessed we are, and we thank You, O Father.

"May all who sit in this place now, and in the future, serve You in honesty of purpose and uprightness of life. May they never forget their duties to the people they serve, and to You. Deliver them from the love of power and from motives of personal gain; from considerations of men or money in place of the demands of truth and justice.

"Bless each of them with wisdom, patience, courage, and the determination to always do what is right, fair, honest, and that which is good for the people of our great State.

"Help each of them to remember that it is easy to do what is popular and difficult to show restraint. When the strain of their office and the decisions they struggle to make, weigh heavily upon them, touch each one with a measure of Your power and strength. Remind them that as long as they are pure in heart and morally upright in their actions, habits and thinking, both in public and private, they can look to You for answers, strength, and courage to complete their tasks.

"For this and all benefits of Your love, mercy and grace we say thank You. Amen."

With unanimous consent, the President grants a leave of absence for today to Senator Reeves.

Senator Basnight, President Pro Tempore, announces the Journal of yesterday, Monday, May 11, has been examined and is found to be correct. On his motion, the Senate dispenses with the reading of the Journal and it stands approved as written.

The text of the attached proposed Conference Committee Substitute bill 1910, is as follows:

AN ACT TO ESTABLISH PROCEDURES FOR CONVERSIONS BY HOSPITAL, MEDICAL, AND DENTAL SERVICE CORPORATIONS.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

Section 1. G.S. 58-65-130(3) reads as rewritten:

"(3) The charter of any corporation subject to the provisions of this Article and Article 66 of this Chapter may be amended to convert that corporation, so amending its charter, into ~~either~~ a ~~mutual nonstock or~~ stock accident and health insurance company or stock life insurance company subject to the provisions of Articles 1 through 64 of this Chapter provided the contractual rights of the subscribers ~~or~~ and certificate holders ~~in the reserves and capital of such~~ of the corporation are adequately ~~protected under rules and regulations adopted by the Commissioner of Insurance.~~ protected. The proposed amendment shall be considered pursuant to G.S. 58-65-131, 58-65-132, and 58-65-133. Other provisions of this section and this Article relating to the procedure for amending the charter shall not apply."

Section 2. Article 65 of Chapter 58 of the General Statutes is amended by adding the following new sections to read:

"§58-65-131. Findings; definitions; conversion plan.

(a) Intent and Findings. -- It is the intent of the General Assembly by the enactment of this section, G.S. 58-65-132, and G.S. 58-65-133 to create a procedure for a medical, hospital, or dental service corporation to convert to a stock accident and health insurance company or stock life insurance company that is subject to the applicable provisions of Articles 1 through 64 of this Chapter. Except as provided herein, it is not the intent of the General Assembly to supplant, modify, or repeal other provisions of this Article and Article 66 of this Chapter or the provisions of Chapter 55A of the General Statutes (the Nonprofit Corporation Act) that govern other transactions and the procedures relating to such transactions that apply to corporations governed by the provisions of this Article and Article 66 of this Chapter.

The General Assembly recognizes the substantial and recent changes in market and health care conditions that are affecting these corporations and the benefit of equal regulatory treatment and competitive equality for health care insurers. The General Assembly finds that a procedure for conversion is in the best interest of policyholders because it will provide greater financial stability for these corporations and a greater opportunity for the corporations to remain financially independent. The General Assembly also finds that if a medical, hospital, or dental service corporation converts to a stock accident and health insurance company or stock life insurance company, the conversion plan must provide a benefit to the people of North Carolina equal to one hundred percent (100%) of the fair market value of the corporation.

(b) Definitions. -- As used in this section, G.S. 58-65-132, and G.S. 58-65-133:

(1) "Certificate holder" includes an enrollee, as defined in Article 67 of this Chapter, in a health maintenance plan provided by the corporation or a subsidiary or by the new corporation or a subsidiary.

(2) "Code" means Title 26 of the United States Code, the United States Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended.

(3) "Conversion" means the conversion of a hospital, medical, or dental service corporation to a stock accident and health insurance company or stock life insurance company subject to the applicable provisions of Articles 1 through 64 of this Chapter.

(4) "Corporation" means a hospital, medical, or dental service corporation governed by this Article that files or is required to file a plan of conversion with the Commissioner under subsection (d) of this section to convert from a hospital, medical, or dental service corporation to a stock accident and health insurance company or stock life insurance company.

(5) "Foundation" means a newly formed tax-exempt charitable social welfare organization formed and operating under section 501(c)(4) of the Code and Chapter 55A of the General Statutes.

(c) Compliance Required in Certain Events. -- A corporation governed by this Article shall comply with the provisions of this section, G.S. 58-65-132, and G.S. 58-65-133 before it may do any of the following:

(1) Sell, lease, convey, exchange, transfer, or make other disposition, either directly or indirectly in a single transaction or related series of transactions, of ten percent (10%) of the corporation's assets, as determined by statutory accounting principles, to, or merge or consolidate or liquidate with or into, any business corporation or other business entity, except a business corporation or other business entity that is a wholly owned subsidiary of the corporation. The ten percent (10%) asset limitation in this subdivision does not apply to:

a. The purchase, acquisition by assignment or otherwise by the corporation of individual accident and health policies or contracts insuring North Carolina residents, or with respect to accident and health group master policies or contracts, only the percentage portion of those policies or contracts covering North Carolina resident certificate holders, and that are issued by a company domiciled or licensed to do business in North Carolina, if the purchase is first approved by the Commissioner after notice to the Attorney General, no profit will inure to the benefit of any officer, director, or employee of the corporation or its subsidiaries, the purchase is transacted at arm's length and for fair value, and the purchase will further the corporation's ability to fulfill its purposes;

b. In the case of a purchase by the corporation of all the common stock of a company domiciled or licensed to do business in North Carolina, that portion of the value of the company which is determined by the Commissioner to be attributable to individual accident and health policies or contracts insuring North Carolina residents or, in the case of accident and health group master policies or contracts, the percentage portion of those policies or contracts covering North Carolina resident certificate holders, if the purchase is first approved by the Commissioner after notice to the Attorney General, no profit will inure to the benefit of any officer, director, or employee of the corporation or its subsidiaries, the purchase is transacted at arm's length and for fair value, and the purchase will further the corporation's ability to fulfill its purposes;

c. This subdivision shall not be construed to prohibit the corporation or a wholly owned subsidiary, with the approval of the Commissioner after notice to the Attorney General, from investing in joint ventures or partnerships with unrelated third parties, if no profit will inure to the benefit of any officer, director, or employee of the corporation or its subsidiaries, the transaction is conducted at arm's length and for fair value, and the transaction furthers the corporation's ability to fulfill its purposes.

(3) Permit its aggregate annual revenues, determined in accordance with statutory accounting principles, from all for-profit activities or

(4) Permit its aggregate assets for four consecutive quarters, determined in accordance with statutory accounting principles, employed in all for-profit activities or operations, including, but not limited to, those assets owned or controlled by any for-profit wholly owned subsidiaries, to exceed forty percent (40%) of the aggregate admitted assets of the corporation and its subsidiaries for four consecutive quarters, determined in accordance with statutory accounting principles.

In determining whether the corporation must comply with the provisions of this section, G.S. 58-65-132, and G.S. 58-65-133, the Commissioner may review and consolidate actions of the corporation, its subsidiaries, and other legal entities in which the corporation directly or indirectly owns an interest, and treat the consolidated actions as requiring a conversion. An appeal of the Commissioner's order that consolidated actions require a conversion shall lie directly to the North Carolina Court of Appeals, provided that any party may petition the North Carolina Supreme Court, pursuant to G.S. 7A-31(b), to certify the case for discretionary review by the Supreme Court prior to determination by the Court of Appeals. Appeals under this subsection must be filed within 30 days of the Commissioner's order and shall be considered in the most expeditious manner practical. The corporation must file a plan of conversion within 12 months of the later of the issuance of the Commissioner's order or a final decision on appeal.

(d) Charter Amendment for Conversion. -- A corporation may propose to amend its charter pursuant to this Article to convert the corporation to a stock accident and health insurance company or stock life insurance company subject to the applicable provisions of Articles 1 through 64 of this Chapter. The proposed amended charter and a plan for conversion as described in subsection (e) of this section shall be filed with the Commissioner for approval.

(e) Filing Conversion Plan; Costs of Review. -- A corporation shall file a plan for conversion with the Commissioner and submit a copy to the Attorney General at least 120 days before the proposed date of conversion. The corporation or the new corporation shall reimburse the Department of Insurance and the office of the Attorney General for the actual costs of reviewing, analyzing, and processing the plan. The Commissioner and the Attorney General may contract with experts, consultants, or other professional advisors to assist in reviewing the plan. These contracts are personal professional service contracts exempt from Articles 3 and 3C of Chapter 143 of the General Statutes. Contract costs for these personal professional services shall not exceed an amount that is reasonable and appropriate for the review of the plan.

(f) Plan Requirements. -- A plan of conversion submitted to the Commissioner shall state with specificity the following terms and conditions of the proposed conversion:

(1) The purposes of the conversion.

(2) The proposed articles of incorporation of the new corporation.

(3) The proposed bylaws of the new corporation.

(4) A description of any changes in the new corporation's mode of operations after conversion.

(5) A statement describing the manner in which the plan provides for the protection of all existing contractual rights of the corporation's subscribers and certificate holders to medical or hospital services or the payment of claims for reimbursement for those services. The corporation's subscribers and certificate holders shall have no right to receive any assets, surplus, capital, payment or distribution or to receive any stock or other ownership interest in the new corporation in connection with the conversion.

(6) A statement that the legal existence of the corporation does not terminate and that the new corporation is subject to all liabilities, obligations, and relations of whatever kind of the corporation and succeeds to all property, assets, rights, interests, and relations of the corporation.

(7) Documentation showing that the corporation, acting by its board of directors, trustees, or other governing authority, has approved the plan. It shall not be necessary for the subscribers or certificate holders of the corporation to vote on or approve the plan of conversion, any amendments to the corporation's articles of incorporation or bylaws, or the articles of incorporation or the bylaws of the new corporation, notwithstanding any provision to the contrary in this Article or Article 66 of this Chapter or in the articles of incorporation or bylaws of the corporation.

(8) The business plan of the new corporation, including, but not limited to, a comparative premium rate analysis of the new corporation's major plans and product offerings, that, among other things, compares actual premium rates for the three-year period before the filing of the plan for conversion and forecasted premium rates for a three-year period following the proposed conversion. This rate analysis shall address the forecasted effect, if any, of the proposed conversion on the cost to policyholders or certificate holders of the new corporation and on the new corporation's underwriting profit, investment income, and loss and claim reserves, including the effect, if any, of adverse market or risk selection upon these reserves. Information provided under this subsection is confidential pursuant to G.S. 58-19-40.

(9) Any conditions, other than approval of the plan of conversion by the Commissioner, to be fulfilled by a proposed date upon which the conversion would become effective.

(10) The proposed articles of incorporation and bylaws of the Foundation, containing the provisions required by G.S. 58-65-133(h).

(11) Any proposed agreement between the Foundation and the new corporation, including, but not limited to, any agreement relating to the voting or registration for sale of any capital stock to be issued by the new corporation to the Foundation.

(g) Public Comment. -- Within 20 days of receiving a plan to convert, the Commissioner shall publish a notice in one or more newspapers of general circulation in the corporation's service area describing the name of the corporation, the nature of the plan filed under G.S. 58-65-131(d), and the date of receipt of the plan. The notice shall indicate that the Commissioner will solicit public comments and hold three public hearings on the plan. The public hearings must be completed within 60 days of the filing of the conversion plan. The written public comment period will be held open until 10 days after the last public hearing. For good cause the Commissioner may extend these deadlines once for a maximum of 30 days. The Commissioner shall provide copies of all written public comments to the Attorney General.

(h) Public Access to Records. -- All applications, reports, plans, or other documents under this section, G.S. 58-65-132, and G.S. 58-65-133 are public records unless otherwise provided in this Chapter. The Commissioner shall provide the public with prompt and reasonable access to public records relating to the proposed conversion of the corporation. Access to public records covered by this section shall be made available for at least 30 days before the end of the public comment period.

"§ 58-65-132. Review and approval of conversion plan; new corporation.

(a) Approval of Plan of Conversion.-- The Commissioner shall approve the plan of conversion and issue a certificate of authority to the new corporation to transact business in this State only if the Commissioner finds all of the following:

(1) The plan of conversion meets the requirements of G.S. 58-65-131, this section, and G.S. 58-65-133.

(2) Upon conversion, the new corporation will meet the applicable standards and conditions under this Chapter, including applicable minimum capital and surplus requirements.

(3) The plan of conversion adequately protects the existing contractual rights of the corporation's subscribers and certificate holders to medical or hospital services and payment of claims for reimbursement for those services.

(4) No director, officer, or employee of the corporation will receive:

a. Any fee, commission, compensation, or other valuable consideration for aiding, promoting, or assisting in the conversion of the corporation other than compensation paid to any director, officer, or employee of the corporation in the ordinary course of business; or

b. Any distribution of the assets, surplus, capital, or capital stock of the new corporation as part of a conversion.

(5) The corporation has complied with all material requirements of this Chapter, and disciplinary action is not pending against the corporation.

(6) The plan of conversion is fair and equitable and not prejudicial to the contractual rights of the policyholders and certificate holders of the new corporation.

(7) The plan of conversion is in the public interest. The Commissioner shall find that the plan is in the public interest only if it provides a benefit for the people of North Carolina equal to the value of the corporation at the time of conversion, in accordance with the criteria set out in this subdivision. In determining whether the plan of conversion is in the public interest, the Commissioner may also consider other factors, including, but not limited to, those relating to the accessibility and affordability of health care. The Commissioner must determine that the plan of conversion meets all of the following criteria:

a. Consideration, determined by the Commissioner to be equal to one hundred percent (100%) of the fair market value of the corporation, will be conveyed or issued by the corporation to the Foundation at the time the new corporation files its articles of incorporation. If the consideration to be conveyed is all of the common stock of the new corporation that is then issued and outstanding at the time of conversion, and there is no other capital stock of any type or nature then outstanding, it is conclusively presumed that the Foundation will acquire the fair market value of the corporation.

b. At any time after the conversion, the new corporation may issue, in a public offering or a private placement, additional shares of common stock of the same class and having the same voting, dividend, and other rights as that transferred to the Foundation, subject to the applicable provisions of Chapter 55 of the General Statutes and any voting and registration agreements.

(8) The plan of conversion contains a proposed voting agreement and registration agreement between the Foundation and the proposed new corporation that meets the requirements of G.S. 58-65-133.

(9) The Attorney General has given approval pursuant to G.S. 58-65-133(h).

(b) New Corporation. -- After issuance of the certificate of authority as provided in subsection (a) of this section, the new corporation shall no longer be subject to this Article and Article 66 of this Chapter but shall be subject to and comply with all applicable laws and regulations applicable to domestic insurers and Chapter 55 of the General Statutes, except that Articles 9 and 9A of Chapter 55 shall not apply to the new corporation. The new corporation shall file its articles of incorporation, as amended and certified by the Commissioner, with the North Carolina Secretary of State. The legal existence of the corporation does not terminate, and the new corporation is a continuation of the corporation. The conversion shall only be a change in identity and form of organization. Except as provided in subdivision (a)(7) of this subsection, all property, assets, rights, liabilities, obligations, interests, and relations of whatever kind of the corporation shall continue and remain in the new corporation. All actions and legal proceedings to which the corporation was a party prior to conversion shall be unaffected by the conversion.

(c) Final Decision and Order; Procedures. -- The Commissioner's final decision and order regarding the plan of conversion shall include findings of fact and conclusions of law. Findings of fact shall be based upon and supported by substantial evidence, including evidence submitted with the plan by the corporation and evidence obtained at hearings held by the Commissioner. A person aggrieved by a final decision of the Commissioner approving or disapproving a conversion may petition the Superior Court of Wake County within 30 days thereafter for judicial review. An appeal from a final decision and order of the Commissioner under this section shall be conducted pursuant to G.S. 58-2-75. Chapter 150B of the General Statutes does not apply to the procedures of G.S. 58-65-131, this section, and G.S. 58-65-133. This subsection does not apply to appeal of an order of the Commissioner issued pursuant to G.S. 58-65-131(c).

(d) Attorney General's Enforcement Authority; Legal Action on Validity of Plan of Conversion. --

(1) Nothing in this Chapter limits the power of the Attorney General to seek a declaratory judgment or to take other legal action to protect or enforce the rights of the public in the corporation.

(2) Any legal action with respect to the conversion must be filed in the Superior Court of Wake County.

"§ 58-65-133. Creation and operation of foundation.

(a) Creation. -- A Foundation shall be created to receive the fair market value of the corporation as provided in G.S. 58-65-132(a)(7) when the corporation converts.

(b) Purpose. -- The charitable purpose of the Foundation shall be to promote the health of the people of North Carolina. For a period of 10 years from the effective date of the conversion, the Foundation may not, without the consent of the Attorney General, establish or operate any entity licensed pursuant to Chapter 58 of the General Statutes that would compete with the new corporation or any of its subsidiaries.

(c) Board of Directors. -- The initial board of directors of the foundation shall consist of 11 members appointed by the Attorney General from a list of nominees recommended pursuant to subsection (d) of this section. The Attorney General shall stagger the terms of the initial appointees so that six members serve two-year terms and five members serve four-year terms. The board shall fill a vacancy in an initial term. Their successors shall be chosen by the board of directors of the Foundation in accordance with the bylaws of the Foundation and shall serve four-year terms. No member may serve more than two consecutive full terms nor more than 10 consecutive years. The Foundation may increase or decrease the size of the board in accordance with its bylaws, provided that the board shall have no fewer than nine directors and no more than 15 directors and that a decrease in size does not eliminate the then current term of any director.

(d) Advisory Committee. -- An advisory committee shall be formed to (i) develop, subject to the approval of the Attorney General, the criteria for selection of the Foundation's initial board of directors and (ii) nominate candidates for the initial board of directors. The advisory committee shall be comprised of the following 11 members: three representatives of the business community selected by North Carolina Citizens for Business and Industry, three representatives of the public and private medical school community selected by The University of North Carolina Board of Governors, three representatives of private foundations and other nonprofit organizations selected by the North Carolina Center for Nonprofits, a representative of the North Carolina Association of Hospitals and Health Care Networks, and a representative of the North Carolina Medical Society. After receiving a copy of the proposed plan of conversion, the Attorney General shall immediately notify these organizations, and the advisory committee shall be constituted within 45 days thereafter.

The advisory committee's criteria shall ensure an open recruitment process for the directors. The advisory committee shall nominate 22 residents of North Carolina for the 11 positions to be filled by the Attorney General. The Attorney General shall retain an independent executive recruiting firm or firms to assist the advisory committee in its work.

(e) Foundation and New Corporation Independent. -- The Foundation and its directors, officers, and employees shall be and remain independent of the new corporation and its affiliates. No director, officer, or employee of the Foundation shall serve as a director, officer, or employee of the new corporation or any of its affiliates. No director, officer, or employee of the new corporation or any of its affiliates shall serve as a director, officer, or employee of the Foundation. This subsection shall no longer apply after (i) 10 years following the effective date of the conversion or (ii) the divestment by the Foundation of at least ninety-five percent (95%) of the stock of the new corporation received pursuant to G.S. 58-65-132(a)(7)a. and subsection (a) of this section, whichever occurs later.

(f) Voting and Stock Registration Agreement. -- The Foundation and the new corporation shall operate under a voting agreement and a stock registration agreement, approved by the Commissioner and the Attorney General, that provides at a minimum for the following:

(1) The Foundation will vote the common stock in the new corporation for directors of the new corporation nominated by the board of directors of the new corporation to the extent provided by the terms of the voting agreement.

(2) The voting restrictions will not apply to common stock of the new corporation sold by the Foundation.

(3) The board of directors of the new corporation will determine the timing of any initial public offering of the new corporation's common stock, either by the new corporation or by the Foundation, and the Foundation shall have demand registration rights and optional "piggy-back" or "incidental" registration rights in connection with any offerings of the new corporation's common stock by the new corporation, on the terms and conditions set forth in a stock registration agreement and agreed upon by the new corporation and the Foundation and approved by the Commissioner and the Attorney General.

(4) The voting agreement may contain additional terms, including (i) voting and ownership restrictions with regard to the common stock of the new corporation and (ii) provisions for the voting or registration for sale of any common stock to be issued to the Foundation by the new corporation.

(g) Costs. -- The corporation shall pay the reasonable expenses of the advisory committee and executive search firm and the costs of any consultants, experts, or other professional advisors retained by the Attorney General incident to review under this section.

(h) Attorney General's Approval. -- Before the Commissioner approves a plan of conversion pursuant to G.S. 58-65-132, the Attorney General, on behalf of the public and charitable interests in this State, must approve the determination relating to the fair market value of the corporation under G.S. 58-65-132(a)(7), the articles of incorporation and bylaws of the foundation, and all proposed agreements between the new corporation and the Foundation, including stock voting or registration agreements. The Attorney General may seek advice on these matters from consultants, investment bankers, and other professional advisors engaged by the Commissioner or Attorney General incident to review of the plan. The proposed articles of incorporation of the Foundation shall provide for all of the following:

(1) State that the Foundation is organized and operated exclusively for charitable purposes and for the promotion of social welfare.

(2) State that no part of the net earnings of the Foundation shall inure to the benefit of any private shareholder or individual.

(3) State that the Foundation shall not engage in any political campaign activity or the making of political contributions.

(4) Prohibit the Foundation from paying or incurring any amount that, if paid by an organization classified as a "private foundation" under section 509(a) of the Code, would constitute a "taxable expenditure" as defined by sections 4945(d)(1) and (2) of the Code.

(5) Prohibit the Foundation from engaging in any self-dealing for the benefit of its directors, officers, or employees.

(6) Provide for an ongoing community advisory committee to offer broad public input to the Foundation concerning its operations and activities.

(7) Provide that the Foundation, after its first three years of operation, will pay out the lesser of (i) "qualifying distributions" of "distributable amounts," as defined in section 4942 of the Code, as if the Foundation were classified as a private Foundation subject to the distribution requirements, but not the taxes imposed, under that section or (ii) substantially all of its income, less qualifying expenses. In no event shall the Foundation be required to invade its corpus to meet the distribution requirements under this subdivision.

(8) State that provisions in the articles of incorporation that are either required by this subdivision or designated by the Attorney General cannot be amended without the prior written approval of the Attorney General.

Within 120 days of the end of its fiscal year, the Foundation shall provide the Attorney General, the Commissioner, the Speaker of the House of Representatives, and the President Pro Tempore of the Senate its State and federal tax returns for the preceding fiscal year. The tax returns shall be made available for public inspection."

Section 3. G.S. 58-65-160 is repealed.

Section 4. This act is effective when it becomes law.

With unanimous consent, on motion of Senator Rand, the Conference Report is placed on the Calendar for Monday, May 18, for adoption.

On motion of Senator Horton, the memorandum dated May 21, 1998, written to Senator Cooper by Gerry F. Cohen, Counsel for the Senate Redistricting Committee, will, without objection, be spread upon the Journal, as follows:

MEMORANDUM

TO: Senator Roy Cooper

FROM: Gerry F. Cohen
Counsel, Senate Redistricting Committee

SUBJECT: 98 CONGRESSIONAL PLAN A

As we discussed, I have drafted a proposed Congressional Redistricting Plan, 98 CONGRESSIONAL PLAN A which has five goals:

1) Eliminate the constitutional defects in the 12th Congressional District
2) Change as few districts as possible.
3) Keep the current partisan balance of the delegation.
4) Keep incumbents in separate districts and preserve the cores of those districts.
5) Reduce division of counties and cities, especially where the court found that the division was on racial lines

At the end of this memorandum is the verbatim majority comments of the District Court in Cromartie v. Hunt relating to District 12 with a detailed analysis of how 98 CONGRESSIONAL PLAN A responds to and corrects every deficiency found by the court. Some highlights follow directly below this paragraph.

Plaintiff's arguments that in the corridor between Charlotte and Greensboro, precincts were selected on the basis of race played a heavy weight in the rationale of the court. The court in page 9 of the opinion criticized the path of the district from Charlotte to Greensboro as being racially based, picking and choosing black precincts and concentrations in Statesville, Lexington, and Thomasville. This has been eliminated, Lexington is whole in the 12th, none of Statesville and Thomasville are in the 12th. The district no longer twists and turns from Charlotte (opinion page 9 and 10) to its new terminus in Winston-Salem, instead it is quite regular.

On page 7, the court citicizes Davidson, Rowan, and Iredell as narrow corridors which pick up only as many African-Americans as are needed. This is no longer true, there is no picking and choosing based on race, in fact, all of Rowan County is included.

The court criticizes at page 7 the split of Forsyth County into a 12th District that is 72.9% black and a 5th District that is 11.1% black. In the new plan, not only is the part within th 12th district nearly a perfect rectangle, the division is now 61.3% Black in the 12th and 10.41% black in the 5th. West Winston-Salem, which is predominantly white, is excluded from the district as it is the home base of incumbent Richard Burr of the 5th District.

The court notes on page 7 that 75% of the total population of the district comes from the three county parts which are majority African-American, now it is 13% of the total population of the district coming from the one county part (Forsyth) that are majority African-American. 87% of the district will come from Iredell, Rowan, Mecklenburg and Davidson.

Compactness studies done of the new plan (see opinion pages 10-12) by the same expert witness cited by the court show that its compactness is greatly improved over the invalidated plan.

At page 19, the court notes that the 1997 plan shrunk in distance from 160 miles long in 1992 to 95 miles. Under this new plan, the district shrinks again to about 84 miles in length. On page 19, the court again criticizes the paths and detours, none of these criticisms are any longer valid under the proposed plan.

The decision criticizes on pages 8 and 9 the choices of precincts in Mecklenburg County, this plan moves 14 precincts from the 9th to the 12th with the criteria being Democratic voting performance (see below). Racial statistics were not used.

The new plan 98 CONGRESSIONAL PLAN A does the following, compared with the 1997 Plan.:

1) Guilford County is removed entirely from the 12th District;

2) The two precincts in Statesville (Iredell) that are predominantly black are moved from the 12th to the 10th.

3) Rowan County is made whole in the 12th.

4) Lexington (Davidson County) is made nearly whole in the 12th, .while Thomasville (Davidson County) is made whole in the 6th. A total of six precincts in Davidson County are moved from the 6th to the 12th and five precincts are moved from the 12th to the 6th.

5) Additional precincts in Forsyth and Mecklenburg County were added to the 12 th District to counter arguments that assignments were made primarily on the basis of race. In Forsyth County, 5 precincts are moved from the 5th to the 12th. Three of these are on the east and north so as to make the part in Forsyth County nearly a perfect rectangle. No substantial changes were made in western Winston-Salem to move precincts from the 5th to the 12th as this area is within two precincts of incumbent 5th District Representative Richard Burr. In Mecklenburg County, precinct assignments were made with two criteria: Democratic performance in the 1988 Lieutenant Governor's race, and shape. A total of 14 Charlotte city precincts were moved from the 9th to the 12th to meet this objective.

This decreases the minority percentage in the 12th district from 46.67% to 35.58%

Alamance County is made whole in the 5th district. Finally, Alleghany and Ashe Counties were moved from the 5th to the 10th, Lincoln County was moved from the 10th to the 9th, while 11 precincts in Northern Guilford County were moved from the 6th to the 5th District to balance the population.

All of these changes have the effect of making all of the affected districts significantly more compact. The 12th District had consisted of six partial counties, now it will be one whole county and four partial counties.

The court criticized cities that were divided between District 12 and another district. Here is an analysis of the changes between the 1997 Plan and 98 CONGRESSIONAL PLAN A. Any area divided only by a satellite annexation with zero people is counted as a NO. The new plan no longer divides population between the 12th and another district in Greensboro, Lexington, Thomasville Salisbury, Spencer, and Statesville. Newly divided are Kannapolis (along the county line) and Walkertown (along a precinct boundary)

	1997 PLAN	1998 CONGRESSIONAL PLAN A
Charlotte:	YES	YES
Cornelius	YES	YES
Greensboro	YES	NO
High Point	YES	NO
Huntersville	YES	YES
Kannapolis	NO	YES, the part in Rowan County
Lexington	YES	NO*
Mooresville	YES	NO*
Salisbury	YES	NO
Spencer	YES	NO
Statesville	YES	NO

Thomasville	YES	NO
Walkertown	NO	YES
Winston-Salem	YES	YES

* a small satellite annexation with no population is divided from the main part of the city.

On the political side, the following changes appear in the four affected districts. The races are the votes for Democrats Harvey Gantt in 1980, Tony Rand in 1988, and Jack Lewis in 1988

Analysis of 98 CONGRESSIONAL PLAN
Against the Majority Opinion in Cromartie v. Hunt

In this memorandum, the normal font is quoted verbatim from the majority Memorandum opinion in Cromarite (sic) v. Hunt, filed April 14, 1998. Material in italics is my commentary based on 98 CONGRESSIONAL PLAN A, which is referred to as the Proposed Plan.

The current Plan which was invalidated by the district court has a total of 153 precincts. 98 CONGRESSIONAL PLAN A takes 47 precincts out of District 12 and adds 53 precincts. This represents a change of 32.6% of the precincts. This probably would not be considered "tweaking".

I. The Twelfth Congressional District

District 12 is one of the six predominantly Democratic districts established by the 1997 plan to maintain the 6-6 partisan division in North Carolina's congressional delegation. District 12 is not a majority-minority district, but 46.67 percent of its total population is African-American. Bartlett Aff., Vol. I Commentary at 10 and 11.

Under the Proposed Plan, 35.58% of the total population of District 12 is African-American.

District 12 is composed of six counties, all of them split in the 1997 plan.
Under the Proposed Plan, District 12 is composed of five counties, four of them split.

The racial composition of the parts of the six sub-divided counties assigned to District 12 include three with parts over 50 percent African-American, and three in which the African-American percentage is under 50 percent. Declaration of Ronald E. Webber ("Webber Dec.") q18.
In the Proposed Plan, the racial composition of the parts of the four sub-divided counties assigned to District 12 includes one with parts over 50 percent African-American, and three in which the African-American percentage is under 50 percent.

However, almost 75 percent of the total population in District 12 comes from the three county parts which are majority African-American in population: Mecklenburg, Forsyth, and Guilford counties. Id.
In the proposed Plan, 13 percent of the total population in District 12 comes from the county parts which is majority African-American in population: Forsyth County.
The other three county parts (Davidson, Iredell, and Rowan) have narrow corridors which pick up as many African-Americans as are needed for the district to reach its ideal size. Id.
The corridor in Davidson is wider than previously, due to the addition of six precincts in that county to District 12. Within that county, the corridor no longer divides population in Lexington and Thomasville as cited by the Plaintiff. All of Rowan County is now in District 12. In Iredell County, the majority black precincts which had been in District 12 have been moved to District 10.

Where Forsyth County was split, 72.9 percent of the total population of Forsyth County allocated to District 12 is African-American, while only 11.1 percent of its total population assigned to neighboring District 5 is African-American. Id. q20.
In the Proposed Plan, 61.30% of the total population of Forsyth County allocated to District 12 is African-American, while 10.4 percent of its total population assigned to neighboring District 5 is African-American.

Similarly, Mecklenburg County is split so 51.9 percent of its total population allocated to District 12 is African-American, while only 7.2 percent of the total population assigned to adjoining District 9 is African-American.
In the Proposed Plan, Mecklenburg County is split so 44.79 percent of its total population allocated to District 12 is African-American, while 5.7 percent of the total population assigned to adjoining District 9 is African-American.

A similar pattern emerges when analyzing the cities and towns split between District 12 and its surrounding districts: the four largest cities assigned to District 12 are split along racial lines. Id. q23. For example, where the City of Charlotte is split between District 12 and adjacent District 9, 59.47 percent of the population assigned to District 12 is African-American, while only 8.12 percent of the Charlotte population assigned to District 9 is African-American. Affidavit of Martin B. McGee ("McGee Aff."),

In the Proposed Plan, where the City of Charlotte is split between District 12 and adjacent District 9, 49.62 percent of the population assigned to District 12 is African-American, while 6.3 percent of the Charlotte population assigned to District 9 is African-American.

Ex. L. And where the City of Greensboro is split, 55.58 percent of the population assigned to District 12 is African-American, while only 10.70 percent of the population assigned to District 6 is African-American. Id.

In the Proposed Plan, the City of Greensboro is no longer divided. It will all be in District 6.

An analysis of the voting precincts immediately surrounding District 12 reveals that the legislature did not simply create a majority Democratic district amidst surrounding Republican precincts. For example, around the Southwest edge of District 12 (in Mecklenburg County), the legislature included within the district's borders several precincts with racial compositions of 40 to 100 percent African-American; while excluding from the district voting precincts with less than 35 percent African-American population, but heavily Democratic voting registrations. Among Mecklenburg County precincts which are immediately adjacent to District 12, but not inside it, are precincts with 58.818 percent of voters registered as Democrats, and precincts that are 56.464 percent Democratic, 54.213 percent Democratic, 59.135 percent Democratic, 59.225 percent Democratic, 54.498 percent Democratic, 59.098 percent Democratic, 55.72 percent Democratic, 54.595 percent Democratic, 54.271 percent Democratic, 63.452 percent Democratic, and 59.453 percent Democratic. Id., Ex. P.

The majority opinion chooses to look at the Democratic "voting" registration in making its analysis. In fact, the correct term is "voter" registration, but the mischaracterization points toward why the Plan voided by the court was generated and why the Proposed Plan picks the 14 precincts in Mecklenburg to add which it did.

If voter registration was the key element in politics, it is interesting to note that 10 of the 12 districts currently have majority Democratic registration, one has a Democratic plurality registration (District 6), and one has a Republican plurality registration (District 10). Voter registration is a nominal record of the voters party affiliation at the time of registration. North Carolina had its last permanent registration in 1966, so much of the data on party affiliation is way out of date.

I list below the precincts the court cited as ones the State did not put in the 12th District, along with its Democratic voter registration and the percentage of vote received by Tony Rand, Democratic candidate for Lt. Governor in 1988. This is the election statistic used by staff in developing the Proposed Plan. A thematic map was made of Mecklenburg County showing district boundaries under the invalidated plan, with shading for votes for Rand in bands of 0-40%, 40-50%, 50-60%, and 60-100%. After making changes in Guilford, Forsyth, Rowan, Iredell, and Davidson Counties, contiguous precincts were added based on election statistics, not voter registration.

The Proposed Plan uses 14 precincts in southeast and east Charlotte where Rand received more than 40% of the vote and where the Rand vote trails the Democratic registration by an average of 4.4%, rather then the court's suggestion of 12 precincts half of which are west of Charlotte where the Rand vote trailed the Democratic registration by an average of 12.3%. In two of the precinct suggested by the court, Democrats got less than one-third of the vote.

Similarly, Forsyth County precincts that are immediately adjacent to, but not inside, District 12 include precincts with 57.371 percent Democratic registration, 65.253 percent Democratic registration, 65.747 percent Democratic registration, 65.747 percent Democratic registration, 76 percent Democratic registration, 55.057 percent Democratic registration, 55.907 percent Democratic registration, 56.782 percent Democratic registration, 55.836 percent Democratic registration, and 60.113 percent Democratic registration. Id., Ex. O.

In Forsyth County, one factor driving the western boundary of District 12 in Forsyth County is the residence of incumbent 5th District Representative Richard Burr, who resides in Whitaker School Precinct, which is separated from the 12th District by just two intervening precincts and a distance of just 1.75 miles. Two of the nine precincts listed by the court (10 are listed but one appears to be a duplicate) are directly between the invalidated 12th District and the short distance to Representative Burr's residence, and another five lie in a north-south corridor between District 12 and the Burr residence Instead, the proposed Plan adds two of the precincts listed by the court on the east side of Forsyth County, in the Broadbay and Middle Fork Areas, and one of the precincts listed by the court on the west side of Winston-Salem, as well as three others. These additional precincts will make the eastern and northern boundaries of the 12th District in Forsyth County run due north and west, which will greatly improve the compactness scores deemed relevant by the court in its majority opinion. Again, the General Assembly must balance many different valid goals. In this case, the favored goals are preservation of incumbents (and the cores of their districts) and geographic compactness.

Finally, District 12 was drawn to exclude precincts with 59.679 percent Democratic registration, 61.86 percent Democratic registration, 58.145 percent Democratic registration, 62.324 percent Democratic registration, 60.209 percent Democratic Registration, 56.739 percent Democratic registration, 66.22 percent Democratic registration, 57.273 percent Democratic registration, 55.172 percent Democratic registration, and 63.287 percent Democratic registration, all in Guilford County. Id., Ex. N.

In the proposed Plan, Guilford County is no longer divided.

On the North Carolina map, District 12 has an irregular shape and is barely contiguous in parts.

Whatever its past faults, District 12 has a much more regular shape in the Proposed Plan..

Its Southwest corner lies in Mecklenburg County, very close to the South Carolina border, and includes parts of Charlotte. The District moves North through Rowan County and into Iredell County.

The proposed Plan now includes all of Rowan County.

There is juts West to pick up parts of the City of Statesville. More than 75 percent of the Statesville population that is included in District 12 is African-American, while only 18.88 percent of the population of Statesville excluded from District 12 is African-American. McGee Aff., Ex. L.

The proposed Plan includes NONE of the population of Statesville in District 12

From Statesville, the District moves East into Rowan County. There it dips to the South to include Salisbury, before turning to the Northeast and entering Davidson County and the City of Thomasville. Over 41 percent of the populations of Salisbury and Thomasville that are included in District 12 are African-American, while only 15.39 and 9.55 percent, respectively, of those that are excluded from the District are African-American. Id.

The proposed Plan includes all of Rowan County in District 12.

All of Salisbury is included in District 12 in the proposed Plan. The proposed Plan includes all of Thomasville in District 6.

The District makes a northwesterly incursion into Forsyth County to include parts of Winston-Salem, where 77.39 percent of the population within District 12 is African-American, and only 16.06 percent of the population left out is African-American.

In the proposed Plan 72.4% of the population of Winston-Salem within District 12 is African-American. The District stays two precincts away from the residence of District 5 Representative Richard Burr, and has a totally regular North and East boundary.

Id. The District moves to the East and narrows dramatically before opening up again to include the predominantly African-American parts of Greensboro, where the District ends. The District goes no further to the East in the Proposed Plan, all of Guilford County is excluded.

Objective, numerical studies of the compactness of congressional districts are also available. In his report, "An Evaluation of North Carolina's 1998 Congressional Districts," Professor Gerald R. Webster, one of the Defendants' expert witnesses, presents statistical analyses of "comparator compactness indicators" for North Carolina's congressional districts under the 1997 plan. In measuring the districts' dispersion compactness and perimeter compactness, Professor Webster offers two of the "most commonly recognized and applied" compactness indicators. Webster, at 13 (citing Pildes & Niemi, Expressive Harms, "Bizarre Districts," and Voting Rights: Evaluating Election-District Appearances After Shaw v. Reno, 92 Mich. L. Rev. 483, 571-573, table 6 (1993) (hereinafter, "Pildes & Niemi"); and see Bush v. Vera, 517 U.S. 952, -, 116 S. Ct. 1941, 1952, 135 L.Ed.2d 248 (1996) (citing Plides & Niemi compactness factors as supporting evidence for holding three Texas congressional districts unconstitutional).
Defendants have obtained an analysis by Professor Webster of the Proposed Plan, which is discussed below.

In discussing the relative normalcy of various compactness measures, Pildes and Niemi suggest that a "low" dispersion compactness measure would be equal to or less than 0.15. Pildes & Niemi, at 564. They suggest that a "low" perimeter compactness measure is equal to or less than 0.05. Id. North Carolina's Twelfth Congressional District under the 1997 plan has a dispersion compactness indicator of 0.109 and a perimeter compactness indicator of 0.041. Webster, at table 3.
Professor Webster's calculations for the proposed Plan are a a dispersion compactness indicator of 0.2152 and a perimeter compactness indicator of 0.1388 Rather than just a mere "tweaking" the new dispersion indicator is nearly double the old, and the new perimiter indicator is more than triple the old. Both indicators now are well in excess of the "low" measure suggested by the court, with the dispersion indicator being more than 50% above "low" and the with the perimiter indicator being 160% above "low"

These figures are much lower than the mean compactness indicators for North Carolina's twelve congressional districts under the 1997 plan. The average dispersion compactness indicator for the State is 0.354, and the average perimeter compactness indicator is 0.192. Id. The next lowest dispersion compactness indicator after District 12 is the 0.206 in the Fifth Congressional District, and the next lowest perimeter compactness indicator is the First Congressional District's 0.107. Id.
The new dispersion compactness indicator is 54% of the State average, while the old dispersion compactness indicator was 31% of the State average. The new perimeter compactness indicator is 59% of the State average, while the old perimeter compactness indicator was 21% of the state average.

The Twelfth District's perimeter indicator of .1388 exceeds that of both the First and Third District's under the proposed Plan

I. The Twelfth Congressional District

As noted above, the final decision of the three-judge panel in Shaw only approved the 1997 Congressional Redistricting Plan "as an adequate remedy for the specific violation of the individual equal protection rights of those plaintiffs who successfully challenged the legislature's creation of former District 12." Shaw v. Hunt, No. 92-202-CIV-5-BR, at 8 (E.D.N.C. Sept. 12 , 1997). In the instant case, we are faced with a ripe controversy as to the newly-configured Twelfth Congressional District. This panel must thus decide whether, as a matter of law, District 12 violates the equal protection rights of the Plaintiffs who live within the district and challenge its constitutionality.

In holding that District 12 under the 1992 plan was an unconstitutional racial gerrymander, the Supreme Court in Shaw II noted, "[n]o one looking at District 12 could reasonably suggest that the district contains a 'geographically compact' population of any race." 517 U.S., at -.116 S. Ct., at 1906. The Shaw II Court thus struck the old District 12 as unconstitutional as a matter of law. In redrawing North Carolina's congressional districts in 1997 the General Assembly was, of course, aware that District 12 under the 1992 plan had been declared unconstitutional; curing the constitutional deficiencies was one of the legislature's declared goals for the redistricting process. Cooper Aff. qq5, 8, 10, 14.

Defendants now argue that the changes in District 12 between the 1992 and 1997 plans are dramatic enough to cure it of its constitutional defects. They point to the fact that the new District 12 has lost nearly one-third (31.6 percent) of the population from the 1992 district and nearly three-fifths (58.4 percent) of the land. These numbers do not advance the Defendants' argument or end the Court's inquiry. As Defendants themselves note, the Court's role is limited to determining "whether the proffered remedial plan is legally unacceptable because it violates anew constitutional or statutory voting rights-that is, whether it fails to meet the same standards applicable to an original challenge of a legislative plan in place." McGhee v. Granville County, 860 F.2d 110, 115 (4th Cir. 1988) (citing Upham v. Seamon, 456 U.S. 37, 42, 102 S. Ct. 1518, 1521, 71 L.Ed.2d 725 (1982)). A comparison of the 1992 District 12 and the present District is of limited value here. The issue in this case is whether District 12 in the present plan violates the equal protection rights of the voters residing within it.

District 12 in the Proposed Plan is clearly constitutional without the necessity of merely claiming that it is better than some prior Plan.

In Shaw I, the Supreme Court described old District 12 as "unusually shaped. It is approximately 160 miles long and for much of its length, no wider than the [Interstate]-85 corridor. It winds in snake-like fashion through tobacco country, financial centers, and manufacturing areas until it gobbles in enough enclaves of black neighborhoods." 509 U.S., at 635-636, 113 S. Ct., at 2820-2821 (internal quotations omitted). Viewed without reference to District 12 under the 1992 plan, the new District 12 is also "unusually shaped." While its length has been shortened to approximately 95 miles, it still winds its way from Charlotte to Greensboro along the Interstate-85 corridor, making detours to pick up heavily African-American parts of cities such as Statesville, Salisbury, and Winston-Salem.

In the proposed Plan, District 12 has shrunk to 84 miles in length, and no longer makes detour to pick up heavily African-American parts of ANY municipality between Charlotte and Winston-Salem.

It also connects communities not joined in congressional district, other than in the unconstitutional 1992 plan, since the whole of Western North Carolina was one district, nearly two hundred years ago. Pl.'s Brief Opp. Def.'s Mot. S.J., at 12.

The Proposed Plan makes no changes which affect this paragraph.

As noted above, where cities and counties are split between District 12 and neighboring districts, the splits are exclusively along racial lines, and the parts of the divided cities and counties having a higher proportion of African-Americans are always included in District 12.

This is no longer true in Greensboro, High Point, Lexington, Thomasville, Salisbury, and Statesville. The split in Charlotte is done based on partisan voting patterns. The split in Forsyth County occurs where it does largely to avoid the residence of an incumbent member from another District. Even in those two cities, the racial differences have been reduced from the prior plan/

Defendants argue that the Twelfth has been designed with politics and partisanship, not race, in mind. They describe the District as a "Democratic island in a Republican sea," and present expert evidence that political identification was the predominant factor determining the border of District 12. Affidavit of David W. ("Peterson Aff."), at 2. As the uncontroverted material facts demonstrate, however, the legislators excluded many heavily-Democratic precincts from District 12, even though those precincts immediately border the District.

This argument is premised on the fallacy that voter registration data on voter registration is the most relevant data. In fact, information on partisan voting was used instead as being both more recent and more accurate.

The common thread woven throughout the districting process is that the border of District 12 meanders to include nearly all of the precincts with African-American population proportions of over forty percent which lie between Charlotte and Greensboro, inclusive.

As discussed above, between Charlotte and Greensboro (now between Charlotte and Winston-Salem) there is no evidence of race being any factor at all.

As noted above, objective measures of the compactness of District 12 under the 1997 plan reveal that it is still the most geographically scattered of North Carolina's congressional districts. When compared to other previously challenged and reconstituted congressional districts in North Carolina, Florida, Georgia, Illinois, and Texas, District 12 does not fare well. The District's dispersion and perimeter compactness indicators (0.109 and 0.041, respectively) are lower than those values for North Carolina's District 1 (0.317 and 0.107 under the 1997 plan). Similarly, the District suffers in comparison to Florida's District 3 (0.136 and 0.05), Georgia's District 2 (0.541 and 0.411) and District 11 (0.444 and 0.259), Illinois' District 4 (0.193 and 0.026), and Texas District 18 (0.335 and 0.151), District 29 (0.384 and 0.178), and District 30 (0.383 and 0.180). Professor Webster has calculated the dispersion and compactness indicators of District 12 under the Proposed Plan as 0.226 and 0.140 respectively. The dispersion indicator now exceeds that of the Florida Third and Illinois Fourth, while the perimeter indicator now exceeds that of the North Carolina First, Florida Third, and Illinois Fourth. This improves the national dispersion compactness ranking of District 12 from 429th to 396th of 435, and improves the national perimeter compactness ranking of District 12 from 430th to 365th of 435.

Rule 56(c) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure provides that summary judgment shall be granted if there is no genuine issue as to any material fact and the moving party is entitled to judgment as a matter of law. The moving party must demonstrate the lack of a genuine issue of fact for trial, and if that burden is met, the party opposing the motion must show evidence of a genuine factual dispute. Celotex Corp. v. Catrett, 477 U.S. 317, 324, 106 S. Ct. 2548, 2553, 91 L.Ed.2d 265 (1986).

Based on the uncontroverted material facts before it, the Court concludes that the General Assembly, in redistricting, used criteria with respect to District 12 that are facially race driven. District 12 was drawn to collect precincts with high racial identification rather than political identification. Further, the uncontroverted material facts demonstrate that precincts with higher partisan representation (that is, more heavily Democratic precincts) were bypassed in the drawing of District 12 and included in the surrounding congressional districts. The legislature disregarded traditional districting criteria such as contiguity, geographical integrity, community of interest, and compactness in drawing District 12 in North Carolina's 1997 plan. Instead, the General Assembly utilized race as the predominant factor in drawing the District, thus violating the rights to equal protection guaranteed in the Constitution of the citizens of District 12.

To remedy these constitutional deficiencies, the North Carolina legislature must redraw the 1997 plan in such a way that it avoids the deprivation of the voters' equal protection rights not be classified on the basis of race. This mandate of the Court leaves the General Assembly free, within its authority, to use other, proper factors in redrawing the 1997 plan. Among these factors, the legislature may consider traditional districting criteria, including incumbency considerations, to the extent consistent with curing the constitutional defects. See Shaw II, 517 U.S., at -, 116 S. Ct., at 1901 (describing "race-neutral, traditional districting criteria").

ONE HUNDRED THIRTY-FIFTH DAY

Senate Chamber
Thursday, May 28, 1998

The Senate meets pursuant to adjournment and is called to order by the Honorable Dennis A. Wicker, Lieutenant Governor.

Prayer is offered by the Reverend Mike Morris, Senate Chaplain, as follows:

"Dear God, You have called us to be Your people, to venture forth with You, to be servants and helpers to the people with whom we come in contact. When we consider our misgivings, our weaknesses, our fears, we wonder why You have called people like us. Without Your call, we might have been quite content to live our lives less conspicuously, on our own, without much concern for anyone but ourselves.

"Yet You have called us to follow. You have given each of us a job to do in Your Kingdom. Equip us to participate faithfully in Your mission. Help us to serve with joy and enthusiasm this day, Oh God, we pray. For Your sake, Amen."

With unanimous consent, the President grants leaves of absence for today to Senator Clark and Senator Jordan.

Senator Ballance, Deputy President Pro Tempore, announces the Journal of yesterday, Wednesday, May 27, has been examined and is found to be correct. On his motion, the Senate dispenses with the reading of the Journal and it stands approved as written.

The President of the Senate extends courtesies of the floor to Dr. Gilbert Gomer Whitmer, Jr. from Rocky Mount, North Carolina, who is serving the Senate as Doctor of the Day, and Joy Cagle from Durham, North Carolina, who is serving the Senate as Nurse of the Day.

On motion of Senator Basnight, seconded by Senator Garwood, the Senate adjourns at 12:17 P.M. to meet Monday, June 1, at 7:00 P.M.

ONE HUNDRED THIRTY-SIXTH DAY

Senate Chamber
Monday, June 1, 1998

The Senate meets pursuant to adjournment and is called to order by the Honorable Dennis A. Wicker, Lieutenant Governor.

Prayer is offered by the Reverend Mike Morris, Senate Chaplain, as follows:

"The fourteen year-old editor of a school newspaper told her parents, 'You've always said, be yourself. Be creative. Speak your mind. Well, I did and I got suspended!'

"Forgive us, Oh God, as we grow older for loving the predictable, the secure, the stable. Without Your life-giving breath, we are powerless in the face of prejudice, the walls that divide, words that hurt, diseases that won't be cured and problems that seem insoluble.

"Let us feel Your presence this week. Shake our predictable foundations that we may be creative, speak our minds, vision afresh, all for Your sake, Amen."

With unanimous consent, the President grants leaves of absence for tonight to Senator Foxx, Senator Shaw of Guilford, and Senator Soles.

Senator Basnight, President Pro Tempore, announces the Journal of Thursday, May 28, has been examined and is found to be correct. On his motion, the Senate dispenses with the reading of the Journal and it stands approved as written.

The President of the Senate extends courtesies of the floor to Dr. Jeffrey Kent Kobs from Raleigh, North Carolina, who is serving the Senate as Doctor of the Day, and to Dennis Sherrod from Sims, North Carolina, who is serving as Nurse of the Day.

ONE HUNDRED THIRTY-EIGHTH DAY

Senate Chamber
Wednesday, June 3, 1998

The Senate meets pursuant to adjournment and is called to order by the Honorable Dennis A. Wicker, Lieutenant Governor.

Prayer is offered by the Reverend Mike Morris, Senate Chaplain, as follows:

"Dear God, each day a multitude of voices are begging us to buy, to experience, to believe and to side with certain views and beliefs.

"Help us to listen well but strive for balance in our lives. For most issues are bounded by two extremes, and often the truth lies somewhere in the middle.

"Grant us the wisdom through Your Word and through Your Spirit to practice balance in our thinking and doing, otherwise we might swing to extremes, appear ridiculous and lose our effectiveness with others.

"And keep us from being willfully ignorant and prejudiced concerning the other person's views, for in doing so we may miss the truth. Amen."

With unanimous consent, the President grants a leave of absence for today to Senator Rand.

CALENDAR

S.J.R. 1224 (Committee Substitute), A JOINT RESOLUTION HONORING THE LIFE AND MEMORY OF J. OLLIE HARRIS, FORMER MEMBER OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY, on today's Calendar, upon second reading.

Without objection, upon motion of Senator Dalton, the Committee Substitute joint resolution is taken up out of its regular order of business, and is placed before the Senate for immediate consideration. Without objection, upon motion of Senator Dalton the Committee Substitute joint resolution is read in its entirety.

The President of the Senate orders the remarks of the Senators memorializing the life and memory of J. Ollie Harris, former Member of the General Assembly, spread upon the Journal, as follows:

Senator Dalton:

"Thank you, Mr. President. Members of the Senate, twelve years ago my family and I moved into the Taylor House in Rutherfordton. It was called the Taylor House then, it's called the Taylor House now, it will always be called the Taylor House. And that's fitting and appropriate because it was Mr. Taylor that designed it, built a great foundation, made it a wonderful place to live.

"Similarly, when I came to this Body, to the North Carolina Senate, many of you caught me in the hallway and you would say, 'Where are you from?'. And I would say, 'Rutherfordton.' And you would have a puzzled look on your face. And you would say, 'What other cities are in the district?' And I would say, 'Shelby, Kings Mountain.' And then the light bulb would go off. And you would say, 'Ollie's district.'

"And indeed it is, I'm proud to represent it. It's Ollie's district, it has been since 1971 when he first came to this Body. It's Ollie's district now and, as far as I'm concerned, it will always be Ollie's district. That's because it was Ollie Harris who had the vision to make it a progressive area. Ollie Harris who loved and cared for the people in that area. And it was Ollie Harris who gave it great leadership for so many years. His grandson, John Harris, is in the gallery and I think he knows what a wonderful legacy he has inherited.

"Ollie Harris cast a large shadow. He was a big man in many different ways, physically and figuratively. But it took a big man like Ollie to hold all of that common sense and compassion. I can tell you when I campaigned in 1996, I would go to the businesses and industries and they would tell me, 'Just go down there and do what Ollie did.' By the same token, he was the champion of the disadvantaged, as evidenced by naming the mental health facility in Cleveland County in his honor. It was a cause very near and dear to his heart. And if Ollie Harris was your friend, he was a friend for life. Senator Rauch and Senator Hunt and Representative Hunt, his good friend Dean Westmoreland, and the others in the gallery know what I'm talking about.

"At his funeral, Senator Rauch told the story of how he was confronted with peculiar facts and circumstances where he had to be in New York the next day. And because of those facts and circumstances, he could not drive himself, nor could he fly. He told Ollie about his crisis and Ollie said, 'Well, that's fine, I'll drive you to New York.' Senator Rauch says, 'No, no, I don't mean for you to do that.' And Ollie said, 'Oh, I was going to go anyway.' That's the kind of fellow that Ollie Harris was.

"And Ollie Harris is someone who stood up for his convictions. That's another way of saying he was very stubborn. He believed in what Yogi Berra said, 'It's not over until it's over,' and sometimes when it was over, Ollie kept fighting. You all may remember the seat belt bill, seat belt law. He did not like that. He thought it was an infringement on individual freedom. And when he lost that vote he went to his family physician who certified that he was claustrophobic and could not wear a seat belt and he drove the highways without a seat belt from that time on. Soon there is a portion of Highway 74 near Kings Mountain that will be named in his honor. It will be Ollie's Highway. As I drive that highway, I will always remember the seat belt story and the man behind it. Ollie Harris has had a positive impact on many, many lives. His former Clerk, Janet Pruitt, is with us today. And all the people in Rutherford, Polk, Cleveland, Gaston County, he has had a positive impact on their life in the past, today, and in the future. He is remembered fondly with love and respect, and I am proud to follow him and represent his people. And if you ever have any questions of me, you will know how to find me, come to Room 2113, Ollie's office. Thank you."

Senator Hoyle:

"Thank you Mr. President and Members of the Senate. I probably had the privilege of knowing Ollie Harris probably longer than any sitting member of this Chamber. Ollie was a wonderful friend and a dear person. I remember meeting Ollie in 1971 when I was Mayor of Dallas and he was campaigning for the State Senate. And he came by and his slogan was 'Send Ollie to Raleigh'. Now how in the world could you not support a man with a slogan like that.

"I had the opportunity to serve one term up here with Ollie and we spent some time together and had dinner together a few times and rode back and forth to, to Gastonia and to Kings Mountain together and in the most private moments I never heard Ollie Harris say an unkind word about a soul. He was that kind of person. He was gruff; he'd tell you how he felt about an issue, but he never took anything personal and he never had anything unkind to say about his fellow man. Ollie had a, had a heart for children, particularly children with special needs.

"Ollie will be missed. He will never be forgotten in his beloved home town of Kings Mountain in Cleveland County. I am indeed fortunate to have had the opportunity to have the friendship of a man like Ollie Harris."

Senator Odom:

"There were two really big men in this chamber when I came here in 1989, Senator Royall and Senator Harris, and over the next several years they became two men that I admired and respected. You've heard the resolution with regard to the areas of the least of these, our people, that Senator Harris was an advocate for and for that I appreciated him. But I think from the standpoint of humor, he also enjoyed a laugh and a good story. And several years ago, I asked him if a story that was going around about him was true, and he said it was. And I just want...it has become one of my favorite stories. Apparently he was wanting to speed just a little bit and one day he was coming to Raleigh and he apparently was going a little too fast and the highway patrolman stopped him. And he said the highway patrolman came up to his car and Senator Harris said, 'Young man I was not speeding was I ?'. And the patrolman said, 'Senator, let me put it this way. You passed the car I was chasing.' Senator Harris said that that was a true story, and because of that he was even more greatly admired by myself that could talk to a patrolman in that kind of situation. But for someone who came here in 1989 and was a freshman, he was someone that I looked up to and I have missed him since he has not been among us."

Senator Lee:

"Mr. President and Members of the Senate, I met Senator Harris in the late 70's, 1977 to be exact, when Governor Hunt asked me to come to be his Secretary of Natural Resources. The most, I suppose, disconcerting experience for any young person in Raleigh during those days was to have to appear before Appropriations, and being Secretary of NRCD, as it was called at that time, I seemed to always be appearing before Appropriations. And I remember coming over having to make a presentation, Senator Rauch, on behalf of the Zoo asking for twelve million dollars. And I recall Senator Harris taking me on in the Committee, and really enjoying himself thoroughly as I tried to answer the questions, especially since he said his good friend, Senator Walker, and others had promised after the first one million they'd never come back to the Legislature for a second million.

"I called Senator Walker yesterday and he very much wanted to be here and he asked if I would remember his good friend Ollie Harris, because Ollie Harris and Russell Walker were very close during the time they served here. I was also warned when I came that Senator Harris could be a tough Legislator, and that I should be careful about the motion he loved to make more than any others, 'Lay it upon the table.' When I think of Human Resources, I certainly have a deep appreciation for Senator Lucas and Senator Martin and many people who give leadership in that area. But when I think of Human Resources and the giants in that area, I can't help but think of Russell Walker, Helen Marvin, Jim Richardson, and the most ardent fighter of all for people, was Ollie Harris. He believed in fighting for mental health services, social services, and human services and doing everything possible to make the lives of people better. And so as I conclude, I think of him in these terms:

'Isn't it strange that princes and kings and clowns that caper in sawdust rings,
And common folk like you and Ollie and me, are builders for eternity.
Each is given a bag of tools, a shapeless mass, a book of rules,
And each may build 'ere life is flaw, stumbling blocks are stepping stones.'

As Ollie has departed from us, he has left for those to follow, stepping stones."

Senator Perdue:

"Thank you. To the members of Ollie's family and to Senator Rauch and to all of my fellow Senators who remember and loved Ollie so much, I have to join in the words of friendship and fondness with which I remember him.

"I came to this Body, to the House early in, I guess, the mid eighties, and Ollie and I had the pleasure, as did many of the Legislators at that time, of staying at the Brownstone. There were several women in the House and Ollie had been here a long time and I'd been to Raleigh for about a month and Ollie met me one afternoon. He said, 'Bev, I need to sit down and talk with you.' He got me in the lobby of the restaurant at the Brownstone and it was late one afternoon, and Ollie was known to enjoy a hospitality hour or two upstairs so he didn't want to spend a whole lot of time working with me and telling me what to do. But he said, 'Now Bev, there have been a lot of women who've come to this Body and I have found that sometimes they listen to each other, but I've checked you out down in eastern North Carolina and I know your District's mighty conservative. And I looked at Ollie and I thought, my gosh he's going to give me an undertaker card or something. Rather than that, Ollie said, 'Now there're a lot of those women who live right here who'd like for you to be like them.' And he said, 'They were involved in mess we had down here called the ERA, and I don't want you to go near them. Now anytime you have a question that you need to toss off of somebody about how you should vote or how you shouldn't vote, you call Big Ollie.' And after that I called Big Ollie. We sat on the Human Resources Committee together for four years and I grew to love 'that gentle bear' as I called him. He was strong and abrupt and courageous when he had to be, but he had the heart of a lamb. He cared about children, he cared about people, and he cared about North Carolina. And we in this Chamber and in this State are all so much better off for having had the opportunity to walk with Ollie Harris."

Senator Cochrane:

"I came to Raleigh in 1981 and one of the people that I met early on was Ollie Harris. Interestingly enough, as all of you all know, we didn't exactly come from the same party. And I was in the House and he was in the Senate. But the issue of ERA was up for a vote at that time. I had a note slipped to me on the floor of the House one day that said to meet him in the back of the Chapel. Come to find out, Ollie didn't want anybody to see the two of us talking, and that's why we were in the back of the Chapel. When I came to the Senate and Ollie was here, I had the good fortune to serve on the Committee that he chaired, Human Resources, and come to find out, he had asked to have me on there, his feeling being, if you have to have a Republican, you know she's all right. The thing that I admired about Ollie the entire time he was here and was Chair of that Committee that I served on, I knew that when a bill came up for consideration in the Committee, it had pretty well been taken care of, and we weren't gonna get in trouble if we voted for it. And I admired the Chairman that had done his work with his staff, with the Sponsors of the bill to get things in shape in the fashion that he did. We had conservatism in common, regardless of party. And I sometimes thought it might be a better thing if our labels this day and time were Liberal and Conservative as opposed to what they are, because we have both of those in both parties.

"I talked to Ollie on the day that he died. I had called that morning and, to him there in the hospital. We had a very good conversation, and he sounded in such good spirits, and in less than two hours later, I think it was Janet Pruitt who came to my office to tell me what had happened. I truly was in shock because he sounded like he was making so much progress, and he talked about this one little problem he had that they were gonna be coming in within the hour to take care of.

"We could all wish that when we leave this Body, both the Body in which we have served and the community of citizens that we have served, will revere us and the job that we did on their behalf the same way that Ollie Harris is. It is a goal all of us could set before us to remember the people first. I'm sorry he is not in our midst, but I must tell you, he is often in our thoughts."

Senator Horton:

"I served in the 1971 term with Senator Harris. I think only Senator Soles is a survivor of that long past era. Senator Lee was very right in referring to him as a tough man, but there was also another aspect. You remember the old advertisement, 'tough, but oh so gentle.' That was Ollie Harris. He was a gentleman in every sense of the word. A lover of this State, a lover of his District, a hard fighter, a great Legislator. He left his mark in North Carolina, and we're all the better for his being here."

Senator Soles:

"Mr. President, Ladies and Gentlemen of the Senate, I came to the General Assembly in 1969. Senator Harris came in 1971 and for 20 years, we served here together. He is one of the people that just stands out so much in my mind when I think about what's gone on over these 20 years. Ollie was Ollie the day he got here, and he was Ollie the day he left, and there hadn't been a great deal of change. He was a gentle giant, as you've often heard, and he and Senator Rauch made up what I always referred to as the 'Odd Couple'. It was strange to see those two gentlemen of such diverse backgrounds as roommates and seat-mates, and they truly loved each other. Marshall Rauch sat right there in number 1 most of the time, and Ollie sat at number 2. And you talk about Ollie's Highway, and we had Ollie's motion. That was a motion to lay upon the table. And when somebody got up, if they were talking when they shouldn't be talking or some bill that ought not to be here or something, you could hear people, kind of under their breath saying, 'Ollie, Ollie', and he'd look around and you'd see that big grin coming up and he'd stand up, and you knew exactly what was coming then, and his motion was 'Mr. President, I move that this bill do lie upon the table', and about 99% of the time it did. It was a good way to stop the fuss and the nuisances that go on here sometime, and we have lots of that. Sometimes we think we're important, but Ollie never thought he was important. He never talked about that bronze star that he won at the war. He often talked about the tragedies that he'd seen there, but he never talked about the bronze star that he won. He talked about highway safety, and he would compare the tragedy he saw on the highway to the tragedies he saw in the war. He would talk about being a Coroner, and he was proud of having been the Coroner all those number of years, but he would compare the tragedies he saw in life, highway safety and other things to the things that he saw as Coroner and he set a good example for us and we're all better, the State of North Carolina is better for having had Ollie Harris in the Senate."

Senator Plyler:

"Thank you Mr. President, Members of the Senate, members of the family, and Senator Rauch. It was a pleasure knowing Ollie Harris. I've known him for many, many years. As Senator Soles has said, he sat right there, and then he sat right there where Senator Ballance is sitting in his last term. Senator Harris was a gentleman, a true gentleman that you could depend on. Anything that he would tell you, you could depend on it and remember later on what he said and it would be the exactly the same thing he said to start with that he would say the next time. I remember we were working here one night to 3:00 and everybody was sleepy. People were on the couches outside. Senator Hartsell was laying back, I've got pictures of it, I can prove it. Senator J. K. Sherron was sitting there beside of Ollie, and various ones around, we'll share those pictures sometime. Anyway, Ollie, I was sitting over there and Ollie was sitting right here, and so Ollie motioned for me to come over, and so I went over there, and he says, 'Plyler,' said 'looks like everybody's about worn out.' I said, 'Yea, it sure does, looks like we're still awake." He said, 'Well, I tell you what, let's prepare a little paper for signatures and pass it around tonight and see who wants to run again for re-election next year.'

"But Ollie was a great gentleman and I would hope, Senator Dalton, whenever you do that highway and name it the Ollie Harris Highway, you will have a speed limit on it 85 miles per hour. Thank you and I urge you to support the resolution."

Senator Allran:

"Mr. President, Ladies and Gentlemen of the Senate, so many great things and nice things have been said about Senator Harris, I can't add too many to that. This has been said, Senator Harris and Senator Rauch sat right over there, were viewed as almost inseparable, everybody thought of them as the, as sort of the power houses of the Senate simultaneously. And it has been said, whenever Senator Harris stood up, we knew what was coming, that was the end of discussion and the end of your bill.

"But I wanted to mention two other things that I thought were really neat about this particular Senator. One of them is that he always referred to his wife as Mrs. Harris. And I know, at least I always heard him say that, and I thought that was so neat because they were married for 61 years. And so perhaps that tells you something about the way to a successful marriage.

"The other thing I wanted to mention is that when I first got to the Senate, which was in 1986, my father died right after that in 1987. And Senator Rauch and Senator Harris were both so very kind to me during all that and that is something I will always remember and appreciate. Thank you."

Senator Martin of Guilford:

"Thank you Mr. President, Members of the Body, friends and family of Ollie Harris. I just want to say a few words. When I first came here in '83, I guess Ollie and I got off to somewhat of a rocky start because one of my first bills that was introduced was one to which he applied that same motion that you've heard everyone talk about, but he went a little bit further than that, he also moved to reconsider. And then to bring it up again and kill it through the clincher I understand that that's only the...and I understand, that's only the second time in this Body that that has ever happened. The first one was with the ERA. But anyway, at that time there were a lot of folks that felt that, what are you going to do, you need to get even with him and so forth. And I stopped to think about it, and I felt no that's not what I want to do. I want to find out something about him, find out what makes him tick. I'm glad I did that because I, too, served on the Human Resources Committee, the Mental Health Study Commission, other committees with Ollie and got a chance to observe him, got a chance to know him, and to observe the type of compassion that folks were talking about that he had for people. And even though there were numerous issues on which he and I took different positions and disagreed, as a result of some experiences that we had growing from that moment, we knew that we, when either of us said that we were going to do something, the other could count on it. And that's one thing that I really appreciated about Ollie. He was straight up and honest in what he said, you could count on it. And we developed a good relationship as a result of that. And it's a good example, I think, of the adage that 'you can never tell a book by it's cover', and also that you shouldn't make a judgment about a person because of first impressions that you might have because in the end it might be totally different. And that's what I enjoyed in the relationship with Ollie Harris and I miss and appreciate having had the opportunity to serve with him and again ask everyone to support the resolution. Thank you."

Senator Basnight:

"Thank you Mr. President, Members of the Senate, family, friends of Ollie's. I believe that maybe possibly we should reconsider the naming of the road, the Ollie Harris Highway, and include the Ollie and Marshall Highway in that they were so closely tied, cared so much about each other and the people in this State. I sit in Marshall's seat which it was at one time and Ollie's here. Course, we know how famous Ollie was with his motion. And I'll never forget the time that one particular Senator, she was a lady Senator, who wanted to be a little more active on the floor and she wanted to make that motion. And I guess some of you who are here remember the motion. She stood on her feet and Ollie really didn't care for the fact that she was making the motion that he was so famous for. But she stood and she said, 'Mr. President, I have a motion to make.' 'State your motion.' She said, 'I move that the bill, that I do lie upon the table.' And the veterans can easily remember it. And Ollie said, 'Well, that's just like a woman.' And he said that in true jest.

"He was the man that we all realize and know and understand that he had a great compassion and concern for the downtrodden of life. And he gave of all his effort to see that they were well represented in his voice and in his belief that we should do more. And most especially for those with mental disabilities of some sort or another, he wanted to see that we, that we did properly represent those people in this great State of ours and give 'em a better opportunity. He was a great, famous person, a hero of mine. We miss you Ollie."

The Joint Resolution passes its second reading (47-0) and third reading with Members standing and is ordered without objection, sent to the House of Representatives by special messenger.

The President of the Senate extends the courtesies of the gallery to the family and friends of J. Ollie Harris, including former Senator Marshall Rauch, former Senator Wanda Hunt, former Representative Jack Hunt and his wife, Ruby, and former Senator Dennis Davis.

Wednesday, June 10, 1998

The Senate meets pursuant to adjournment and is called to order by the Honorable Dennis A. Wicker, Lieutenant Governor.

Prayer is offered by the Reverend Mike Morris, Senate Chaplain, as follows:

"Dear God, we confess that on some days we feel a lot like the two uneducated men who got turned around in unfamiliar territory while hunting. They came to a place where there was a fork in the road and three or four signs pointing this way and that. 'Friend, we've got us a problem,' one said to the other. 'I can read figures but not writing. I know how far it is, but I don't know where we're going.'

"On the days we know we have a long way to travel but don't know our destination, help us to take one step at a time with Your Word being a lamp unto our feet and a light to our pathway. Sometimes going is more important than knowing where. Amen."

With unanimous consent, the President grants a leave of absence for today to Senator Odom.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

Pursuant to Rule 30, Senator Clark rises to explain his vote on Senate Bill 1230, as follows:

"Mr. President, fellow Members of the Senate, yesterday, this Chamber, by a vote of 34-14, approved Senate Bill 1230, Motor Fuel Tax Changes. Perhaps the bill was necessary because of unreasonable federal mandates. Fellow Members, what was approved, if not changed in the House Chamber, means thousands of poor people all across North Carolina will, during this Winter heating season, be able to purchase four gallons of kerosene for heating fuel, instead of the five gallons they were able to purchase last Winter for the same $5.50 cost. Not only will they be paying the road use tax on each gallon, but they'll also pay six percent North Carolina State sales tax on the Road Use Tax. What this Chamber has done is to raise the cost of home heating by approximately twenty cents per gallon to thousands of elderly on meager, limited, fixed incomes and the working poor on already barely livable wages. It's for these reasons I voted 'no' on Senate Bill 1230. Thank you."

I don't know if he knows the secret to the philosophy stone or the immortal elixir or he's a chemist or what, but he seems to have the eternal youth, the vibrance and all the things that we all admire. I think the sun shown a little brighter this morning, the birds sang a little stronger. "Mr. President, fellow members of the Senate, today this Chamber by vote of 47 - 1, has approved S.B. 1354, Bonds/Critical Infrastructure Needs. Last Thursday I was leaning towards voting yes. When I arrived at my office Monday afternoon of this week, I had on my desk a copy of a June 18, 1998 memorandum from The Honorable Harlan A. Boyles, State Treasurer, addressed to Membership, General Assembly of North Carolina.

He asked that we consider certain priorities as we undertake to commit available funds and simultaneously consider additional State debt. From pages 2 and 3 I quote, 'Until we are ready and able to explain to the people of North Carolina that we knowingly have spent surplus funds of some $1.4 billion and have proposed to spend upwards of another one to two billion dollars in borrowed money, thus building upon an image of unwanted tax, borrow and spend as though there is no day of reckoning.' Until we in State government recognize and reflect the concern of the people about the growing portion of their personal wealth taken from them through taxation and thus redirected away from their freedom to choose, with a clear conscious I could not vote to make an uncertain future more uncertain for my children, grandchildren and the more than 260,000 constituents of the 28th Senate District as well as the more than seven million citizens of North Carolina. For these reasons I voted "no" on S.B. 1354. Thank you, Mr. President."

CALENDAR (Continued)

S.J.R. 1084 (Committee Substitute), A JOINT RESOLUTION HONORING THE LIFE AND MEMORY OF J. MELVILLE BROUGHTON, JR., upon second reading.

On motion of Senator Rand, the Committee Substitute joint resolution is taken up out of its regular order of business, and on his further motion, the Committee Substitute joint resolution is placed before the Senate for immediate consideration.

Without objection, on motion of Senator Rand, the Committee Substitute joint resolution is read in its entirety.

Senator Basnight offers a motion that the remarks of the Senators memorializing the life and memory of J. Melville Broughton, Jr. be spread upon the Journal, as follows:

Senator Reeves:

"I remember the first time that I met Mr. Broughton, walking down the street, Fayetteville Street Mall, with his tall figure and cane. I had recently moved from Winston-Salem to here and was new to Raleigh, had not lived here for very long. And it wasn't so much what he said to me that day but it was the fact that a man of such distinction and stature would take the time to chat and talk with a young man who was new to the area. He took time out to inquire about my practice of law and what I was trying to do and where I was going. And I appreciated that. Of note, he was a willing servant of Governors of the State, and Presidents of these United States. I'm particularly interested in, and I wish that I had the chance to discuss this with Mr. Broughton, that he served on the Governor's Highway Commission under Luther Hodges from 1957-1961. It's a very important Highway Commission that brought about great reforms at the time, trying to push politics out of the DOT process. As such, he was part of a notable family in our area, and has done much to build North Carolina as we know it today, especially Raleigh. And I commend this resolution to your support. Thank you."

Senator Kerr:

"Thank you Mr. President, Ladies and Gentlemen of the Senate. I'm sorry that I wasn't prepared for this tonight but I'm just compelled to stand up and say that the Broughton family and the Kerr family have been in the battles, in the trenches, and friends for almost this past century. I certainly remember Dan Moore in '64 as the first gubernatorial race that I ever got into and probably one of the few winners that I've had since then, but he was a great Governor and certainly the Broughton family is one of the most distinguished families in the history in the political life, and the church life, and public service life of this State. I am sorry that we lost Mel. I have the pleasure of knowing his wife. She's from Henderson. She has Goldsboro contacts and they're wonderful people. I also have the pleasure of knowing two of his three children, and I would commend this joint resolution to you. Mel Broughton was always there with a kind word. He was always, as I recall, interested in the Farm Bureau, and did some excellent work here in the General Assembly, for his clients. And he always asked me about my mother and that was kind of special. He was concerned about your family. And I always remember in 1968 he went to my father's funeral in Warrenton, which was a nice thing to do. And he was just a fine person that continued on his family tradition in service. He was very well connected with the Episcopal church. I don't know how he switched from being a good Baptist, his family had a lot of connections with the Baptist church. I stuck with the Baptist Church and I guess maybe I haven't gotten my net worth up enough yet to switch but he loved Wake Forest and he was a great man, a great friend of my father's, as his father was, and of mine, and his family are friends of mine and I honor them and I grieve with them in this loss. And I thank you.

Senator Wellons:

"I, too, have known the Broughton family for a long time and especially I think of him when my father-in-law died, who was a special friend. When Mr. Broughton went by our house and talked with my wife we talked about the funeral later. When we think of a gentleman, that is who we think of and I certainly want to stand up for this resolution. Thank you.

Senator Horton:

"Thank you Mr. President. Senator Reeves was entirely right when he characterized Mel stopping him and talking with him on the street, a young lawyer. But that was so like Mel Broughton. When you talked with him it was as if he thought you were the only thing on earth. He focused on that and you could tell that he really cared about people. This was true up and down the line of whatever social or economic strata, Mel Broughton was a truly loving people person. He was the soul of courtesy, delightful to be with, witty, great sense of humor and never lost, even when his health was waning, never lost his interest in his State. I remember when I came back here, the second reincarnation a few years ago, getting little notes from time to time on what was going on and advice, encouragement, things I really valued. We are going to miss him. He was one of that type of people that have made our State what it is. People who, for some strange antic reason, are simply in love with North Carolina. He was one of them and a special person. Thank you, Mr. President."

Senator Cooper:

"Mr. President, Members of the Senate, I became interested in politics probably during the 1964 gubernatorial campaign, the Moore/Richardson Pryor. I was a very young child then and really became interested in '68 with Scott/Broughton primary. I will never forget meeting Mr. Broughton as a child and echoing some of the comments that have been made tonight. He made me feel very special at that time. And he had the ability to look at you and make you really feel that he was only talking to you and that you had something interesting to say and that he was interested in what you had to say. And later on in my adult years, when I had the chance to speak with him, he made me feel the same way. Back when they ran gubernatorial campaigns in the 50's and 60's, they used to have campaign songs. And to this day, I remember every single word of the Mel Broughton campaign song. And I'm not going to sing it for you, although I could, but I'll tell you the words, if I can remember them now, because you can remember them when you sing them. But his went this way:

'Vote for Mel Broughton, he's making his stand.
Vote for Mel Broughton, he has the right plan.
From Manteo to Murphy, there's not a better man.
A Broughton vote is the vote you can understand.
Why settle for less when he has the best plan.
To be a great Governor it takes a great man.
He'll fulfill his promise to give us his all.
Broughton for Governor, he's answered our call.'

He never did get to be Governor, but he certainly contributed to many great things to this State."

Senator Lee:

"Mr. President, Members of the Senate, I met Mel Broughton in 1968 when I'd been invited to address the Democratic Party at the State Convention. And I was a young person, very nervous, breaking into politics at that time, and he was so impressed with the speech that I delivered to the Democratic Party, I remember his aid coming to me and asking if he could have my notes. I was made to feel special. I got to know him much better in 1972 when we were reorganizing the party, and worked very closely with him, and you can certainly identify the integrity and the strength of a person when there is heated debate. And some of those late evenings when we were debating hot issues that people disagreed with, this man was always there with a calming impact on, on the people in the room. I lost contact with him until I became, well, I came back to the Senate, and we were able to renew our friendship. During that time, and all of these years I've known him, I knew that he was a very gentle man, a man with a very calming ability, a man who always thought first about North Carolina, and was always ready to do what he could to encourage people to give their best. I'm glad that I had a chance to get to know him, and I thank the family for all of the contributions he made to this State."

Senator Basnight:

"Thank you Mr. President, Members of the Senate. Senator Cooper, it was in Manteo in 1968 when I nailed on the Manteo Community Center or the Dare County Community Center Mel Broughton signs, and it was slate roof, and with those nails I did a very good job of making sure that when the rains came, it leaked very well. He found out about that story and he asked me about it not many years ago, if it was true. And it certainly was true, and I did that because of a person that felt a great deal of, had a great deal of trust in, and that was Keith Fearing, who was a very close friend of Mr. Broughton's. And through that relationship and knowledge that he gave me of what this man meant to this State, had meant at that time, and was to continue to mean to all of us afterwards, made me proud to know and understand that to this day I worked for a North Carolinian that was great in many different ways, and I'm happy to be a part of this Body today to honor one of North Carolina's finest."

The Committee Substitute joint resolution passes its second reading (48-0) and third reading, unanimously with Members standing, and is ordered, without objection, sent to the House of Representatives by special messenger.

Senate Chamber
Tuesday, June 30, 1998

The Senate meets pursuant to adjournment and is called to order by the Honorable Dennis A. Wicker, Lieutenant Governor.

Prayer is offered by the Reverend Mike Morris, Senate Chaplain, as follows:

"Gracious God, as the Senate prepares to present and consider the budget, we don't need to be reminded that this is a time of great prosperity in our State. You have blessed us richly. And yet, sometimes, we have the tendency to treat things as if they were our own, as if the world was ours to manage and manipulate as we please. Forgive our forgetfulness.

"Save us from our determination to have life on our terms rather than Your terms. Remind us of our utter dependence, not upon our own prudence and calculation but rather upon Your love and grace. In Your Name we pray, Amen." (Adopted from Pulpit Resource, July, August, September, 1998.)

"Ladies and Gentlemen of the Senate, for twenty-seven days we've been wearing these tags that say 'tax cuts held hostage', and they're still held hostage. The Appropriations Chairs talked about setting priorities for the State, and I agree. This bill should have been about setting priorities for the State. Another Appropriations Chair said this was about the golden spin of politics. This isn't about thirty-second ads, it's about philosophy. There is a fundamental difference between the Democrats and the Republicans. The Democrats spent 95% of the surplus, and the fundamental difference is the Republicans didn't want to spend the whole thing. We wanted to give the surplus back to the people, and you saw every single one of us vote that way. I think the people of North Carolina have made it clear when they knew we had a billion dollar budget, don't spend the whole thing, and the Democrats just did."

SPECIAL MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

S.B. 78

House of Representatives

Mr. President:

Pursuant to your information that your Honorable Body failed to concur in the House Committee Substitute for SB 78, A BILL TO BE ENTITLED AN ACT AMENDING THE STATE PERSONNEL ACT TO ESTABLISH JURISDICTION FOR THE HEARING OF STATE EMPLOYEE SEXUAL HARASSMENT GRIEVANCES BEFORE THE OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE HEARINGS AND THE STATE PERSONNEL COMMISSION, the Speaker has appointed as conferees on the part of the House, to act with a like committee on the part of the Senate to the end that the differences existing between the two bodies may be adjusted.

Respectfully,
S/Denise Weeks
Principal Clerk

On motion of Senator Ballance, seconded by Senator McDaniel, the Senate adjourns at 7:09 P.M. to meet tomorrow, Tuesday, July 7, at 2:00 P.M.

ONE HUNDRED FIFTY-SEVENTH DAY

Senate Chamber
Tuesday, July 7, 1998

The Senate meets pursuant to adjournment and is called to order by the Honorable Marc Basnight, President Pro Tempore, who presides in the absence of the Lieutenant Governor.

Prayer is offered by the Reverend Steve Lucas, Pastor of Trinity United Church of Christ, Concord, North Carolina, as follows:

"Loving Father, we come today confessing that we live by not one, but two golden rules.

"One version of this rule tells us to 'Do unto others as you would have them do unto you.' But the other version simply says, 'Those who have the gold rule.'

"Lord, it seems that we live most of our lives at sea, tossed back and forth on the gray, ambivalent ocean between the ideal and the real, between the twin shores of doing what we know we should do and doing what is easy to do, between these two very different golden rules.

"And we confess that all too frequently in this world, gold does rule, that to get anything done, even something good and benevolent, it seems that it almost always comes back to money.

"So as this Body completes the difficult work of raising and spending money on behalf of the people of this State, what we call finance and appropriations, my prayer today, Oh Guiding and Life-Giving God, is that You will help these servant-leaders to set their sails, not by the 'rule of gold,' but that You will instead fill up the sails of their consciences with the powerful wind of Your Spirit-

"Your benevolent, fair-play, golden-rule Spirit-

"So that all the passengers on board this ship we call North Carolina, can sail together across that ambivalent gray ocean into a future where all, all of God's children can have equal access to the economic, professional, educational, recreational and cultural riches our State has to offer, and when we do this Oh Lord, we will make the pledge which we all hold so dear, 'One nation, under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all,' not just the ideal, but that which is real. Amen."

With unanimous consent, the President Pro Tempore grants leaves of absence for today to Senator Jordan, Senator Martin of Pitt, and Senator Page.

Senator Ballance, Deputy President Pro Tempore, announces the Journal of yesterday, Monday, July 6, has been examined and is found to be correct. On his motion, the Senate dispenses with the reading of the Journal and it stands approved as written.

With unanimous consent, on motion of Senator Dalton, the remarks of Senator Albertson regarding Representative Hunter are spread upon the Journal, as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. President, Members of the Senate. You know quite often we get up on this floor and very appropriately we have joint resolutions, and we speak about those, and speak kind words about those who have served in this Body who have gone on to their final resting place. And I think it's wonderful that we do that. But I do wonder sometimes if we should not, when we have the opportunity to say kind things about those people while they're still living, I think that would be great as well. Today, I had the privilege and honor to go over and see one of our House colleagues sworn in to the Court of Appeals, Representative Bobby Hunter. I had the great distinction and pleasure to serve with Bobby when I was a Member of the House, and I worked closely doing my best to help him get elected, quite frankly, as Speaker of the House and, as you know, some other folks got into the race a little bit later and were successful and he was not. Mr. President, I think it's incumbent upon me to just get up and say to the Members of this Body, I think Bobby Hunter, Representative Bobby Hunter, is one of the finest individuals that I have ever had the opportunity to meet and serve with. He has served this State so very well for eighteen or nineteen years as a Member of the House, and I am sure he will go on to have a distinguished career as a Member of the Court of Appeals, and thank you, Mr. President, for giving me the opportunity to make these few remarks."

INTRODUCTION OF A RESOLUTION

Senator Rand offers a motion that Rule 40 be suspended to allow the introduction of the following resolution which motion prevails by a two-thirds majority vote.

By Senator Foxx:

S.R. 1602, A SENATE RESOLUTION PAYING TRIBUTE TO NORTH CAROLINA NATIVE, DOC WATSON, LEGENDARY PERFORMER AND FOLK ARTIST, AND HONORING THE LATE MERLE WATSON.

On motion of Senator Rand, the Senate resolution is placed before the Senate for immediate consideration, upon its adoption.

On motion of Senator Foxx, the resolution is read in its entirety.

On motion of Senator Horton, the remarks memorializing Merle Watson and honoring Doc Watson are spread upon the Journal, as follows:

Senator Foxx:

"Ladies and Gentlemen, as you heard in the resolution, Doc Watson has received national recognition for his accomplishments as a human being and as a musician. His home county of Watauga, has declared July 18 as 'Doc Watson Day' and it seemed appropriate that the Senate should recognize and honor this extraordinary man, who can certainly be a role model for all of us. I think when you hear some of what I'm going to share with you that you will agree. When I asked you to sign the resolution, I received mainly two comments. 'Oh yes, Doc Watson is great and I'm glad to sign this.' And the opposite comment, 'Who is Doc Watson?' So, I am attempting to appeal to both groups in my comments. For those of you who know and love Doc Watson, you'll appreciate hearing him pray. Those of you who do not know him will understand why we are honoring him today. As the resolution stated, Doc became blind at the age of one. He began playing music very early and worked as a musician and piano tuner. He was 'discovered' as a musician and his popularity increased in the 1960's. After his son Merle died, Wilkes Community College wanted to start a festival to honor Merle. It's a tribute to Doc that many rural known musicians came to the festival in the early days for no charge to help get the festival started. The proceeds from Merle Fest, as it is now affectionately known, go to local charities and to the development of the Eddie Merle Watson Memorial Garden of the Senses on the Wilkes Community College campus. I'd like to share some comments from a program printed for the Merle Watson Festival a couple of years ago. My own personal experience with Doc support these words. At seventy-five he's mostly retired, but his few selected performances show no signs of his enormous talent being dimmed by age or fewer concert dates on the road. At any given Doc Watson performance, one will see and hear not only a guitar player of the finest caliber, but also an intelligent, witty, down-to-earth, man of the mountains, who loves to share the music of his heart and home. Doc is an extraordinary entertainer who never fails to capture the admiration and affection of his audience. When Doc was asked how he would like to be remembered, I am going to share with you what he said. This says he's always been, and still remains one of the most fundamentally modest and self-deprecating men you will ever encounter. When asked how you would like to be remembered by the countless people from all walks of life, whom he has enriched with measures of music and wisdom of astonishing clarity, he responded by saying 'I would rather be remembered as a likable person, than for any phase of my picking. Don't misunderstand me, I really appreciate the people's love of what I do with the guitar. That's an achievement as far as I'm concerned and I'm proud of it. But I'd rather people remember me as a decent human being than as a flashy guitar player. That's the way I feel about it.' I invite you all to Watauga County this Saturday, July 18, to the Cove Creek Preschool, where you'll hear many different musical groups performing, and Doc is scheduled to perform at 6:00 P.M. I commend the resolution to you. Thank you."

Senator Garwood:

"Ladies and Gentlemen of the Senate, Doc Watson is not only a great North Carolinian, he's a great American, known nationally and internationally for his down-home music. He is the essence of mountain life, mountain talent and he has graced Wilkes County, and particularly Wilkes Community College, by holding the annual Merle Watson Festival at Wilkes Community College. It has not only enriched the lives of many, it has attracted people and musicians from all over the country to Wilkes Community College in honor of Doc Watson. Those musicians do that to honor him because they treasure his talent. Doc Watson sees with his heart and with his ear and with his mind. He's a great talent, a great American and I commend the resolution to you."

On motion of Senator Foxx, the Senate Resolution is adopted (48-0). (The text of this resolution appears in the Appendix.)

ONE HUNDRED SIXTY-THIRD DAY

Senate Chamber
Thursday, July 16, 1998

The Senate meets pursuant to adjournment and is called to order by the Honorable Dennis A. Wicker, Lieutenant Governor.

Prayer is offered by the Reverend Mike Morris, Senate Chaplain, as follows:

"Dear God, we're reminded of the story of an old woman who during the depression years, received by mail a brand new bathrobe as a gift from her grandson. The boy had left their Appalachian village and found work in Detroit where he made more money than he ever imagined.

"The woman loved the bathrobe so much that she decided to wear it to church on the very next Sunday. Her friends greeted her with a whisper campaign and pretentious snickering.

"After church one of her friends confronted the woman, 'Granny, don't you know what you've got on? It's a bathrobe. Why did you wear it to church?'

"Granny studied a minute and then replied, 'Sadie, you always did have a mean tongue. I wore it because it's the prettiest thing I ever owned, because my grandson sent it to me and I love him dearly. And, I wore it to the glory of God. Besides, she added, I ain't got no bathroom and you ain't either!'

"Guard us from being pretentious, Oh God. At best it's unbecoming, at worst, ungodly. If we're ever inclined to act that way, for goodness sakes put somebody in our path like that old woman to bring us to reality. Amen."

With unanimous consent, the President grants leaves of absence for today to Senator Dalton, Senator Hoyle, and Senator Page.

Upon motion of Senator Plyler and Senator Purcell, the Chair extends courtesies of the gallery to Dr. Jane Carrigan, Professor at UNC-Chapel Hill; Mr. Barry Aycock, Assistant Superintendent of Union County Public Schools; Mrs. Donica Davidson, Principal, Indian Trails Elementary School; and Mrs. Grace Faris, Principal, Piedmont Middle School.

S.J.R. 1111, A JOINT RESOLUTION HONORING THE LIFE AND MEMORY OF ARCHIBALD KIMBROUGH DAVIS, FORMER MEMBER OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY, upon second reading.

On motion of Senator Ballantine, the remarks of the Senators memorializing Archibald Kimbrough Davis are spread upon the Journal as follows:

Senator Horton:

"Ladies and Gentlemen, it's an honor to be able to speak in tribute to Archie Davis, a townsman of mine and a friend, a North Carolina original. As you noted in the reading of the Resolution, he was the only person ever to be both President of the National Chamber of Commerce and of the American Bankers Association. He was a member of this Senate for two terms and he was a gentleman, a gentleman by birth, by training, and by instinct. I remember going into his office one day and you know he never wore a watch. I said, 'Archie why don't you wear a watch?' He said, 'Well, I've always thought that I might be tempted to look at my watch when I'm talking with someone and make them uncomfortable and make them think that I was ready to leave.' So he never wore a watch. It was said that when he was a banker, he would have to turn down loans but when he turned down a loan, the fellow leaving would thank him profusely. But even more, Archie Davis was in love with North Carolina. Probably more than anybody else, he was responsible for the North Carolina Natural Humanities Council being settled in the Research Triangle Park and was one of those most responsible for the Research Triangle Park getting off of the ground. In fact, Davis Boulevard is named for him. He was also in love with history and knew more about North Carolina history than anyone I've ever run in to. He wrote the book, Boy Colonel of the Confederacy, about Henry Burgwin. I remember hearing that he gave a speech to the Chamber of Commerce in Detroit when he was head of the National Chamber. He said, 'I went to Chapel Hill and at the conclusion of the War Between the States, the Michigan Calvary occupied the library of the University and stalled their horses in the library itself.' And his hosts began to look at each other nervously, wondering what was going to come next. He said, 'You know ever since that day, Michigan horses have been known for their good manners and intelligence and North Carolinians have been known for their horse sense.' He was an icon in our community and in our State. When Archie Davis passed away, there were many of us who thought of him as the lines in Shakespeare, 'Good night sweet prince, and flights of angels sing thee to thy rest.' "

Senator McDaniel:

"Thank you Mr. President. For over twenty years and beyond from where he was Chairman of the Board of Wachovia Bank, the city of Winston-Salem and Archie Davis were indeed synonymous with one another. He directed Wachovia Bank to greatness and when he retired in 1974 the bank was not only the largest institution in the State of North Carolina, but indeed the largest financial institution in the entire southeast. His reach, his influence, his great intellect was phenomenal in his stretch throughout the nation. As President of the Chamber of Commerce of this country, he distinguished himself greatly. But what Archie Davis is remembered more for is the fact that unlike a lot of people who reach greatness, he did not neglect his family. Archie Davis was married to but one woman for a long number of years and he helped his wife raise three sons and a daughter, all of whom are successful in their own right. When you talk about Archie Davis, you talk about a well-rounded life, one in which he had a thorough commitment to his bank, a thorough commitment to his community, but more importantly a thorough commitment to his family and to his God."

Senator Basnight:

"Thank you Mr. President, members of the Senate. He had a liberal time or a liberal time of stay on this earth of ours, and he spent that time well. On a daily basis, he gave back to the State, the State of which he loved so very much, the historian he was, a greater person for his human deeds, those deeds being that he cared. He cared for others, not just in Winston, your home town Senator Horton and McDaniel, but also the county and the State in totally. He had a love for our mountains and our coast as well. People meant a great deal to him. He was obviously very successful as a business person and honors that were awarded him through his period of time and stay here are obvious in that very few people have ever acquired such a claim for leading such organizations. But more than that, those contributions, those human contributions to give more than you receive as one person during your stay here is what we shall always remember him by. He did a marvelous job of raising his family and making those proper contributions to life."

The joint resolution passes its second reading (44-0) and third reading with members standing and is ordered, without objection, sent to the House of Representatives by special messenger.

Without objection, on motion of Senator Cochrane, the Joint Resolution is read in its entirety.

Upon motion of Senator Cooper the remarks made by the Senators on Senate Joint Resolution 1603 are spread upon the Journal as follows:

Senator Cochrane:

"Thank you Mr. President. Ladies and Gentlemen of the Senate, 1998 is the sixtieth anniversary year for the National Order of Women Legislators. So we wanted to highlight that but in highlighting that it called attention to how did North Carolina get started with having women legislators. It is very interesting if you go back and look at our beginnings, because in the early years of this century, Lillian Exum Clement of Asheville wrote to her brother, 'Mankind has written millions of laws for thousands of years to enforce only eight fundamental ones. I am going to study the law.' And she did. She became a deputy sheriff in Buncombe County and went to law school at night, being privately tutored and finished in the top of her class. This decision set her on a history making course. In 1920, North Carolina became the first southern state to send a woman to its State Legislature. Ms. Clement was elected to the State House by a margin of 10,368 to 41. You know the party to which she belonged. Her election was made the more interesting by the fact that at the time of her nomination, she was ineligible to vote, since the nineteenth Amendment had not been ratified. It's perhaps indicative of that era that the New York Times newspaper expressed its admiration for the men of North Carolina for daring to set a precedence. And those of us serving in the Legislature today commend those men of that day for the opportunity that they gave us. Her election raised some interesting situations for both her and her colleagues who referred to her as 'Brother Exum.' When Ms. Clement married during her term, the General Assembly had to enact a special law to change her name for the Assembly roll-call. The original Legislators never envisioned the need for such as this. Many of her experiences were doubtless the same as all Legislators. When she introduced what has become known as the 'Clement Bill' calling for private voting booths and a secret ballot, she found herself deserted by all but a few of her own party. Critics believed that these methods, the voting booth and the secret ballot, would cause politicians to loose direct contact with their voters. After the defeat of the bill, Ms. Clement remarked, 'I've had a new sensation today, I have felt the steamroller go over me.' Displaying the tenacity that probably got her to the Legislature in the first place, the bill was re-introduced and passed at a later time. Ms. Clement would say of her election, 'I was afraid at first that men would oppose me because I am a woman but I don't feel that way now. I've always worked with men and I know them as they are. I have no false illusions or fears of them. I am by nature very conservative but I am firm in my convictions. I want to blaze a trail for other women. I know that years from now there will be many other women in politics but you do have to start a thing.' And start a thing she did. Although these Legislative halls were not immediately filled with women, Clement was followed by two more women House members before the Senate got around to seeking its first woman member. Gertrude D. McKee of Jackson County was elected in 1930 to the Senate. And she jokingly referred to her forty-nine male Senate colleagues as 'my children.' McKee was seriously considered as a gubernatorial nominee in the 1944 election. Over the years, a total of 105 women have served in the General Assembly. Between 1921 and 1959 only 13 women had served in this Legislature. But other first followed. Geraldine Nielson of Forsyth County was the first Republican woman elected to the Senate in 1967. Thelma Fisher of Transylvania County had been appointed in 1955 and was the first Republican woman to serve in the General Assembly but she was not elected. Alfreda Johnson Webb was the first African-American woman appointed to the House in 1971, although she was appointed after the Session and therefore never actually served in the Assembly. Annie Brown Kennedy of Forsyth did serve after her appointment in 1979. In the last election, 29 of the 170 legislators elected were women. Despite the fact that women legislators have represented opposing parties, different sections of the state, divergent opinions and diverse age groups, they almost always focused on reform, often championing improvements in the welfare of children and in education. Through the years, women have introduced bills regulating child labor, providing a minimum salary for teachers, requiring increased sanitation for dairy producers and outlawing marital rape. Because of the efforts of these women, the quality of North Carolina was and is improving. Women have now served as heads of committees, minority and majority leaders, speaker Pro Tempore. Many good things have been accomplished by all of these women, but there are still many things to do. We thank those women who came before us that set the example and we look forward to those who will continue our work. In this year of 1998 as we celebrate the sixty years of the National Order of Women Legislators, we are remembering Ms. Clement who said 'We do have to start a thing', and I can assure you that work is not finished. I commend the Resolution to you."

Senator Winner:

"Thank you. Thank you Senator Cochrane for your very well researched and stated remarks. It's hard for me to talk about the importance of women legislators without sounding very self-serving, so I will forego that, but I do want to take this opportunity to thank my women colleagues for the contributions, very different from each other, that each of you makes to this Body and for the work that you do to make this a better place. It's also hard for me to imagine the courage and strength of character that it must have taken for Lillian Clement to run for the North Carolina House of Representatives in 1920 before women even had the right to vote. She truly was a trailblazer and I do think it is important for us to remember and appreciate the courage of those who went before us and made our paths easier. And finally, I do feel a need to say that it's been seventy-five years since Lillian Clement was elected to the North Carolina House of Representatives and in 1998 women are up to twelve percent of the North Carolina Senate. So you cannot say that progress as been any too fast in this area."

Senator Perdue:

"Thank you Mr. President, members of the Senate. Today we thank Senator Cochrane and the members of the House and the Senate Women's Caucus for offering this Resolution to us. The Resolution today is about Lillian Clement. Last weekend many of us in this State probably in nearly every county also celebrated another event that is very special for women of America. One hundred and fifty years ago, the Seneca Falls Convention was held which marked the beginning of the Women's Rights Movement in America. It was a marvelous celebration throughout the country, as people recall what it was like to live both in Lillian Clement's time and one hundred and fifty years ago, when women could not only not vote, they couldn't own property, they had no right of participation in any type of civic or political process. In fact, if they were left a widow, they lost all their rights to their property and the rights to even see how their children were reared. And so what we are saying today as women members of this Body reaches far deeper than just the fact that we ourselves honor women who have served and served before us, and especially Lillian Clement. I would like to challenge the members of this Body to remember that the Women's Rights Movement was not that radical bra-burning movement that so many of us laughed about or dreaded or participated in. It was about what this country believes in and stands for. It was about a belief that America and North Carolina is a place where all people regardless of age, or sex, or color, or creed have equal rights and opportunity to participate in the public process and in the conversation that controls the way we live. I would commend this Resolution to you."

Senator Lucas:

"Thank you. Members of the Senate, in celebration of this one hundred and fiftieth anniversary of the Women's Rights Movement, it is only fitting that we pay special recognition to a woman who has paved the way for so many women to follow in North Carolina politics, the late Representative Lillian Exum Clement. It has been said that everything great which has ever happened to humanity has begun as a single thought in someone's mind. I want to thank Senator Cochrane for motivating even us today. On August 26, 1920, women in America were granted the right to exercise one of our most celebrated and critical freedoms, the right to vote. In 1921, a year later, representing Buncombe County as you heard Senator Cochrane mention, Lillian Exum Clement took the oath of office to become the first. We are told that she was elected, as has been mentioned, by 10,368 to 41 on an all-male ballot. The reason I say that is because that's power in politics, is it not? In Clement's own words she did say that she wanted to blaze that trail and start a thing for women. And start a thing she did, Senator Cochrane, because you are the first female to be Senate Minority Leader, I think, and House Minority Leader. And I look at you Senator Perdue and I believe you are the first female Appropriations Chair in the Senate. And I think about Ellie Kinnaird being here from a very difficult county, and then Jeanne Lucas being the first African-American female in the Senate. History tells us that she did introduce seventeen bills and out of those seventeen bills, sixteen of them are now law. Thanks to Lillian, a visionary with unusual strength, as she stood before a crowd of antagonists who disapproved of her speaking on behalf of unwed mothers and they pelted her with eggs and rotten fruit because she was portraying effective leadership and service. Because of her, every young girl and woman in North Carolina can dare to realize her dream of exerting power and influencing positive change in North Carolina. Politics is no longer as usual and because of her legacy, business in North Carolina politics has never been, nor will it ever be the same. I close by saying thanks to this outstanding woman for letting it be known and letting it be shown that women can shatter the glass ceiling and that women can rise from the sticky floor of political exclusion. I commend the Resolution to you."

Senator Foxx:

"This is going to be the last time when we have an opportunity that I let these four women speak ahead of me because they have stolen much of the thunder that I wanted to say. I think Senator Winner's comments about being careful not to be self-seeking is very important to us as we talk about these things, but I wanted to point out something that Senator Lucas said that ought to be a model for all of us and that is that Lillian Exum Clement got seventeen bills introduced and sixteen are still law. Would that most of us would have that kind of legacy in an environment like that, and like Senator Winner said, I have had a hard time imagining what it must have been like here in Raleigh, being the first woman in this Legislature. I'm sure that the men were very gracious to her in many ways, but it must have been a very, very, awkward time. All men and women in this State owe her and the other pioneers a great debt because the women who come to this Legislature bring a perspective that is very, very important to this State and I think that we must remember that on a regular basis. One of the things that nobody has said though about Lillian Exum Clement that I think is very important is that she pointed out that there are no such things as women's issues. The things that she worked on were those issues that were important to everyone and I think that's something that we must all remember. There are no men's issues, there are no women's issues. There are issues that relate to human beings and she set a very high standard in that regard in pointing that out to us, that everything that she worked on was for all of us and not just for women. I commend the Resolution to you."

Senator Kinnaird:

"Thank you Mr. Chair. Thank you to Senator Cochrane for introducing this Resolution. I'm honored to be a member of this Body and have the privilege of addressing my colleagues on this Resolution. My path was made easier thanks to our first woman legislator, Lillian Clement. Lillian Clement was a courageous woman who stepped forward to run for the Legislature early in the process of women getting the vote. But she would not have been elected were it not also for the courage of those she represented. Women throughout her district, I'm sure, responded as did the men who voted for her. They saw that Lillian Clement was a leader who would make a good Legislator and were not afraid to give her their confidence through voting for her. We who follow hope that we have fulfilled that confidence and prove once again that women serve the people of our great State very well. I commend the Resolution to you."

Senator Kerr:

"I was kind of interested in the history of everything combined in this Resolution, but one thing that came to my attention was that until women got the right to vote in 1920, they couldn't become notary publics. I've done some research and the first woman notary public in this State was Ruth Milton Fenton, who practiced with Mr. Frank Taylor in my law firm, and she practiced law, too, for over sixty years. I was able to authenticate the fact that six people made application and knowing Ruth, she got there first. After the eighteenth Amendment or nineteenth Amendment was passed, which you say was August 20, I was trying to remember who the Governor was, I think it was McLean, I was trying to research that but that's a small thing that a lot of my pages here, I have two lovely women from Wayne County, that not only could you not vote, but you couldn't be a notary public. I would like to honor the name of Ruth Milton Fenton who was the first female notary public in this State. She was a wonderful woman and I can tell you tales about Ms. Fenton. She liked me but she ran the office. We had no trust account then, we had one bank account. She always answered the phone, 'Hello.' She wrote all of Mr. Frank Taylor's checks and completely ran Mr. Frank Taylor, every check and everything. She would never answer the phone anything except 'Hello.' She typed everything out and she kept all the money and we had one bank account, we didn't have to worry about trust accounts and all these accounts. We would always run a little surplus because you used to bill for a few expenses and you'd run up a little credit in your bank account so I think we've always had the leadership of the women and certainly Ruth Milton Fenton has meant a lot to me 'cause she taught me how to practice law and she was the first lady notary public in North Carolina."

Senator Basnight:

"Thank you Mr. President, members of the Senate. It has been interesting to understand today that in North Carolina we all speak of being able to vote. Senator Cochrane, in 1920, is that what the time was? If you were a black lady I don't believe you were allowed to vote in 1920, so I think it only applied to white women at that time and the people of color after they passed what was considered at the time a nominal test, but I don't believe it was if you didn't have public schools to attend, you couldn't read very well and sometimes you were not even allowed to go to those schools that were available to you in certain areas of this State and there were certain tests that you would have to take which would disallow you from being able to vote at that time. I believe that it was E. V. Wilkins that told me the men got to vote first in the 50's, possibly if you were a person of color without the means testing, and then maybe it was in the 60's when ladies had the chance, the total freedom in North Carolina, without obstacles, to be able to test. Now my times may be a little bit off, so the total freedom of what was afforded some North Carolinians, women it being at the time, were not afforded at all until later in our history. My grandmother, I remember talking to her at times, and my mother as well, as those opportunities that were not quite the freedoms that we as the male population have today. So the elective process proved itself earlier on for the first time in our history in Buncombe County. And that is what we honor and celebrate today. There are so many supportive people that we have in the Senate today that are women and that are new to this environment it seems to be. I know that people that work in the Senate Office, the one that I am directly responsible for as your President Pro Tempore, is driven by women and they work long and hard, they are very bright, very smart, and they are able to do things that you could not tell the difference by the sex, and I never understood why we had those difficulties from time to time and it certainly is the proper thing to do to recognize and understand that and I can remember some of the ladies that have worked here from Helen Marvin to Tally, to Hunt, to Seymour and others. And then those that we have today, Foxx, Cochrane, Perdue, Kinnaird, Lucas, and one that stands out for me, and you hate to pick one but I am going to be very honest about picking someone, and it is not going to be that she is just a woman, she happens to be a member of the Senate and I place her as a prize above and with and all of us and that is Senator Leslie Winner who will be leaving us this year to go back to her family. But she has been truly a guiding light for many of us as we watched her grow in a few short years of serving the people of this State. Senator Perdue, your contributions have been many as the first Appropriations Chair and I am sure that there are some Members that our Senator Soles will well remember who would roll over in their graves today if they knew the Appropriations Chair was not Kenneth Royall, but Beverly Perdue, a Senator in her own right; and Senator Cochrane, watch you make so many contributions on behalf of people of this State. Each and every one of you are just grand and you are very, very special, not because you are a woman but because you are a North Carolinian that deeply cares and concerns yourself with doing those simple things, those things that are right.

I commend this Resolution to you."

Senate Chamber
Thursday, July 23, 1998

The Senate meets pursuant to adjournment and is called to order by the Honorable Dennis A. Wicker, Lieutenant Governor.

Prayer is offered by the Reverend Mike Morris, Senate Chaplain, as follows:

"Dear God, among other things on the agenda we know that the House version of Budget is on its way back to this Chamber. It won't look, feel, smell, sound, or taste much like the version agreed upon by the Senators.

"Because of that, in the negotiations that ensue, remind all involved that the key Beatitude is the first, 'Blessed are the poor in spirit'- the rest are elaborations of it.

"The poor in spirit are we who, stripped of self-sufficiency, self-security, and self-righteousness, have discovered the deepest truth about ourselves, that we are bankrupt without You, Oh God.

"That may be the best place from which to start any negotiations on any matter. Amen."

Prayer is offered by the Honorable Howard N. Lee, Senator from Orange County, as follows:

"At this point in our deliberation, it is a time when we must dig deep and call upon ourselves to have patience and in that spirit, let us pray.

"All wise and just God, we humbly pray for Your patience and mercy and ask You to bless all who serve in the Legislature of this State. We have been placed here to be servants of the common good and to search for ways by which all the people of our State might be served best by its laws and institutions. It is a difficult task that we have been called upon to accomplish. Some of the problems which beset our State seem beyond human resolution. We feel compelled to balance the needs between the poor and the rich; to protect the rights of the weak and the strong; to insure justice for the laborer and the employer; to protect environment from abuse and to provide jobs through industry for our people. In the face of such a complicated task we ask that You, in Your own mysterious way, guide each of us that we might faithfully execute Your Will. Help us to be merciful as we attempt to encourage the disheartened, strengthen the weary, give courage to the wavering, and help all who seek to know Your Will. We pray that what transpires in this Legislative Body will be acceptable in Your sight. This we pray. Amen."

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

With unanimous consent, on motion of Senator Horton, the remarks of Senator Jordan who rises to a point of personal privilege are spread upon the Journal, as follows:

"Mr. President and Members of this Body, I rise tonight and say a word or two in memory of two gentlemen, Officers Jacob Chestnut and John Gibson, who gave their lives last week. It was particularly interesting that these gentlemen served their country in the Armed Forces and again had an opportunity to serve their country as public servants in the Nation's Capitol. I'm indeed touched because Mr. Jacob Chestnut's family lives in the districts that Senator Albertson, Senator Ballantine, and I represent. So it's indeed touching for us. Also, in that incident, that school teacher who was caught in the crossfire was from Wilmington, so from New Hanover County up to Pender and Onslow County, we are touched. I hope that you will have each of these family members in your prayers, the family members of those fallen comrades who gave their lives, because they have a great deal of family throughout the United States, and from hearing everything that was said about these gentlemen, they were not only honorable, but they were a credit to their communities and I hope that, Senator Basnight, you will certainly tonight adjourn in memory of those fallen gentlemen for all that they did for their country. Thank you."

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

With unanimous consent, on motion of Senator Horton, the remarks of Senator Kinnaird who rises to a point of personal privilege are spread upon the Journal, as follows:

"Yesterday marked the anniversary of the Americans for Disabilities Act. This landmark legislation allowed people with disabilities to participate fully in all aspects and activities of life. The Governor has issued a Resolution in support of our disabled citizens. I want to relay to you an experience in my own personal life with a disabled person.

The pin that I'm wearing tonight is a symbol of the disabled. It was given to me by Ellen Perry after a long association with her. I first met Ellen Perry when I was the Mayor of Carrboro and she approached me about several problems and barriers she, as a disabled person with cerebral palsy, was encountering. Through the years working with Ellen, I learned a great deal about the problems in our community for the disabled. Throughout this length of time when we were working together, I appointed Ellen to our Transportation Advisory Committee. She serves there to this day, and also as Chair for several years. In fact, she is now an expert on transportation issues on the local level, on the state level, and on the national level, including all the attendant acronyms. She has served on several other committees, including the award-winning Orange County Disability Awareness Commission. Ellen has lived independently and held a job for sixteen years in my town. She is but one of many disabled citizens including judges, doctors, department heads, and other workers, as well as, many of you must know, those who bag your groceries in the grocery store. I was not aware of many of the problems, as well as the capabilities of the disabled before I met Ellen. Ellen has constantly reminded me and constantly prodded me to action. Without that, I probably would not have been as involved in these issues as I am now.

The pin depicts a person in a wheelchair lifting up in a balloon. We should all be mindful of their great contributions and their aspirations today. Thank you."

The President recognizes the following pages serving in the Senate this week:

Sarah Elizabeth Allen, Garner; Evelyn Rebecca Ballard, Durham; Hinda Boutrid, Raleigh; Sheena Brannock, Sparta; Caroline Briley, Kinston; Jason Brown, Raleigh; Kirissa Nicole Bryant, Smithfield; Elizabeth Lynnette Dalton, Rutherfordton; Jason Deitch, Raleigh; Keturi Sybil DeLong, Frisco; Akilah R. ONE HUNDRED SIXTY-NINTH DAY

Senate Chamber
Tuesday, July 28, 1998

The Senate meets pursuant to adjournment and is called to order by the Honorable Marc Basnight, President Pro Tempore, who presides in the absence of the Lieutenant Governor.

Prayer is offered by Dr. Dumas Harshaw, Pastor of the First Baptist Church, Raleigh, North Carolina, as follows:

"Dear Eternal God, in whom we live, and move, and have the uniqueness of our being, Thou who art the lamp for our feet, and the light for our path. We thank Thee for the benefits of another day of life, surrounded by the beauty of Your creation and the love of Your creatures. Our hearts are overjoyed, as we reflect upon the mercies and grace of life.

"Smile upon us today, and especially, upon the distinguished leaders, thinkers, and lawmakers, which make up this Legislative Body. We recognize the gravity of this hour, the responsibility of the task and the awesome privilege of this vocation. Grant now, dear Lord, the serenity to accept the things that cannot be changed, the courage to change the things that can be changed, and the wisdom to know the difference.

"Dear Lord, we gather in this sacred moment, fully conscious of the masses not present, but well represented, who need housing, food, education, healthcare, a safe and clean environment and a variety human services. We affirm that in times like these we need a Savior, in times like these we need an anchor, we are very sure that our anchor holds and grips the solid rock, that rock is Jesus, yes He is the One, that rock is Jesus, the only One, in whose Name we pray, Amen."

Pursuant to your information that your Honorable Body failed to concur in House Committee Substitute for SB 1366, A BILL TO BE ENTITLED AN ACT TO MODIFY THE CURRENT OPERATIONS AND CAPITAL IMPROVEMENTS APPROPRIATIONS ACT OF 1997 AND TO MAKE OTHER CHANGES IN THE BUDGET OPERATION OF THE STATE, the Speaker has appointed as conferees on the part of the House:

Representatives Holmes, Chair; Esposito, Creech, Crawford, Arnold, Baker, Bowie, Brawley, Cansler, Carpenter, Church, Clary, Daughtry, Dickson, Dockham, Gardner, Gray, Hill, Howard, Hunter, Ives, Justus, Kiser, McCombs, McMahan, Mitchell, Morgan, Oldham, Preston, Russell, Sherrill, Thompson, C. Wilson, and G. Wilson to act with a like committee on the part of the Senate to the end that the differences existing between the two bodies may be adjusted.

Respectfully,
S/Denise G. Weeks
Principal Clerk

A special message is received from the House of Representatives transmitting a joint resolution which is read the first time and disposed of, as follows:

H.J.R. 1763, A JOINT RESOLUTION HONORING THE LIFE AND MEMORY OF WILLIAM CLINTON "BUCK" HARRIS JR., FORMER MEMBER OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

On motion of Senator Rand, the rules are suspended, without objection, and the House Joint Resolution is placed before the Senate for immediate consideration.

With unanimous consent, on motion of Senator Basnight, the remarks of the Senators and the Chair memorializing the life and memory of William Clinton "Buck" Harris, Jr., former member of the General Assembly, are spread upon the Journal, as follows:

Senator Reeves:

"Thank you Mr. President. I'd like for the ladies and gentlemen of the Senate to know that family members of Buck Harris are present here with us today; Jean Harris, his wife; Sarah Harris, his daughter; Malcolm Harris, his son; and Malcolm's wife, Dugan, is here. Carson Harris, a granddaughter, and Catherine H. Badger have come to the Legislature to hear this resolution today. It is very interesting as I listen to the Resolution being read to note that Mr. Harris served in the Legislature from 1957 to 1962, serving under two of the greatest Governors this state has known, Luther Hodges and Terry Sanford. It is quite interesting to me that in that period of time, from '57 to 1960, was a time when the Legislature and the Governor's Office spent a lot of time wrestling with the Highway Commission and the Board of Transportation and made decisions with regard to highway planning, which is indeed an acute issue that we are dealing with right now. If you look through the history of his law firm, Poyner and Spruill, you would realize if you live in Raleigh that this man's history and the law firm's history are completely intertwined with the growth and vitality of Raleigh as we know it. Mr. Harris was indeed a very important person to our city's history and it is with sadness that we are here honoring his life on the passing of his death. I commend this resolution to you."

Senator Miller:

"Thank you Mr. President. I must say I did not know Buck Harris, but I certainly saw the shadow that he cast in the community. Although I did not know Mr. Harris, I do know several of the family members who are in the gallery and I certainly knew Mr. Harris' reputation in the Bar and in the community, and I also recommend this Resolution to you. "

Senator Rand:

"Thank you Mr. President. Ladies and gentlemen of the Senate, as a young man, shortly after I finished law school I had the opportunity and pleasure to practice law here in Raleigh in the middle 60's, and in doing so I had the opportunity to know Buck Harris and to come to understand his reputation and what he meant to Wake County and to Raleigh. He was a grand fellow, he was a splendid lawyer and he worked the bulk of his life to make our community and the University of North Carolina and things we all love and cherish better for everybody with whom he came into contact. He was a grand man, Mr. President, and we will all miss him."

Senator Basnight:

"Thank you, Mr. President, members of the Senate. It is a great honor that I stand to speak on the resolution and give my respects to the past history of a man who has done so very much for the State and her people. As you look through the resolution and you read of many of the contributions that he made, you understand rather quickly that this is the kind of person that helped make North Carolina great. "

The Joint Resolution passes its second reading (45-0) and third reading with Members standing, and is ordered enrolled.

The President extends the courtesies of the gallery to the family of William Clinton "Buck" Harris, Jr. as follows:

"I believe on behalf of all the Senate, the Chair included, the Chair wishes to extend the courtesies of the gallery to the widow of Buck Harris, Jean Harris, and to the other friends and family that have come here today. We certainly thank you for sharing the life of this great North Carolinian and this great American."

On motion of Senator Basnight, seconded by Senator Miller, the Senate adjourns at 3:07 P.M. to meet tomorrow, Thursday, July 30, at 11:00 A.M.

ONE HUNDRED SEVENTY-FIRST DAY

Senate Chamber
Thursday, July 30, 1998

The Senate meets pursuant to adjournment and is called to order by the Honorable Dennis A. Wicker, Lieutenant Governor.

Prayer is offered by the Honorable Jeanne Hopkins Lucas, Senator from Durham County as follows:

"Father, it is with thanksgiving that we offer this prayer, acknowledging the awesome display of Your mighty power: the creation of heaven and earth, the creation of living creatures and the creation of male and female.

"Father, although You created us in Your powerful image, and blessed us to rule wisely over this world, some of us are constantly plagued by our (thorns in the flesh): insensitivity to needs, rivalry, competition and selfish motivations.

"These thorns in our flesh prevent us from achieving the greatest good for human kind. Help us to rely more on Your power than on our imperfections. As we deliberate on our desires for the budget appropriation, remind us that Your grace is sufficient for us, for Your power is made perfect in our weaknesses. Accept our prayer. Amen."

With unanimous consent, the President grants leaves of absence for today to Senator Albertson, Senator Carrington, Senator Gulley, Senator Jenkins, Senator Lee and Senator Moore.

Senator Basnight, President Pro Tempore, announces the Journal of yesterday, Wednesday, July 29, has been examined and is found to be correct. On his motion, the Senate dispenses with the reading of the Journal and it stands approved as written.

The President of the Senate extends courtesies of the floor to Dr. Donald Eugene Vaughn from Raleigh, North Carolina, who is serving the Senate as Doctor of the Day, and to Julie Taylor of Rocky Point, North Carolina, who is serving the Senate as Nurse of the Day.

On motion of Senator Cochrane, the joint resolution is read in its entirety, and on motion of Senator Forrester, the remarks of the President of the Senate and the Senators memorializing the life and memory of Bradford Verdize Ligon, former member of the General Assembly, as spread upon the Journal, as follows:

Senator Cochrane:

"Thank you Mr. President. Ladies and gentlemen of the Senate, in 1980 it was not an easy thing for a Republican to decide to run for this North Carolina General Assembly. It took courage, quite frankly, and it took a person of conviction and philosophy of the Republican Party. Commissioner Brad Ligon of Rowan County took upon himself that responsibility and was successful in it. I think it was because of the conviction he felt about his conservative values. There were only eighteen of us in the House in 1981 when he came to Raleigh and a body of 120 over in the House. There were only six Senators over here at that time, so you had to have a lot of conviction to survive down here and Brad did because he believed so strongly in the conservative philosophy, it had caused him to decide to put himself forward for public office in the first place. I often thought it was fitting that he had been a Marine because you know the old ad that you see on television about they need just a few good men. Brad was one of those. He was very special and set apart from other people. He was among the few. I've laughingly thought he probably voted 'no' more times than R.L. Clark. Now that ought to tell you a lot about the kind of person we're talking about here. And another thing that I was reminded of in the mid-eighties, he and another House member got together a voting record. It went from the far, far conservative to a category labeled Communist. And there were some people in that category and it was an interesting thing to read. It took a lot of thought on his part and a lot of work on the part of both of them. But that's how serious he was about his philosophy and how he felt about those who were on the opposite extreme of his good conservative philosophy. Brad Ligon was a morally upright man. He was faithful all of his life to his family and particularly to his wife, Jemelle. I remember in particular that as freshmen, and all of you have been through that, you usually go in small groups out to dinner. Brad always had to be a part of a group or at least if it was only one or two, there weren't no women. There was not going to be one suspicion of anything about Brad Ligon that would ever make Jemelle feel the least bit concern about his behavior down here. He was a true southern gentleman, Jemelle, his entire time in this Body. You could never have besmirched anything about him. He was a good father to his two sons, one of whom is here this afternoon. And a proud, proud grandfather of the two grandchildren he has, a grandson and a granddaughter. One thing that always sort of tied me especially to Brad, besides the fact of our philosophy and besides the fact that our counties that we served were beside each other, besides that we started in the House together, he got married on January 20. January 20 is my birthday, and his birthday was January 17, my daughter's birthday. We used to talk about things like that. Brad was very active in his church and community. I have visited in his church with him years ago and the feelings that the members of that church had for him only come about from a person who has given of his time and energy to the fellowship and activities of the church. That was very apparent when you were visiting there with him. I always admired the fact that he wasn't just a rhetorical person, he actually got out there in his community to try to make right those things that he saw were not as they should be for all kinds of people but particularly for those less fortunate. And he didn't just talk about helping candidates, he did. You know in the early days of his service in this General Assembly, to be willing to help other people become a little more noticeable when I recall that in one campaign we through, our faces where on posters encircled with slashes across them, you can't demean a person much more than that. Unfortunately it was inaccurate. It had to do with hazardous waste sighting and we had not supported that because we could see it coming to Rowan County but those kinds of things happen to somebody like Brad who is willing to step forward in the 1980's. It didn't stop Brad. Not only was he politically admired and admired as a family man and a person in the community who cared and worked for his community, he was professionally admired. Brad was a pharmacist, well regarded in his community. There were people who would follow him from one drugstore to another when he got moved around in the chain where he worked. And he didn't get moved very often. But it was interesting to see the people go where Brad was because his advice and his dispensing their drugs mattered that much to him. And in the House he was often asked his opinion about Legislation that had to do with either medicine or just the medical profession in general. He was highly trained and his opinion was highly regarded. He was a man of a lot of common sense and this Body can use a bunch of those. We were pleased to have him in our delegation. He was always very personally loyal to the people that were his friends and that stood with him in the trenches. And as I think of Brad always, always, I will think of an American patriot. I commend the Resolution to you."

Senator Hartsell:

"Thank you Mr. President, members of the Senate. There are probably very few of you here who remember Brad Ligon. I had never met him before I came to the General Assembly, although I grew up and heard his name from an adjoining county. When I came down here he pulled me aside and told me, 'Son, you need to be quiet, speak only when spoken to, and tell the truth when you speak.' I remember those comments and I do remember particularly, as Senator Cochrane mentioned, that Brad probably holds the record having voted 'no' more than any Legislator perhaps in the General Assembly, I'm not sure. He was a man of very strong feelings. One of those feelings had to do with alcohol. Having served in a delegation that served the city of Kannapolis where there were many disagreements over time, the delegation with Brad Ligon and Coy Privette and several others, it became very interesting to discuss that subject on many occasions. And there was absolutely no question about how Brad felt about that particular subject. The fact of the matter, there was never any question in much of anyone's mind about any issue that Brad had thought about because he would tell you. He would tell you in a very direct way, in a very honest, and I think a caring way. Brad was a very humble man. I've always thought on my own tombstone, I'd like for someone to say that I was decent and honest. And I think that can be said of Brad, as much or perhaps better than anyone I have ever met. I commend this Resolution to you."

Senator Carpenter:

"Thank you Mr. President, ladies and gentlemen of the Senate. I think when you think of Brad Ligon, at least when I think of Brad, I think of him truly as an independent-thinking individual. He conducted himself like a man's man. As a Marine veteran, he thought like a Marine, independent thinking Legislator and I think he thought like and voted like an independent-thinking Legislator, if I can make myself clear on that point. He was an independent individual, he was a character's character. Jemelle, he was a pleasure to know and a pleasure to be around. We miss him. I support the Resolution."

Senator Shaw of Guilford:

"Mr. President, members of the Body, I remember the first time saw Brad Ligon. We were at a candidate seminar that the State Republican Party put on one time. And we chatted for a little while 'cause we were both panelist. I didn't know much about Brad and so some of the candidates started asking us who were running for local government, county commission, chair and so forth, what kind of issues they should use. So I suggested that they might take local issues like seats on school buses for children, a decent ambulance service, and introduce things that effected everybody in the community like CPR, and Brad pulled on my coattail and said, 'Wait a minute, I don't know what I think of that mess CPR or not.' And I thought, well I've never heard anybody object to CPR. And after the meeting I said, 'Brad, what's the problem with CPR?' He said, 'Well Bob, it sounds good and it's one of those things everybody is in favor of but when you get down to the nitty gritty, you're going to have lawsuits, you are going to have people catching diseases and several other things.' Years later when I introduced that bill in here, I remembered that and I was very careful to put things in that bill that Brad had recommended. This man had more common sense than the average bear, I'm going to tell you. He was sharp. He was also witty and fun. He got upset with a fellow in the House one time with the opposite party and got up and said some nice things about him, but said 'I'll tell you one thing about him, he's even-tempered, he's always bad.' So, I've always liked that man and I've always respected him, and Jemelle, we sure miss him. Thank you."

Senator Albertson:

"Thank you Mr. President. I had the pleasure and honor to serve over in the House back in '89 and '90 and Brad was really an unusual fellow in a lot of ways. The way I got to know Brad I guess the best, was Billy Mills and myself were from Onslow County. Of course he served in this Body and served in the House as well. He had known Brad for some time and Billy and I, we sort of ran around together, we shared an apartment with our wives that year. He was always kidding Brad. All the time. They were just laughing when the Session was over. That's the way I really got to know Brad. But I can tell you one thing, he would vote against a bill in a heartbeat. He looked forward to voting against that legislation. But when you got him off to the side to talk with him, he really was a wonderful fellow, just as warm and caring a person that you could ever expect to meet. I'm really glad I got the chance to know Brad and learn to appreciate him like I did."

Senator Phillips:

"Thank you Mr. President. I'd like to speak if I may about a person I do not know. I've never known Representative Ligon. I only know of him. Of course all of you know this is my first term. And in my first year, I could identify with Senator Cochrane when she said it takes a lot of nerve to run. The time I came along it did take a lot of nerve as a Democrat. I would like for Brad's family to know that in my twelve months of campaigning in my district, and especially in Rowan County, of the kind remarks that I heard about their husband and father. Everywhere I'd go people would say to me, 'Are you of that cut, are you of that nature, do you care about honest, decent government for people in our community?' They'd always bring up to me two people, and I want to mention his name if I may, Senator Paul Smith and Brad. I'm grateful for their comments to me because it set the tone of the district that I would represent and the people that lived in that district. And I want the family to know that the memories of their husband and their father were very kind. That was expressed to me by both Democrats and Republicans. I support the Resolution."

The joint resolution passes its second reading (48-0) and third reading, unanimously with Members standing, and is ordered enrolled.

Upon motion of Senator Cochrane and Senator Phillips, the President extends courtesies of the Gallery to the family of Bradford Verdize Ligon, including his wife, Jemelle Ligon; son, Gene Ligon; and sister-in-law, Virginia Patterson. "I would say to the family that I served with Brad Ligon, the same number of years that I served in the North Carolina House. And I would say to the family that despite our political differences and philosophy, Brad Ligon was a very good man. He was a special man. And I know on behalf of all the Senate we want to thank you for sharing his life with this General Assembly and for the people of North Carolina."

Prayer is offered by the Reverend Mike Morris, Senate Chaplain, as follows:

"God of Wisdom, it seems that we live in a world where people think they have all the right answers, but don't really know what the right questions are.

"It is the task of the men and women of the Senate not only to deal with people who have these right answers, but also to ascertain, expose, and ask the difficult questions from which the answers are proposed and the truth obtained. Holy Scripture is full of stories about people who know the law but not the truth.

"Be with the Senators in this continuing and sometimes difficult dialogue between perspective and inquiry. Amen."

With unanimous consent, the President grants a leave of absence for today to Senator Jordan.

Senator Basnight, President Pro Tempore, announces the Journal of yesterday, Tuesday, August 4, has been examined and is found to be correct. On his motion, the Senate dispenses with the reading of the Journal and it stands approved as written.

H.J.R. 1762, A JOINT RESOLUTION HONORING THE LIFE AND MEMORY OF ERNEST BRYAN MESSER, FORMER MEMBER OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY, upon second reading.

With unanimous consent, on motion of Senator Plyler, the joint resolution is read in its entirety, and on his further motion, the remarks of the Senators memorializing the life and memory of Ernest Bryan Messer, former member of the General Assembly, are spread upon the Journal, as follows:

Senator Plyler:

"Thank you, Mr. President. Members of the Senate, many of you here knew Ernest Messer and you knew what an honest man Ernest Messer was. When I came here in 1974, I first met Ernest and he helped me a tremendous amount. He could advise you on most any subject concerning the General Assembly and legislation for one simple reason: Ernest read every bill that was introduced and he read it and studied it and knew it and was prepared when he was to speak on it or to vote on it. Ernest Messer was a very, very devoted family man. He and Jincy were together practically all the time that he wasn't on the floor or in committees during the General Assembly. He was a gentleman that did many things for his district. He worked hard as I mentioned before. He was completely honest with what, with what he was doing and he also was a person that could make you laugh occasionally and then in just a few minutes I'll tell you three or four things that he would say or would do. But Ernest was appointed after many years here in the General Assembly to the Division of Aging and he did an outstanding job on the Division of Aging. He did a lot of various things to make that organization much better and I'll tell you what. All of those people that were senior citizens really did love Ernest Messer because he gave attention to them, attention that they needed and deserved. And Ernest will be remembered not only by those that were senior citizens then, but by their families because of the good deeds that he did toward making those senior citizens happy. Ernest was, as I mentioned before, he was real learned on most things. He read all of the bills. He studied them. He studied every issue that was good for North Carolina and a lot of times that he would be speaking to seniors over 65 years old, he would tell them that aging was a wonderful thing. But he says 'when you get 65 years old I think every one of you need to buy you an orange car or a pick up. So that was one of the things that he advised. He would also say 'if you don't use it, you lose it and get out of your rocking chairs.' He was passionate about seniors staying active. A great story with Ernest was when someone would come in his office to visit him, he would either motion for them to go to the left side or the right side of his desk. If he wanted to hear 'em he would say go to the left. If he didn't want to hear 'em, he'd say go to the right because he was hard of hearing in his right ear. But he was, as I mentioned, recognized by many citizens across the State in helping in their need. Ernest and Jincy and Dwight Quinn and Marian and Jay Huskins and Mildred and Roby and Ethel Nash and Dot and I would go out and eat practically every night when we were in Session. And it was a real treat for me to be in a group of people that had been here in the legislature and, of course, I was a little younger then that I am now. Actually, I was 47 when I came into the legislature and I listened very attentively to the advice that they would give me. But Ernest would always give you a good, good piece of advice when he was talking to you. Occasionally we would go over to someone else's house and Ernest and Jincy would bring down some food from the mountains. Now a lot of you have never heard the expression of leather britches. But leather britches, and I see Senator Jenkins laughing over there. He knows exactly what they are. Leather britches are beans that have matured. They hang 'em up. They dry 'em. They keep 'em to the dead of the winter when it's real cold. They soak them for 24 hours, hull and all and then put 'em in the pot and boil 'em for several hours and that's leather britches. And you would eat hulls and all along with cornbread and milk and whatever, potatoes that went with them. But that was one of their favorite things. At one time, there was a long debate in the House and Dwight Quinn and Betty Thomas sat right in front of me. And so we were near the front of the Chambers so during that debate, Mr. President, Dwight turned his chair around to look at the full, to hear the full debate. And it wasn't long until Betty turned her chair around to listen to the full debate. And then in a few minutes, Dwight Quinn just dropped over asleep. It wasn't but a little bit until Betty had dropped her head asleep. So Ernest was sitting right across the hall from me, or the aisle, about as far from here to Senator Ballance, so I walk over there and I said 'Ernest, let's start a rumor.' He said, 'All right Aaron, what you want to talk about.' I says 'Look up there, there's Dwight Quinn and Betty Thomas sleeping together. So that went around the House floor there for a good while. But really and truly, Ernest Messer was a great Carolinian, a great spokesman, a great fellow that would do anything in the world that he could to help his fellow man, and we will all miss him. I believe that Karen Gottovi might be here somewhere in the gallery that she succeeded him on the Division of Aging Council. And his family is not here today because this resolution was presented in the House Monday night and we had already adjourned when it got here. But, Mr. President and members of the Senate, I highly recommend the adoption of this resolution for a great, great North Carolinian. Thank you very much."

Senator Soles:

"Thank you. Mr. President, ladies and gentlemen of the Senate I went over to the House of Representatives to serve when I was 34 and the first year I sat in Seat No. 84 which was near the back. The next session I moved up to Seat No. 17 and in Sessions of 1971, '73, and '75, I sat in Seat No. 17 and Ernest Messer sat in Seat No. 18. That was the seat that was one row back from the front and on the center aisle. So he was right where he could see what was going on. And of interest to you, sitting in the seat directly in front of him was Representative Jimmy Green who later became the Speaker of the House and then presided over the Senate over here and sitting directly in front of me was Craig Lawing from Charlotte who eventually came over here and was the President Pro Tem of the Senate. Ernest was an interesting person. He was a mountain man. And he was an executive with Champion Paper Company or Champion International I believe they call it. And from time to time, someone would say something about the paper companies polluting the water or something like that and he'd get up and he'd make a real speech about the environment because he was an environmentalist and he was interested in the water and the nature and the purity of the air in the mountains and he didn't like anybody indicating that he wasn't. And I have heard him make a speech about that many times. He was also interested in children's issues and, of course, the elderly issues as you have already heard. He went on to be Secretary or head of the Department of Aging here and carried that through his entire career. He reminded me to some extent about some other members and one that we have here in the Senate that is really brilliant and smart but continues to talk and argue about lots of bills. I won't call any names, but Ernest Messer was like that to a certain extent. He had a brilliant mind, but if he disagreed with a bill, he didn't mind standing up and talking about it, and picking it and talking about it. And he used to get on some of our nerves so bad until one day after he did that over and over, I went out and bought a little cactus and brought it back and put it on his desk and told him that it reminded me of him when I saw it. So that cactus sat on his desk for the entire session over there. Ernest was an outstanding man. Many things he did will live long beyond him and long beyond those of us in this Chamber as good things for the people of North Carolina and I commend this resolution to you."

Senator Jenkins:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker, ladies and gentlemen of the Senate. Hearing Senator Plyler speak about Mr. Messer really brought along one tale I'd like to share with you that that great Representative Liston Ramsey shared with me. It seems that back when Liston was running for Speaker of the House, Ernest helped him be elected. Worked hard for him, and as soon as that election was over and Mr. Speaker was elected, he went to Ernest and offered him the position of Appropriations Chairman. And, of course, Ernest was really flattered. But he was so dedicated to furthering the cause of our elderly, he turned him down saying that he would rather work for the aged. And I believe that really says something for the man. Thank you."

The joint resolution passes its second reading (48-0) and third reading, unanimously with Members standing, and is ordered enrolled.

Prayer is offered by the Reverend Mike Morris, Senate Chaplain, as follows:

"Dear Lord and God of us all, Holy Scripture says that You know what we have need of even before we ask. As we stand before You this day, our needs are many. The Lieutenant Governor, Senators, and Staff live in two worlds - this one, which is public and so open to a large number of people, and the other so personal to which many will return today involving family, friends, and vocation.

"They must hold each place in delicate balance. Hear their most personal requests today regarding both worlds. Then give them what You want them to have, make them what You want them to be, help them to accomplish what You would have done.

"You know our needs before we ask and even when we don't ask. Thank you for responding, Oh God. Amen."

"Eternal God, long ago King Solomon wrote that a word aptly spoken is like apples of gold in settings of silver.

"Teach us the power of a single word. A word can sink us to depths or lift us to heights, condemn a person or free that person, incite a mob to violence or calm a hostile environment.

"May we choose our words as we would choose our best friends and weigh each word carefully because, Oh Lord, our own words can condemn or save us.

"We thank You for Your Word, for the Living Word, and for the true spoken Word. Let us hide Your Word in our hearts this day that we may not sin against You. Amen."

CALENDAR

S.J.R. 1537, A JOINT RESOLUTION HONORING THE LIFE AND MEMORY OF JAMES M. POYNER, FORMER MEMBER OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY, upon second reading.

With unanimous consent, on motion of Senator Rand, the joint resolution is taken up out of its regular order of business, and on his further motion is placed before the Senate for immediate consideration.

With unanimous consent, on motion of Senator Reeves, the joint resolution is read in its entirety, and on his further motion, the remarks of the Senators memorializing the life and memory of James M. Poyner, former member of the General Assembly, are spread upon the Journal, as follows:

Senator Reeves:

"Ladies and Gentlemen of the Senate, it is my honor at this moment, to pay tribute to one of my predecessors in this office, the late James M. Poyner. When he was a Senator representing Wake County, he served in a two-seat district, much like I do right now. He served with Wade H. Haskell. His term in the Senate from 1955-1958 was filled with critical issues of the day that remain defining us to this day. During his tenure of the Senate, he modernized many departments, such as prison reorganization, judicial reorganization, and probably most importantly we feel the echoes of it to this day, was education reform following the Brown vs Board of Education decision in 1954. He had the respect of then Governor Luther Hodges who appointed him as a freshman Senator to several very important committees, like the committee to Recodify the Revenue Act and the committee which was known as the Bell Commission on Improving the Administration of Justice. Interestingly enough, those are issues that we are still dealing with of this day. While he was in the Senate he introduced 25 bills. He served on several committees, and he even presided over the Senate on a Saturday. Apparently we used to meet on Saturday and the local delegation would run the hall. On Saturday, April 9, 1955, he ran the Senate that day. Two bills were engrossed and sent over to the House. They were a tax cut on peanuts and a clarification of statutes relating to private cemeteries. After his stay in the Senate, he became very active. He was active in the community prior to that time but he became even more active. Apparently he really loved playing music. He loved golf. He was very, very good at financing real estate transactions. In its editorial following his death, the News and Observer recounted many of the things that he did in our area. In their last sentence, it says, 'In the process he did much for his city and his fellow citizens.' And as a new person living in Wake County, I can truthfully say that there's very little things that I do that were not touched at some point by Mr. Poyner."

Senator Rand:

"Thank you Mr. President. If one was growing up in Wake County in the 40's, and 50's and 60's, if you didn't know who Jimmy Poyner was, I don't think you were aware of what was going on anywhere. He was, I guess a man for all seasons, in that he loved music, he was a consummate lawyer, he was a wonderful businessman. He did so much for the community in which he lived and for our State. He was a hard worker. A man who meant a great deal to his family, of course, and one who I think should be an example to those of us who come after him because of his many interests. I'm sure he knew a lot about the peanut bill and the cemetery bill because he was that kind of fellow, who took a great deal of interest in everything that came before this Body and anything that was going on in his county and in his state, I'm sure he was very interested in. It would certainly be best for us all, Mr. President, but his contributions and his memories will last long after he has left us. Thank you."

The joint resolution passes its second reading (47-0) and third reading, with members standing, and is ordered, without objection, sent to the House of Representatives by special messenger.

The President extends courtesies of the Gallery to the family of James M. Poyner: Susan Poyner Moore, Edythe Poyner, and James Marion Poyner III.

The President extends the courtesies of the gallery to Conal Gregory and his wife, Helen. Mr. Gregory is a former Member of Parliament from York, England.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

With unanimous consent, on motion of Senator Ballance, the remarks of Senator Jordan who rises to a point of personal privilege are spread upon the Journal as follows:

"Thank you Mr. President and members of the Body. I rise to just share a few things with you about the City of Wilmington, something that happened a hundred years ago and we're almost at the anniversary of that occasion. The first week of November of 1898, there was a horrible occasion that occurred in this Country and in this State. It's what many call the Race Riot of 1898 in Wilmington of the overthrow of city government or the coup d'etat, however you want to put it. But it is significant because it was the only time in the history of the United States that a government was overthrown, and yet nothing ever done about it. I say that to say nothing was ever done about it, no talks ever held about that. At that time, Wilmington was the largest city in the State of North Carolina. Senator Basnight, Republicans and Blacks were great friends during that time and held the majority in the city. Through that horrible incident many African-Americans' properties were ceased, their valuables where taken. The highest paid person in the country at that time was the keeper of the ports. The first doctors, lawyers, missionaries at that time came out of Wilmington, North Carolina. When I speak to many of the Senators from Charlotte, we talk, Senator Odom, about Johnson C. Smith University. And when we sometimes talk to those from Greensboro, we speak about North Carolina A & T. Those founders, those first presidents, those who put together those first institutions of higher education, were from Wilmington. And because it was such a devastating blow, no one wanted to have anything to do with progressive, with Wilmington, because of this horrible deed that it echoed through the State and the nation. The Legislators were then elected and sent to Raleigh. The pages of history were just wiped out with African Americans, were all about from Wilmington and Southeastern North Carolina, and so many left and vowed to never to ever come back again. A hundred years passed and those prominent families in Wilmington who are probably the largest landowners and some of the richest people in this country benefited from that, and through the years many were afraid to even talk about this that happened in Wilmington. Well finally, those families of third generations are talking to those other families who were dealt those blows. And through economic development, the main thing which must occur, the Committee 100 and the Chamber of Commerce and many other folk are sitting down talking also - how to bring about some type of economic development climate in Wilmington to help bring about a change. The banking communities, everyone are talking. I never thought it would ever happen. Having to live through the days of the Wilmington 10 and the other riots of that nature, I always knew something was strange about Wilmington; how through two or three generations of Blacks they were afraid to rise up to try to advance themselves in politics or business, but now that is changing and I hope that it will be a much received change for all those who are looking for a change to take Wilmington on to a higher heights and we can then look at Charlotte and Greensboro and try to take back our rightful place as the educational and cultural leaders of this state. I am sharing all this with you because in November probably you will start seeing many articles that are going to come out about these incidents. There's a movie going to be made and there's a number of books being written now about that, and then all can find out what really happened in Wilmington, so it's very important to me because in coming up in Wilmington all the books were taken from the library so Blacks couldn't read about the history. The books that could really tell us what Wilmington had they were just taken from the public libraries, the city libraries, and just destroyed, and the printers wouldn't even publish the real history of Wilmington. But I share all of that with you and tell you that we are moving ahead and I hope that if you have any incidents like that in your communities, that you try to lift up your community. Let them know that there should not be two communities, there ought to be one community moving ahead because if one part of the community is sick, ailing, the entire community is sick and ailing. And I believe that we all should move forward into the next century together. Thank you."

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

With unanimous consent, on motion of Senator Rand, the remarks of Senator Winner who rises for a point of personal privilege are spread upon the Journal as follows:

"On Friday morning last week, our friend and colleague Beth Christensen, died after a six-year struggle with breast cancer which ultimately spread to many other parts of her body. Beth had been a member of the staff of the General Assembly for, I guess, twenty years. I first met her in 1981 when she was the staff to a study commission on Low and Moderate Income Housing that I had been appointed to. She was a good friend of mine over the years and she was very, very committed to this General Assembly and to seeing that we do the right things to serve the people of this State. She was creative, she was conscientious, she was very committed to her work and to each of us who served here. I would like to say to Beth if your soul is listening to this conversation, that we miss you and we appreciate your commitment to this Body and we appreciate your friendship. Thank you."

On motion of Senator Basnight, seconded by Senator Winner, the Senate adjourns at 3:17 P.M. to meet tomorrow, Wednesday, August 19, at 1:00 P.M.

Help us, Oh God, not only to use our material wealth wisely but also to give of ourselves, our love, our concern, and our understanding. Then neither the gift or the giver will be impoverished. Amen."

"Thank you sir. Ladies and Gentlemen of the Senate, I know you've noticed and you may have had a chance to look at, I have placed today on your desk a newspaper article that you would recognize I'm sure. It's this one that has to do with Bob Timberlake. Bob Timberlake is from Lexington, North Carolina, my hometown. Bob was recently selected by the North Carolina Press Association as the North Carolinian of the year. And I'm like you, exactly like you, I want to show my pride and my appreciation for this man. I have known Bob, I guess since his fifteenth year on this earth when he was dating his wife Kay, who is now his wife Kay. He was a fine young man then and he's a fine middle aged man now. In Lexington we're grateful for Bob Timberlake, not just because he is a successful entrepreneur but because of the human being that he is. I find him to be exactly as he was as a fifteen year old as far as being caring, considerate and kind to those around him. And I'm grateful for him. You may recognize him as a talented artist who produces artwork that brings joy to all of us. Some of you may recognize him as a furniture designer who not only brings quality into your homes but brings jobs to our community by the people that are employed by making these products. Some of you may even recognize him as a designer. I recently had an opportunity to visit a textile plant. They were producing sheets, pillowcases, and comforters that were his design. There was beauty and there was quality. I want to say to you that this man, by receiving this honor joins a select company, the Reverend Billy Graham, Libby Dole, Meadowlark Lemon and also this man has had a chance to stand before many. He has been a visitor in the White House for the last four or five Presidents. He stood before the Prince. But one thing we all appreciate and love about him is that he still prefers calling North Carolina home and especially Lexington. I am grateful to him for his contribution to our community, to our State. You may recognize also his efforts on behalf of Ironeyes Cody and Keep America Beautiful. You may also recognize him for his contribution to the Cancer Program at Duke. I recognize him for his many contributions in our community, but most of all for his kindness and his respect for the people in our community. And I ask you at this time if you would also recognize the qualities that he contributes to this State and our Nation, and I thank you for your reading and for your listening to me. Thank you."

"Dear God, the two teams eyed the clear cup sitting on the table in front of them. It contained water to the mid-point of the cup.

"Then the debate began! Was it half full or half empty? After an hour of spirited, articulate argument no team had a clear advantage.

"From the audience, an old woman walked up to the table. Incredulously, the debate captains looked at her and asked, 'Well what do you have to offer? Is it half full or half empty?'

"The old woman quietly replied, 'It depends on whether you're drinking or pouring.' Then she sat down. It's an old story worth retelling. Though she hadn't solved the debate, she had offered something more important -perspective.

"Around the table of debate this week in our lives, give us knowledge, conviction and mutual perspective. Then our cup will surely overflow with Your grace. Amen."

Sometimes when we are trying to do what is right we get more criticism than when we aren't so careful! It doesn't help either to see people who use questionable ethics prevail! Help us to follow Paul's admonition anyway, for in due time we expect to reap what we have sown.

"Oh God, we have learned of the changing path and powerful advance of Hurricane Bonnie toward our coast. We pray resolutely that You hear and answer our prayer. Protect all people, Your children, from harm. Amen."

The Senate meets pursuant to adjournment and is called to order by the Honorable Dennis A. Wicker, Lieutenant Governor.

Prayer is offered by the Honorable Howard N. Lee, Senator from Orange County, as follows:

"Lord of strength and compassion, the shadow that is cast by a mountain often appears larger than the mountain itself. Many times we see the shadow and become discouraged, thinking the ability to climb the mountain is beyond our capabilities. In short, its shakes us up. But the funny thing about shadows is that when the angle of the light changes, so does the size of the shadow.

"Lord, as we tackle the work that lies ahead, help us to look to You for guidance and perspective. The light You shed doesn't cast shadows. Instead the light You shed brings into sharp focus the hazards along the road that leads to the mountain top. Help us keep our eyes on Your light which becomes a beacon to guide us to the top of the real mountain of life. Amen."

With unanimous consent, the President grants leaves of absence for today to Senator Webster and Senator Weinstein.

Prayer is offered by the Reverend Mike Morris, Senate Chaplain, as follows:

"Dear Lord, so often the road is long and uphill and we become tired. Opposition seems to face us at every turn.

"Grant special grace today to the Senators, Lieutenant Governor, and Staff, still strong in their convictions but wearied physically and mentally by the demands of the Session.

"Give them daily strength to keep on, for tomorrow may bring the answers which will allow them to achieve their goals.

"Help them to never give up doing what is right for others. In Your Name we pray, Amen."

With unanimous consent, the President grants leaves of absence for today to Senator Forrester, Senator Garwood, Senator Moore, and Senator Shaw of Guilford.

The Senate recesses at 2:03 P.M. to reconvene at 2:08 P.M.

the State as provided in this act, in an aggregate principal amount not exceeding eight hundred million dollars ($800,000,000) for the purpose of providing funds, with any other available funds, for the purposes authorized in this act.

(b) Natural Gas Bonds. Subject to a favorable vote of a majority of the qualified voters of the State who vote on the question of issuing Natural Gas Bonds in the election called and held as provided in this act, the State Treasurer is hereby authorized, by and with the consent of the Council of State, to issue and sell, at one time or from time to time, general obligation bonds of the State to be designated "State of North Carolina Natural Gas Bonds", with any additional designations as may be determined to indicate the issuance of bonds from time to time, or notes of the State as provided in this act, in an aggregate principal amount not exceeding two hundred million dollars ($200,000,000) for the purpose of providing funds, with any other available funds, for the purposes authorized in this act.

Section 5.1. Use of Clean Water Bond and note proceeds.

(a) Special Emphases. The funds to be derived from the sale of the Clean Water Bonds authorized by this act are sufficient to meet no more than a fraction of the needs that now exist and will arise in the immediate future. For this reason, public necessity and the criteria indicated in the appropriate subsection for each allocation of Clean Water Bond proceeds shall be the primary consideration in granting and loaning funds. In addition to public necessity and the applicable criteria, special emphasis shall also be placed on the following:

(1) The creation of efficient systems of water supply and distribution and wastewater collection and disposal. Such efficiencies may result from the merger or consolidation of smaller systems into regional water and sewer systems where warranted and deemed to be in the best interest of the communities and regions. Such efficiencies may also be obtained through projects proposing water reuse and conservation.

(2) The willingness and ability of local government units to meet their responsibilities through sound fiscal policies, creative planning, and efficient operation and management.

(3) The development of a capital improvement plan.

(4) A reduction in the overall volume of effluent discharged to the State's waters by using alternative methods of wastewater treatment when feasible.

(5) The use of bond proceeds in a manner consistent with the water supply watershed protection requirements of G.S. 143-214.5.

(6) The use of bond proceeds to address current critical infrastructure needs.

Special emphasis is achieved by assigning a significant number of points for the items listed in this subsection in any point system developed for awarding clean water grants or loans from the Clean Water Bond proceeds.

The special emphases in this subsection do not apply to the allocation of Clean Water Bond proceeds for State matching funds or economic development under subsections (d) and (e) of this section.

(b) Prohibited Use of Clean Water Bonds Proceeds. Proceeds from the sale of the Clean Water Bonds shall not be used to construct new water or sewer lines to provide water or sewer connections in any area that has been designated as WS-I or the critical area of any area that has been designated as WS-II, WS-III, or WS-IV by the Environmental Management Commission pursuant to G.S. 143-214.5.

The Secretary of Environment and Natural Resources may grant a waiver to allow construction of new water or sewer lines and to provide water or sewer connections if the Secretary finds that granting the waiver is necessary to protect public health or water quality. A waiver granted by the Secretary under this subsection shall include a requirement that the water or sewer line shall be designed and sized to address only the public health or water quality concerns on which the waiver is based and shall not allow for additional connections beyond those necessary to protect public health and water quality. This subsection does not prohibit the repair or replacement of existing water or sewer lines.

In addition, the proceeds shall not be used for the repair, installation, or replacement of a low-pressure pipe wastewater system with another low-pressure pipe wastewater system.

The prohibitions on the use of Clean Water Bond proceeds in this subsection do not apply to the allocation of Clean Water Bond proceeds for State matching funds under subsection (d) of this section.

(c) High-Unit Cost Grants. The proceeds of three hundred thirty million dollars ($330,000,000) of Clean Water Bonds shall be used by the Department of Environment and Natural Resources to provide grants to local government units for the same purposes and in accordance with the provisions of the Clean Water Revolving Loan and Grant Act for funds in the High-Unit Cost Wastewater Account and the High-Unit Cost Water Supply Account. In addition to the provisions of the Clean Water Revolving Loan and Grant Act and the special emphases in subsection (a) of this section, significant consideration and weight in awarding a clean water grant to an eligible local government unit for expanding infrastructure to support significant additional development shall be given if the applicant, or the local government unit or units having jurisdiction over the service area of the applicant, has adopted a comprehensive land-use plan that meets the requirements of G.S. 159G-10. Any point scheme developed for awarding clean water grants or loans from the clean water bond proceeds for expanding infrastructure to support significant additional development shall assign a significant number of points for having a comprehensive land-use plan that is approved or adopted by the applicant or the local government unit or units having jurisdiction over the service area of the applicant. However, additional points awarded for having a comprehensive land-use plan shall be considered only in the evaluation of competing applications for expanding infrastructure to support additional development and shall not disadvantage other applicants for clean water grants to meet critical infrastructure needs.

The grants shall be made for the purpose of paying the cost of water supply systems, wastewater collection systems, and wastewater treatment works, water conservation projects, water reuse projects, and school water or wastewater projects. The proceeds shall be allocated as follows:

(1) High-Unit Cost Wastewater Account:

a. Reserved for grants to local government units whose bond rating is less than 75 or who have no bond rating $85,000,000

b. Reserved for grants to local government units whose bond rating is 75 or greater ..... $80,000,000.

(2) High-Unit Cost Water Supply Account:

a. Reserved for grants to local government units whose bond rating is less than 75 or who have no bond rating $85,000,000

b. Reserved for grants to local government units whose bond rating is 75 or greater ..... $80,000,000.

The proceeds shall be transferred to the Clean Water Revolving Loan and Grant Fund to make grants to the appropriate local government unit qualifying for a grant from the Clean Water Revolving Loan and Grant Fund in accordance with the provisions of this act and the Clean Water Revolving Loan and Grant Act.

A county may apply for a grant on behalf of a rural school located in the county for a school water or wastewater project.

(d) State Matching Funds. The proceeds of thirty-five million dollars ($35,000,000) of Clean Water Bonds shall be used by the Department of Environment and Natural Resources to provide State funds necessary for the 1999-2000, 2000-2001, 2001-2002, 2002-2003, and 2003-2004 fiscal years to match the federal wastewater or water supply assistance funds deposited in the Water Pollution Control Revolving Fund or another fund that is used to pay the cost of water supply systems, wastewater collection systems, or wastewater treatment works and is eligible to receive federal matching funds, unless the General Assembly has provided the required match through other sources, in which event this allocation shall cease to exist to the extent of the availability of the other sources. The Department of Environment and Natural Resources shall certify to the State Treasurer the amount of funds required for the State match for each of the fiscal years ending June 30, 2000, June 30, 2001, June 30, 2002, June 30, 2003, and June 30, 2004, and the extent to which the General Assembly has provided other funds for this purpose. Upon certification each year of the amount of funds required for the State match for that fiscal year, the State Treasurer may issue from the thirty-five million dollars ($35,000,000) the amount certified up to thirty-five million dollars ($35,000,000). Upon certification for the State match required for the fiscal year ending June 30, 2004, the State Treasurer may issue the remaining balance of the thirty-five million dollars ($35,000,000) of the Clean Water Bonds authorized by this subsection for the purpose of funding the State match for that fiscal year and for any other purposes authorized by this subsection or subsection (c) of this section. The proceeds of the bonds necessary for the State match for each fiscal year shall be deposited in the Water Pollution Control Revolving Fund or another appropriate fund or account determined by the State Treasurer.

(e) Economic Development. The proceeds of twenty million dollars ($20,000,000) of Clean Water Bonds shall be used for the purpose of making grants to local government units to pay the cost of clean water projects in connection with the location of industry to, and expansion of industry in, the State. These grants shall be awarded and administered by the Department of Commerce. These funds shall be applied to pay the costs of grants awarded in the same manner as funds in the Industrial Development Fund created in G.S. 143B-437.01(a), for use in accordance with G.S. 143B-437.01(a), subject to the further limitations on the provisions of G.S. 143B-437.01(a) set forth below, and shall be applied to pay the costs of grants awarded in the same manner as funds in the Utility Account of the Industrial Development Fund created in G.S. 143B-437.01(b1), for use in accordance with G.S. 143B-437.01(b1), subject to the further limitations on the provisions of G.S.

143B-437.01(b1) set forth below. In applying the provisions of G.S. 143B-437.01(a) or G.S. 143B-437.01(b1), as the case may be, the following exceptions shall apply:

(1) The funds shall be used only for grants to local governments, not for loans.

(2) Grants shall be awarded only to projects the Secretary of Commerce finds will have a favorable impact on the clean water objectives of the State.

(3) The only purposes for which grants may be made are construction of or improvements to new or existing water or sewer distribution lines or equipment, construction of or improvements to new or existing wastewater treatment works, or improvements that will expand the capacity of existing wastewater treatment works or water supply systems.

(4) The projects may be located only in counties that are economically distressed as defined in G.S. 143B-437.01 or have a population of less than 50,000.

(5) Grants may be made only with respect to the following industries as defined in G.S. 105-129.2, notwithstanding any expiration of that statute: manufacturing and warehousing and wholesale trade.

(6) The provisions of G.S. 143B-437.01(a) or G.S. 143B-437.01(b1), as the case may be, that limit the expenditure of funds to costs of utility lines or facilities located on the site of the new or proposed industrial building or that are directly related to the operation of the specific industrial activity at the building, shall not apply if the utility lines or facilities being provided will further the clean water objectives of the State.

The General Assembly finds that the purpose of providing water and sewer distribution lines and wastewater treatment works in counties eligible for grants under this subsection is to provide clean water in North Carolina in several different ways. First, these projects will reduce industrial reliance on wells, septic tanks, and other similar facilities. Second, when a distribution line is extended to an industrial facility in an area not otherwise served by water and sewer infrastructure, residents, other businesses, and local governments can connect into the distribution line, bringing clean water, wastewater treatment, or both to the unserved area. Also, the installation and expansion of water supply and wastewater treatment facilities to provide water supply and wastewater treatment in connection with new or expanding industry will result in additional water supply and treatment facilities available to the residents, other businesses, and local governments in the area where the installation or expansion occurs.

The proceeds of the Clean Water Bonds, issued for the purpose described in this subsection, shall be held in the Clean Water Bonds Fund until needed for expenditure by the grantee for the payment of the cost for the purpose for which the grant is made. The Department of Commerce shall maintain records that document the timing and purpose for which each expenditure of proceeds of a grant is made.

(f) Supplemental and Capacity Grants. The proceeds of sixty million dollars ($60,000,000) of Clean Water Bonds shall be used to provide supplemental and capacity grants to eligible local government units to match federal, State, and other grant or loan program funds to plan or improve needed water and sewer projects. Such grants shall be awarded and administered by the Rural Economic Development Center. Those proceeds shall be allocated as follows:

(1) Supplemental Grants $48,000,000
(2) Capacity Grants ..... $12,000,000.

The Rural Economic Development Center shall certify to the State Treasurer the amount of funds required, not to exceed eight million dollars ($8,000,000) for supplemental grants and not to exceed two million dollars ($2,000,000) for capacity grants, for each of the fiscal years ending June 30, 2000, June 30, 2001, June 30, 2002, June 30, 2003, June 30, 2004, and June 30, 2005. Upon certification each year of the amount of funds required for that fiscal year, the State Treasurer may issue the amount certified up to ten million dollars ($10,000,000). Upon certification for the fiscal year ending June 30, 2005, the State Treasurer may issue the remaining balance of the sixty million dollars ($60,000,000) of the Clean Water Bonds authorized by this subsection for any other purposes authorized by this subsection.

Grants made from the proceeds of this sixty million dollars ($60,000,000) for supplemental grants shall be based on the following criteria:

(1) The applicant shall be a rural county, a local government unit located in a rural county, or a county that is applying for a grant on behalf of a rural school located in that county as provided in subdivision (5) of this subsection.

(2) A water supply system, wastewater collection system, or wastewater treatment work shall receive funding priority if the system is located within an economically distressed county as defined in G.S. 143B-437.01.

(3) A water supply system, wastewater collection system, or wastewater treatment works that is proposed in a rural county that is not also an economically distressed county, as defined in G.S. 143B-437.01, must meet at least one of the following criteria: (i) be located in that part of the county where the poverty rate is at least one hundred fifty percent (150%) of the State poverty rate, (ii) be located in that part of the county where the unemployment rate is at least double the State unemployment rate for the most recent reporting period available, or (iii) be located in that part of the county that experiences an actual or imminent loss of jobs in a number that equals or exceeds five percent (5%) of the total number of jobs in that part of the county. Any grant awarded under this subdivision (3) shall be matched by the applicant on a dollar-for-dollar basis in the amount of the grant awarded.

(4) The grant funds shall supplement other funding and shall not represent the total costs of the wastewater collection systems, wastewater treatment works, water conservation projects, water reuse projects, or water supply systems financed.

(5) A county may apply for a grant on behalf of a rural school located in the county for a school water or wastewater project.

The Rural Economic Development Center shall award grants to units of local government for the purposes authorized by this subsection in accordance with the criteria set forth in this subsection. The proceeds of the Clean Water Bonds issued for the purpose described in this subsection shall be held in the Clean Water Bonds Fund until needed for expenditure by the grantee for the payment of costs for the purposes for which the grant is made. The Rural Economic Development Center shall maintain records that document the timing and purpose for which each expenditure of proceeds of a grant is made and shall furnish such records to the Secretary of Commerce at the time a request for a payment to or on behalf of a grantee is to be made.

At the end of each fiscal year, the Secretary of Commerce shall review the grants awarded by the Rural Economic Development Center with proceeds from the Clean Water Bonds to verify that the grants awarded comply with the requirements of this act. The Secretary of Commerce shall provide his or her findings regarding compliance in writing to the State Treasurer. At the time the Rural Economic Development Center provides information to the Secretary of Commerce as to the grants awarded during the preceding fiscal year, the Rural Economic Development Center shall also provide the Secretary of Commerce with a copy of all records of the Rural Economic Development Center from the preceding fiscal year (to the extent not previously provided to the Secretary) that document the timing and purposes of the expenditures by the grantee units of local government of the proceeds of the grants funded from proceeds of the Clean Water Bonds.

(g) Unsewered Community Grants. The proceeds of fifty- five million dollars ($55,000,000) of Clean Water Bonds shall be used to provide grants to eligible local government units to assist with wastewater treatment works and wastewater collection systems. Such grants shall be awarded and administered by the Rural Economic Development Center.

The proceeds of this fifty-five million dollars ($55,000,000) of Clean Water Bonds shall be awarded on the following criteria:

(1) The applicant shall be a local government unit.

(2) The applicant's population shall not exceed 5,000 persons using the most recent annual population estimates certified by the State Planning Officer.

(3) The applicant shall be an unsewered community.

(4) The applicant's median household income shall not exceed ninety percent (90%) of the national median household income using the most recently updated income figures made available from the Bureau of the Census.

(5) The applicant has agreed by official resolution to adopt and place into effect on or before completion of the project a schedule of fees and charges for the proper operation, maintenance, and administration of the project. The schedule of fees and charges shall reflect at least the average annual water and wastewater cost per household calculated at one and one-half percent (1 1/2%) of the median household income of the applicant.

(6) The applicant must submit as part of the application packet a preliminary engineering report, including an analysis of possible wastewater service alternatives, and an environmental assessment.

An applicant who satisfies the criteria under this subsection (g) may be eligible for up to ninety percent (90%) of the total project cost.

The Rural Economic Development Center shall award grants to units of local government for the purposes authorized by this subsection in accordance with the criteria set forth in this subsection. The proceeds of the Clean Water Bonds issued for the purpose described in this subsection shall be held in the Clean Water Bonds Fund until needed for expenditure by the grantee for the payment of costs for the purposes for which the grant is made. The Rural Economic Development Center shall maintain records that document the timing and purpose for which each expenditure of proceeds of a grant is made and shall furnish such records to the Secretary of Commerce at the time a request for payment to or on behalf of a grantee is to be made.

At the end of each fiscal year the Secretary of Commerce shall review the grants awarded by the Rural Economic Development Center with proceeds from the Clean Water Bonds to verify that the grants awarded comply with the requirements of this act. The Secretary of Commerce shall provide his or her findings regarding compliance in writing to the State Treasurer.

At the time that the Rural Economic Development Center provides information to the Secretary of Commerce as to the grants awarded during the preceding fiscal year, the Rural Economic Development Center shall also provide the Secretary of Commerce with a copy of all records of the Rural Economic Development Center from the preceding fiscal year (to the extent not previously provided to the Secretary) that document the timing and purposes of the expenditures by the grantee units of local government of the proceeds of the grants funded from the proceeds of the Clean Water Bonds.

(h) Loans to Local Governments. The proceeds of three hundred million dollars ($300,000,000) of Clean Water Bonds shall be used for the purpose of making loans to local government units to pay the cost of water supply systems, water conservation projects, water reuse projects, wastewater collection systems, and wastewater treatment works. The proceeds shall be allocated as follows:

(1) Wastewater collection systems and wastewater treatment works:

a. Reserved for loans to local government units whose bond rating is less than 75 or who have no bond rating..... $10,000,000

b. Reserved for loans to local government units whose bond rating is 75 or more..... $140,000,000.

(2) Water supply and distribution systems and water conservation projects:

a. Reserved for loans to local government units whose bond rating is less than 75 or who have no bond rating..... $10,000,000

b. Reserved for loans to local government units whose bond rating is 75 or more..... $140,000,000.

The proceeds shall be used to make loans directly to local government units qualifying for a loan from the Clean Water Revolving Loan and Grant Fund or loaned in such other manner as shall effectuate the purposes of this act. To qualify for a loan for the purpose of paying the cost of water supply systems, a local government unit must have a water supply facility plan approved by the Department of Environment and Natural Resources. A water supply facility plan submitted by a local government unit to the Department under G.S. 143-355(l) will be sufficient to meet this requirement. To qualify for a loan for the purpose of paying the cost of wastewater collection systems or wastewater treatment works, a local government unit must have a wastewater facility plan approved by the Department of Environment and Natural Resources. A wastewater facility plan must project future wastewater treatment needs, must present a long-range plan to meet those needs, and must include plans for system operations and maintenance of the facilities being built with the bond proceeds. In addition to the requirements listed above and the special emphases in subsection (a) of this section, significant consideration and weight in awarding a clean water grant to an eligible local government unit for expanding infrastructure to support significant additional development shall be given if the applicant, or the local government unit or units having jurisdiction over the service area of the applicant, has adopted a comprehensive land-use plan that meets the requirements of G.S. 159G-10. Any point scheme developed for awarding clean water grants or loans from the clean water bond proceeds for expanding infrastructure to support significant additional development shall assign a significant number of points for having a comprehensive land-use plan that is approved or adopted by the applicant or the local government unit or units having jurisdiction over the service area of the applicant. However, additional points awarded for having a comprehensive land-use plan shall be considered only in the evaluation of competing applications for expanding infrastructure to support significant additional development and shall not disadvantage other applicants for clean water loans to meet critical infrastructure needs.

A county may apply for a loan on behalf of a rural school located in the county for a school water or wastewater project.

The Department of Environment and Natural Resources shall set the priorities and determine the eligibility of local government units for these loans in accordance with Section 10 of this act. The form of the loans and the details thereof including, without limitation, the maturity, interest rate, and amortization schedule shall be determined, from time to time, by the State Treasurer. In making these determinations, the State Treasurer shall consider the purpose of the loans, the ability of local government units to repay the loans, and the security for the loans. The interest rates on these loans shall reflect the self-supporting nature of the loan program and shall be sufficient to cover substantially all payments of debt service on the three hundred million dollars ($300,000,000) of Clean Water Bonds and the issuance costs and administrative expenses associated with the issuance of these bonds and the making of these loans, subject to any applicable requirements of the federal tax law.

Repayments of the loans shall be credited to the General Fund and may be used to pay, directly or indirectly, debt service on the bonds and notes issued. Repayments may be initially placed into such fund or account as may be determined by the State Treasurer for the purpose of determining compliance with applicable requirements of the federal tax law and shall be expended and disbursed therefrom under the direction and supervision of the Director of the Budget.

(i) Redistribution of the Allocation. The General Assembly may at this session or at any subsequent session increase or decrease the allocations of the proceeds of the Clean Water Bonds set forth in subsections (c), (d), (e), (f), (g), and (h) of this section, so long as the aggregate amount of the allocations does not exceed eight hundred million dollars ($800,000,000).

(j) Contracts With Private Entities. To the extent otherwise authorized by law, and to the extent the use otherwise accomplishes the clean water objectives of the State, this act does not prohibit a local government unit from using the proceeds of Clean Water Bonds for projects that accomplish the clean water objectives of this State through contracts or other arrangements with private entities.

Section 5.2. Use of Natural Gas Bonds and note proceeds. The proceeds of Natural Gas Bonds and notes shall be used for the purpose of providing grants, loans, or other financing to natural gas local distribution companies, persons seeking natural gas distribution franchises, State or local government agencies, or other entities for the costs of constructing natural gas facilities, including pipelines, compressors, interests in real property, and related equipment for the delivery of natural gas in order to facilitate the expansion of natural gas facilities to unserved areas of the State in accordance with the findings of the General Assembly as described in Section 16 of this act.

Section 6. Allocation of proceeds.

(a) Clean Water Bonds. The proceeds of Clean Water Bonds and notes, including premium thereon, if any, except the proceeds of bonds the issuance of which has been anticipated by bond anticipation notes or the proceeds of refunding bonds or notes, shall be placed by the State Treasurer in a special fund to be designated "Clean Water Bonds Fund", which may include such appropriate special accounts therein as may be determined by the State Treasurer and shall be disbursed as provided in this act. Moneys in the Clean Water Bonds Fund shall be allocated and expended as provided in this act.

Any additional moneys which may be received by means of a grant or grants from the United States of America or any agency or department thereof or from any other source for deposit to the Clean Water Bonds Fund may be placed in the Clean Water Bonds Fund or in a separate account or fund and shall be disbursed, to the extent permitted by the terms of the grant or grants, without regard to any limitations imposed by this act.

Moneys in the Clean Water Bonds Fund or any separate clean water fund or account established under this act may be invested from time to time by the State Treasurer in the same manner permitted for investment of moneys belonging to the State or held in the State treasury, except with respect to grant money to the extent otherwise directed by the terms of the grant. Investment earnings, except investment earnings with respect to grant moneys to the extent otherwise directed or restricted by the terms of the grant, may be (i) credited to the Clean Water Bonds Fund or any separate clean water fund or account established under this act, (ii) used to pay debt service on the bonds authorized by this act, (iii) used to satisfy compliance with applicable requirements of the federal tax law, or (iv) transferred to the General Fund of the State.

The proceeds of bonds and notes may be used with any other moneys made available by the General Assembly for making grants and loans authorized by this act, including the proceeds of any other State bond issues, whether heretofore made available or which may be made available at the session of the General Assembly at which this act is ratified or any subsequent sessions. The proceeds of bonds and notes shall be expended and disbursed under the direction and supervision of the Director of the Budget. The funds provided by this act shall be disbursed for the purposes provided in this act upon warrants drawn on the State Treasurer by the State Controller, which warrants shall not be drawn until requisition has been approved by the Director of the Budget and which requisition shall be approved only after full compliance with the Executive Budget Act, Article 1 of Chapter 143 of the General Statutes.

(b) Natural Gas Bonds. The proceeds of Natural Gas Bonds and notes, including premium thereon, if any, except the proceeds of bonds the issuance of which has been anticipated by bond anticipation notes or the proceeds of refunding bonds or notes, shall be placed by the State Treasurer in a special fund to be designated "Natural Gas Bonds Fund", which may include such appropriate special accounts therein as may be determined by the State Treasurer, and shall be disbursed as provided in this act. Moneys in the Natural Gas Bonds Fund shall be allocated and expended as provided in this act. The proceeds may be used in accordance with G.S. 62-159 or may be distributed in accordance with the provisions of legislation enacted by the General Assembly in 1998 or later providing for the allocation of the bond proceeds for the purposes provided in this act.

Any additional moneys which may be received by means of a grant or grants from the United States of America or any agency or department thereof or from any other source to aid in financing the cost of any natural gas grants authorized by this act may be placed by the State Treasurer in the Natural Gas Bonds Fund or in a separate account or fund and shall be disbursed, to the extent permitted by the terms of the grant or grants, without regard to any limitations imposed by this act.

Moneys in the Natural Gas Bonds Fund or any separate natural gas fund or account established under this act may be invested from time to time by the State Treasurer in the same manner permitted for investment of moneys belonging to the State or held in the State treasury, except with respect to grant money to the extent otherwise directed by the terms of the grant. Investment earnings, except investment earnings with respect to grant money to the extent otherwise directed or restricted by the terms of the grant, may be (i) credited to the Natural Gas Bonds Fund or any separate natural gas fund or account established under this act; (ii) used to pay debt service on the Natural Gas Bonds authorized by this act; (iii) used to satisfy compliance with applicable requirements of the federal tax law; or (iv) transferred to the General Fund of the State.

The proceeds of Natural Gas Bonds and notes may be used with any other moneys made available by the General Assembly for providing grants, loans, or other financing in accordance with this act, including the proceeds of any other State bond issues, whether heretofore made available or which may be made available at the session of the General Assembly at which this act is ratified or any subsequent sessions. The proceeds of Natural Gas Bonds and notes shall be expended and disbursed under the direction and supervision of the Director of the Budget. The funds provided by this act for construction of natural gas facilities shall be disbursed for the purposes provided in this act upon warrants drawn on the State Treasurer by the State Controller, which warrants shall not be drawn until requisition has been approved by the Director of the Budget and which requisition shall be approved only after full compliance with the Executive Budget Act, Article 1 of Chapter 143 of the General Statutes.

The North Carolina Utilities Commission shall provide quarterly reports to the Joint Legislative Commission on Governmental Operations, the Chairs of the Senate and House of Representatives Appropriations Committees, and the Fiscal Research Division on the expenditure of moneys from the Natural Gas Bonds Fund.

(c) Costs. Allocations to the costs of a capital improvement or undertaking in each case may include allocations to pay the costs set forth in Section 3(7)c., d., e., f., and g. of this act in connection with the issuance of bonds for that capital improvement or undertaking.

Section 7. Election. The questions of the issuance of the bonds authorized by this act shall be submitted to the qualified voters of the State at an election to be held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday of November 1998. Any other primary, election, or referendum validly called or scheduled by law at the time the election on the bond question provided for in this section is held may be held as called or scheduled. Notice of the election shall be given in the manner and at the times required by G.S. 163-33(8). The election and the registration of voters therefor shall be held under and in accordance with the general laws of the State. Absentee ballots shall be authorized in the election.

The State Board of Elections shall reimburse the counties of the State for all necessary expenses incurred in holding the election that are in addition to those that would have otherwise been incurred, the same to be paid out of the Contingency and Emergency Fund or other funds available to the State Board of Elections.

Ballots, voting systems authorized by Article 14 of Chapter 163 of the General Statutes, or both may be used in accordance with rules prescribed by the State Board of Elections. The bond questions to be used in the ballots or voting systems shall be in substantially the following form:

"[ ] FOR [ ] AGAINST

the issuance of eight hundred million dollars ($800,000,000) State of North Carolina Clean Water Bonds constituting general obligation bonds of the State secured by a pledge of the faith and credit and taxing power of the State for the purpose of providing funds, with any other available funds, to make loans and grants to local government units to pay all or a portion of the cost of clean water projects."

"[ ] FOR [ ] AGAINST

the issuance of two hundred million dollars ($200,000,000) State of North Carolina Natural Gas Bonds constituting general obligation bonds of the State secured by a pledge of the faith and credit and taxing power of the State for the purpose of providing funds, with any other available funds, to provide grants, loans, or other financing to public or private entities for construction of natural gas facilities in order to facilitate the expansion of natural gas facilities to unserved portions of the State."

If a majority of those voting on a bond question in the election vote in favor of the issuance of the bonds described in the question, those bonds may be issued as provided in this act. If a majority of those voting on a bond question in the election vote against the issuance of the bonds described in the question, those bonds shall not be issued.

The results of the election shall be canvassed and declared as provided by law for elections for State officers; the results of the election shall be certified by the State Board of Elections to the Secretary of State, in the manner and at the time provided by the general election laws of the State.

Section 8. Issuance of bonds and notes.

(a) Terms and Conditions. Bonds or notes may bear such date or dates, may be serial or term bonds or notes, or any combination thereof, may mature in such amounts and at such time or times, not exceeding 40 years from their date or dates, may be payable at such place or places, either within or without the United States of America, in such coin or currency of the United States of America as at the time of payment is legal tender for payment of public and private debts, may bear interest at such rate or rates, which may vary from time to time, and may be made redeemable before maturity, at the option of the State or otherwise as may be provided by the State, at such price or prices, including a price less than the face amount of the bonds or notes, and under such terms and conditions, all as may be determined by the State Treasurer, by and with the consent of the Council of State.

(b) Signatures; Form and Denomination; Registration. Bonds or notes may be issued as certificated or uncertificated obligations. If issued as certificated obligations, bonds or notes shall be signed on behalf of the State by the Governor or shall bear his or her facsimile signature, shall be signed by the State Treasurer or shall bear his or her facsimile signature, and shall bear the Great Seal of the State or a facsimile thereof shall be impressed or imprinted thereon. If bonds or notes bear the facsimile signatures of the Governor and the State Treasurer, the bonds or notes shall also bear a manual signature which may be that of a bond registrar, trustee, paying agent, or designated assistant of the State Treasurer. Should any officer whose signature or facsimile signature appears on bonds or notes cease to be such officer before the delivery of the bonds or notes, the signature or facsimile signature shall nevertheless have the same validity for all purposes as if the officer had remained in office until delivery, and bonds or notes may bear the facsimile signatures of persons who at the actual time of the execution of the bonds or notes shall be the proper officers to sign any bond or note although at the date of the bond or note such persons may not have been such officers. The form and denomination of bonds or notes, including the provisions with respect to registration of the bonds or notes and any system for their registration, shall be as the State Treasurer may determine in conformity with this act; provided, however, that nothing in this act shall prohibit the State Treasurer from proceeding, with respect to the issuance and form of the bonds or notes, under the provisions of Chapter 159E of the General Statutes, the Registered Public Obligations Act, as well as under this act.

(c) Manner of Sale; Expenses. Subject to determination by the Council of State as to the manner in which bonds or notes shall be offered for sale, whether at public or private sale, whether within or without the United States of America, and whether by publishing notices in certain newspapers and financial journals, mailing notices, inviting bids by correspondence, negotiating contracts of purchase or otherwise, the State Treasurer is authorized to sell bonds or notes at one time or from time to time at such rate or rates of interest, which may vary from time to time, and at such price or prices, including a price less than the face amount of the bonds or the notes, as the State Treasurer may determine. All expenses incurred in preparation, sale, and issuance of bonds or notes shall be paid by the State Treasurer from the proceeds of bonds or notes or other available moneys.

(d) Notes; Repayment.

(1) By and with the consent of the Council of State, the State Treasurer is hereby authorized to borrow money and to execute and issue notes of the State for the same, but only in the following circumstances and under the following conditions:

a. For anticipating the sale of bonds to the issuance of which the Council of State shall have given consent, if the State Treasurer shall deem it advisable to postpone the issuance of the bonds;

b. For the payment of interest on or any installment of principal of any bonds then outstanding, if there shall not be sufficient funds in the State treasury with which to pay the interest or installment of principal as they respectively become due;

c. For the renewal of any loan evidenced by notes herein authorized;

d. For the purposes authorized in this act; and

e. For refunding bonds or notes as herein authorized.

(2) Funds derived from the sale of bonds or notes may be used in the payment of any bond anticipation notes issued under this act. Funds provided by the General Assembly for the payment of interest on or principal of bonds shall be used in paying the interest on or principal of any notes and any renewals thereof, the proceeds of which shall have been used in paying interest on or principal of the bonds.

(e) Refunding Bonds and Notes. By and with the consent of the Council of State, the State Treasurer is authorized to issue and sell refunding bonds and notes pursuant to the provisions of the State Refunding Bond Act for the purpose of refunding bonds or notes issued pursuant to this act. The refunding bonds and notes may be combined with any other issues of State bonds and notes similarly secured.

(f) Tax Exemption. Bonds and notes shall be exempt from all State, county, and municipal taxation or assessment, direct or indirect, general or special, whether imposed for the purpose of general revenue or otherwise, excluding inheritance and gift taxes, income taxes on the gain from the transfer of bonds and notes, and franchise taxes. The interest on bonds and notes shall not be subject to taxation as to income.

(g) Investment Eligibility. Bonds and notes are hereby made securities in which all public officers, agencies, and public bodies of the State and its political subdivisions, all insurance companies, trust companies, investment companies, banks, savings banks, savings and loan associations, credit unions, pension or retirement funds, other financial institutions engaged in business in the State, executors, administrators, trustees, and other fiduciaries may properly and legally invest funds, including capital in their control or belonging to them. Bonds and notes are hereby made securities which may properly and legally be deposited with and received by any officer or agency of the State or political subdivision of the State for any purpose for which the deposit of bonds, notes, or obligations of the State or any political subdivision is now or may hereafter be authorized by law.

(h) Faith and Credit. The faith and credit and taxing power of the State are hereby pledged for the payment of the principal of and the interest on bonds and notes. In addition to the State's right to amend any provision of this act to the extent it does not impair any contractual right of a bond owner, the State expressly reserves the right to amend any provision of this act with respect to the making and repayment of loans, the disposition of any repayments of loans, and any intercept provisions relating to the failure of a local government unit to repay a loan, the bonds not being secured in any respect by loans, any repayments thereof, or any intercept provisions with respect thereto.

Section 9. Variable interest rates. In fixing the details of bonds and notes, the State Treasurer may provide that any of the bonds or notes may:

(1) Be made payable from time to time on demand or tender for purchase by the owner thereof provided a credit facility supports the bonds or notes, unless the State Treasurer specifically determines that a credit facility is not required upon a finding and determination by the State Treasurer that the absence of a credit facility will not materially or adversely affect the financial position of the State and the marketing of the bonds or notes at a reasonable interest cost to the State;

(2) Be additionally supported by a credit facility;

(3) Be made subject to redemption or a mandatory tender for purchase prior to maturity;

(4) Bear interest at a rate or rates that may vary for such period or periods of time, all as may be provided in the proceedings providing for the issuance of the bonds or notes, including, without limitation, such variations as may be permitted pursuant to a par formula; and

(5) Be made the subject of a remarketing agreement whereby an attempt is made to remarket bonds or notes to new purchasers prior to their presentment for payment to the provider of the credit facility or to the State.

If the aggregate principal amount repayable by the State under a credit facility is in excess of the aggregate principal amount of bonds or notes secured by the credit facility, whether as a result of the inclusion in the credit facility of a provision for the payment of interest for a limited period of time or the payment of a redemption premium or for any other reason, then the amount of authorized but unissued bonds or notes during the term of such credit facility shall not be less than the amount of such excess, unless the payment of such excess is otherwise provided for by agreement of the State executed by the State Treasurer.

Section 10. Special provisions governing clean water loans.

(a) Scope. The provisions of this section shall apply to loans being made from the proceeds of bonds authorized by this act for clean water projects, other than from funds deposited in the Clean Water Revolving Loan and Grant Fund.

(b) Clean Water Bonds Loan Account. There is established in the Department of State Treasurer a special account to be known as the Clean Water Bonds Loan Account, which may include any special or segregated accounts the State Treasurer considers appropriate. There shall be deposited in the Clean Water Bonds Loan Account proceeds of the Clean Water Bonds and notes to be used to make loans, other than loans to be made through the Clean Water Revolving Loan and Grant Fund, to local government units for clean water projects as provided in this act.

Except as otherwise permitted by Section 6 of this act with respect to the use of investment earnings, all moneys accruing to the credit of the Clean Water Bonds Loan Account other than funds set aside for administrative expenses, including expenses related to determining compliance with applicable requirements of the federal tax law and costs of issuance, shall be used to make loans for the purposes provided in this act. The State Treasurer shall be responsible for making and administering all loans pursuant to the provisions of this section.

(c) Application for Loans; Hearings.

(1) Eligibility/Initial Hearing:

a. Prior to filing an application for a loan, a local government unit shall hold a public hearing. A notice of the public hearing shall be published once at least 10 days before the date fixed for the hearing.

b. All applications for loans shall be filed with the Department of Environment and Natural Resources. The form of the application shall be prescribed by the Department and shall require any information necessary to determine the eligibility for a loan under the provisions of this section. All applications approved by the Department of Environment and Natural Resources shall be filed with the Local Government Commission. Each applicant shall furnish to the Department of Environment and Natural Resources and the Local Government Commission information in addition or supplemental to the information contained in its application, upon request.

c. A local government unit shall not be eligible for a loan unless it demonstrates to the satisfaction of the Department of Environment and Natural Resources and the Local Government Commission that:

1. The applicant is a local government unit;
2. The applicant has the financial capacity to pay the principal of and interest on its proposed loan as evidenced by the approval of the Local Government Commission;
3. The applicant has substantially complied or will substantially comply with all applicable laws, rules, regulations, and ordinances, whether federal, State, or local; and
4. The applicant has agreed by official resolution to adopt and place into effect a schedule of fees and charges or the application of other sources of revenue which will provide adequate funds for proper operation, maintenance, and administration of the project and repayment of all principal and interest on the loan.

(2) Assessment. The Department of Environment and Natural Resources may require any applicant to file with its application an assessment of the impact the project for which the funds are sought will have upon meeting the facility needs of the area within which the project is to be located.

(3) Hearing by the Department of Environment and Natural Resources or the Local Government Commission. A public hearing may be held by the Department of Environment and Natural Resources or the Local Government Commission at any time on any application. Public hearings may also be held by the Department of Environment and Natural Resources in its discretion upon written request from any citizen or taxpayer who is a resident of the county or counties in which the project is to be located or a resident of the local government unit that proposes to borrow moneys under this act, if it appears that the public interest will be served by the hearing. The written request shall set forth each objection to the proposed project or other reason for requesting a hearing on the application and shall contain the name and address of the persons submitting it. In deciding whether to grant a request for a hearing on an application, the Department of Environment and Natural Resources may consider the application, the written objections to the proposed project, and the facility needs and shall determine if the public interest will be served by a hearing. The determination by the Department of Environment and Natural Resources shall be conclusive, and all written requests for a hearing shall be retained as a permanent part of the records pertaining to the application.

(4) Petition for Vote. A petition, demanding that the question of whether to enter into a loan agreement with the State under this act be submitted to voters, may be filed with the clerk of the local government unit applying for the loan within 15 days after the public hearing required by this section. The petition's sufficiency shall be determined and a referendum, if any, shall be conducted according to the standards, procedures, and limitations set out in G.S. 159-60 through G.S. 159-62.

(d) Priorities.

(1) Determination. Determination of priorities to be assigned each eligible project shall be made semiannually by the Department of Environment and Natural Resources during each fiscal year. Every eligible project shall be considered by the Department of Environment and Natural Resources with every other project eligible during this same priority period.

(2) Priority Factors. All applications for loans under this act shall be assigned a priority by the Department of Environment and Natural Resources. The Department of Environment and Natural Resources shall establish other priority factors criteria by rule.

(3) Assignment of Priority. A written statement relative to each priority assigned shall be prepared by the Department of Environment and Natural Resources and shall be attached to the application. The priority assigned shall be conclusive.

(4) Failure to Qualify. If an application does not qualify for a loan as of the prior period in which the application was eligible for consideration by reason of the priority assigned, the application shall be considered during the next succeeding priority period upon request of the applicant. If the application again fails to qualify for a loan during the second priority period by reason of the priority assigned, the application shall receive no further consideration. An applicant may file a new application at any time and may amend any pending application to include additional data or information.

(5) Withdrawal of Commitment. Failure of an applicant within one year after the date of acceptance of the loan to arrange for necessary financing of the proposed project or award of the contract of the construction of the proposed project shall constitute sufficient cause for withdrawal of the commitment. Prior to withdrawal of a commitment, the Department of Environment and Natural Resources shall give due consideration to any extenuating circumstances presented by the applicant as reasons for failure to arrange necessary financing or to award a contract, and the commitment may be extended for an additional period of time if, in the judgment of the Department of Environment and Natural Resources, the extension is justified.

(e) Disbursement. To be eligible to receive the loans provided for in this section, a local government unit must arrange to borrow the amounts necessary pursuant to rules adopted by the Local Government Commission. No funds shall be disbursed until the Department of Environment and Natural Resources gives a certificate of eligibility to the effect that the applicant meets all eligibility criteria and that all procedural requirements of this act have been met. The maximum principal amount of a loan shall be one hundred percent (100%) of the cost of any eligible project.

(f) Intercept. The governing body of a local government unit shall by resolution authorize to be included in its loan agreement a provision authorizing the State Treasurer, upon failure of the local government unit to make a scheduled repayment of the loan, to withhold from the local government unit any State funds that would otherwise be distributed to the local government unit in an amount sufficient to pay all sums then due and payable to the State as a repayment of the loan. In such event, notwithstanding any other provision of law, the State Treasurer is authorized to withhold and apply such funds to the repayment of the loan, except that such funds shall not be withheld if (i) before the execution of the loan agreement, such funds have been legally pledged to secure special obligation bonds or other obligations of the local government unit, or (ii) after the execution of the loan agreement, such funds are legally pledged to secure special obligation bonds or other obligations of the local government unit as authorized in this subsection. After the execution of a loan agreement, all or any portion of the State funds specified in the loan agreement to be so withheld may be pledged to secure special obligation bonds or other obligations of the local government unit only with the prior written consent of the State Treasurer.

The State Treasurer shall notify the Secretary of Revenue and the State Controller of the amount to be withheld from the local government unit, and the Secretary of Revenue and the State Controller shall transfer to the State Treasurer the amount so requested to be applied by the State Treasurer to the repayment of the loan.

(g) Inspection. Inspection of a project for which a loan has been made under this act may be performed by qualified personnel of the Department of Environment and Natural Resources or may be performed by qualified engineers registered in this State approved by the Department of Environment and Natural Resources. No person shall be approved to perform inspections who is an officer employed by the local government unit to which the loan was made or who is an owner, officer, employer, or agent of a contractor or subcontractor engaged in the construction of the project for which the loan was made. For the purpose of payment of inspection fees, inspection services shall be included in the term "cost" as used in this act.

(h) Rules. The State Treasurer, the Local Government Commission, and the Department of Environment and Natural Resources may adopt, modify, and repeal rules necessary for the administration of their respective duties under this act. Uniform rules may be jointly adopted where feasible and desirable, and no rule, jointly adopted, may be modified or revoked except upon concurrence of all agencies involved.

(i) Federal Grants and Loans. In order to carry out the purposes of this act to secure the greatest possible benefits to the citizens of this State of the funds appropriated, the State Treasurer, the Local Government Commission, and the Department of Environment and Natural Resources shall adopt rules and criteria, not inconsistent with provisions of this act, as are necessary and appropriate to conform to regulations for federal grants and loans for any of the purposes set forth in this act.

(j) Report by Department of Environment and Natural Resources. The Department of Environment and Natural Resources shall prepare and file each year on or before July 31 with the Joint Legislative Commission on Governmental Operations and the Fiscal Research Division a report for the preceding fiscal year concerning the allocation and making of loans authorized by this act. The report shall set forth for the preceding fiscal year:

The report shall be signed by the Secretary of Environment and Natural Resources.

(k) Local Government Commission.

(1) Local government units may execute debt instruments payable to the State in order to obtain loans provided for in this act. Local government units shall pledge or agree to apply as security for such obligations:

a. Any available source of revenues of the local government unit, including revenues from benefitted facilities or systems, provided that (i) the local government unit has not otherwise pledged the revenues as security for, or contractually agreed to apply the revenues to, the payment of any other obligations of the local government unit, (ii) the use of the revenues is not otherwise restricted by law, or (iii) the revenues are not derived from the exercise of the local government unit's taxing power; or

b. Their faith and credit; or

c. Any combination of a. or b. above.

The faith and credit of a local government unit shall not be pledged or be deemed to have been pledged unless the requirements of Article 4 of Chapter 159 of the General Statutes have been met. The State Treasurer, with the assistance of the Local Government Commission, shall develop and adopt appropriate debt instruments for use under this act.

(2) Nothing contained in this act shall prohibit any local government unit from applying any funds of the local government unit not otherwise restricted as to use by law to the payment of any debt instrument payable to the State incurred pursuant to the provisions of this act.

(3) The Local Government Commission shall review and approve proposed loans to local government units under this act under the provisions of Articles 4 and 5 of Chapter 159 of the General Statutes. The Local Government Commission in considering the ability of a local government unit to repay a loan may regard as a source of revenue for repayment of a loan revenue sources that may not be available other than on an annual discretionary basis and that may not be subject to a pledge or agreement to apply. Loans under this act shall be outstanding debts for the purposes of Article 10 of Chapter 159 of the General Statutes.

(4) The State Treasurer shall annually certify to the General Assembly the financial condition of the loan program and identify existing delinquencies.

The Department of Environment and Natural Resources, the Department of Commerce, and the Rural Economic Development Center shall monitor compliance with this requirement and shall report to the General Assembly by January 1 of each year on the participation by minority businesses in these projects.

Section 13. Interpretation of act.

(a) Additional Method. The foregoing sections of this act shall be deemed to provide an additional and alternative method for the doing of the things authorized thereby and shall be regarded as supplemental and additional to powers conferred by other laws, and shall not be regarded as in derogation of any powers now existing.

(b) Statutory References. References in this act to specific sections or Chapters of the General Statutes or to specific acts are intended to be references to these sections, Chapters, or acts as they may be amended from time to time by the General Assembly.

(1) All funds appropriated or accruing to the Clean Water Revolving Loan and Grant Fund, other than funds set aside for administrative expenses, shall be used for revolving loans and grants to local government units for construction costs of wastewater treatment works, wastewater collection systems and water supply systems and other assistance as provided in this Chapter.

(2) The maximum principal amount of a revolving loan or a grant may be one hundred percent (100%) of the nonfederal share of the construction costs of any eligible project. The maximum principal amount of revolving loans made to any one local government unit during any fiscal year shall be ~~three~~ eight million dollars ~~($3,000,000).~~ ($8,000,000). The maximum principal amount of grants made to any one local government unit during any fiscal year shall be ~~one~~ three million dollars ~~($1,000,000).~~ ($3,000,000).

(3) The State Treasurer shall be responsible for investing and distributing all funds appropriated or accruing to the Clean Water Revolving Loan and Grant Fund for revolving loans and grants under this Chapter. In fulfilling his or her responsibilities under this section, the State Treasurer shall make a written request to the Department of Environment and Natural Resources to arrange for the appropriated funds to be (i) transferred from the appropriate accounts to a local government unit to provide funds for one or more revolving loans or grants or (ii) invested as authorized by this Chapter with the interest on and the principal of such investments to be transferred to the local government unit to provide funds for one or more revolving loans or grants.

The projects which would require estimated average household water and sewer user fees greater than one and one-half percent (1.5%) of the median household income are defined as high-unit cost wastewater projects and will be eligible for a grant equal to the excess cost, subject to the limitations in ~~subsection~~ subdivision (a)(2) of this section.

Section 16. The General Assembly finds that:

(1) The General Assembly has previously found that it is the policy of this State to facilitate the extension of natural gas facilities to unserved areas of the State; and

(2) The extension of natural gas facilities to unserved areas of the State is necessary for the health of the people and of the environment; and

(3) The extension of natural gas facilities to unserved areas of the State will aid and encourage the location of manufacturing enterprises and industrial facilities in those areas of the State, will encourage new construction, homes, and other businesses in those areas of the State, will increase the population, taxable property, agricultural industries, and business prospects in the State; and

(4) The 1989 General Assembly in Chapter 338 of the 1989 Session Laws directed the North Carolina Utilities Commission to require the franchised natural gas local distribution companies to file reports with the Commission detailing their plans for providing natural gas service in areas of the State where natural gas service is not available, and directed the Commission and the Public Staff to provide independent analyses and summaries of those reports together with status reports of natural gas service in the State to the Joint Legislative Utility Review Committee; and

(5) The reports of the utilities, the Commission, and the Public Staff indicate that the construction of facilities and the extension of natural gas service in some areas of the State may not be economically feasible with traditional funding methods; and

(6) The 1991 General Assembly enacted G.S. 62-158 and G.S. 62-2(9) authorizing special funding methods, including the use of supplier refunds and customer surcharges, to facilitate the expansion of natural gas service; and

(7) While the 1991 legislation has been successful in providing some natural gas service to previously unserved areas of the State, that legislation has not been sufficient to facilitate the extension of service that is necessary and in the public interest, and there are still counties with no gas service or virtually no gas service; and

(8) It is therefore necessary to authorize additional funding methods, including appropriations from the General Assembly and the proceeds of general obligation bonds, to further facilitate the expansion of natural gas service.

"§ 62-159. Additional funding for natural gas expansion.

(a) In order to facilitate the construction of facilities in and the extension of natural gas service to unserved areas, the Commission may provide funding through appropriations from the General Assembly or the proceeds of general obligation bonds as provided in this section to either (i) an existing natural gas local distribution company or (ii) a person or a gas district awarded a new franchise for the construction of natural gas facilities that it otherwise would not be economically feasible for the company, person, or gas district to construct.

(b) The use of funds provided under this section shall be pursuant to an order of the Commission after a public hearing. The Commission shall ensure that all projects for which funds are provided under this section are consistent with the intent of this section and G.S. 62-2(9). In determining whether to approve the use of funds for a particular project pursuant to this section, the Commission shall consider the scope of a proposed project, including the number of unserved counties and the number of anticipated customers that would be served, the total cost of the project, the extent to which the project is considered feasible, and other relevant factors affecting the public interest. In determining economic feasibility, the Commission shall employ the net present value method of analysis on a project specific basis. Only those projects with a negative net present value shall be determined to be economically infeasible for the company, person, or gas district to construct. In no event shall the Commission provide funding under this section of an amount greater than the negative net present value of any proposed project as determined by the Commission. If at any time a project is determined by the Commission to have become economically feasible, the Commission shall require the recipient of funding to remit to the Commission appropriate funds related to the project, and the Commission may order those funds to be returned with interest in a reasonable amount to be determined by the Commission. Funds returned, together with interest, shall be deposited with the State Treasurer to be used for other expansion projects pursuant to the provisions of this section. Utility plant acquired with expansion funds shall be included in the local distribution company's rate base at zero cost except to the extent such funds have been remitted by the company pursuant to order of the Commission. In the event a gas district wishes to sell or otherwise dispose of facilities financed with funds received under this section, it must first notify the Commission which shall determine the method of repayment or accounting for those funds.

(c) To the extent that one or more of the counties included in a proposed project to be funded pursuant to this section are counties affected by the loss of exclusive franchise rights provided for in G.S. 62-36A(b), the Commission may conclude that the public interest requires that the person obtaining the franchise or funding pursuant to this section be given an exclusive franchise and that the existing franchise be canceled. Any new exclusive franchise granted under this subsection shall be subject to the provisions of G.S. 62-36A(b). This subsection does not apply to gas districts formed under Article 28 of Chapter 160A of the General Statutes.

(d) The Commission, after hearing, shall adopt rules to implement this section as soon as practicable. The Commission and Public Staff shall report to the Joint Legislative Utility Review Committee on the use of funding provided under this section in conjunction with the reports required under G.S. 62- 36A."

Section 18. G.S. 62-2 reads as rewritten:

"§ 62-2. Declaration of policy.

(a) Upon investigation, it has been determined that the rates, services and operations of public utilities as defined herein, are affected with the public interest and that the availability of an adequate and reliable supply of electric power and natural gas to the people, economy and government of North Carolina is a matter of public policy. It is hereby declared to be the policy of the State of North Carolina:

(1) To provide fair regulation of public utilities in the interest of the public;

(2) To promote the inherent advantage of regulated public utilities;

(3) To promote adequate, reliable and economical utility service to all of the citizens and residents of the State;

(3a) To assure that resources necessary to meet future growth through the provision of adequate, reliable utility service include use of the entire spectrum of demand-side options, including but not limited to conservation, load management and efficiency programs, as additional sources of energy supply and/or energy demand reductions. To that end, to require energy planning and fixing of rates in a manner to result in the least cost mix of generation and demand-reduction measures which is achievable, including consideration of appropriate rewards to utilities for efficiency and conservation which decrease utility bills;

(4) To provide just and reasonable rates and charges for public utility services without unjust discrimination, undue preferences or advantages, or unfair or destructive competitive practices and consistent with long-term management and conservation of energy resources by avoiding wasteful, uneconomic and inefficient uses of energy;

(4a) To assure that facilities necessary to meet future growth can be financed by the utilities operating in this State on terms which are reasonable and fair to both the customers and existing investors of such utilities; and to that end to authorize fixing of rates in such a manner as to result in lower costs of new facilities and lower rates over the operating lives of such new facilities by making provisions in the rate-making process for the investment of public utilities in plants under construction;

(5) To encourage and promote harmony between public utilities, their users and the environment;

(6) To foster the continued service of public utilities on a well-planned and coordinated basis that is consistent with the level of energy needed for the protection of public health and safety and for the promotion of the general welfare as expressed in the State energy policy;

(7) To seek to adjust the rate of growth of regulated energy supply facilities serving the State to the policy requirements of statewide development;

(8) To cooperate with other states and with the federal government in promoting and coordinating interstate and intrastate public utility service and reliability of public utility energy supply; and

(9) To facilitate the construction of facilities in and the extension of natural gas service to unserved areas in order to promote the public welfare throughout the State and to that end to authorize the creation of ~~an~~ expansion ~~fund~~ funds for ~~each~~ natural gas local distribution ~~company~~ companies or gas districts to be administered under the supervision of the North Carolina Utilities Commission.

(b) To these ends, therefore, authority shall be vested in the North Carolina Utilities Commission to regulate public utilities generally, their rates, services and operations, and their expansion in relation to long-term energy conservation and management policies and statewide development requirements, and in the manner and in accordance with the policies set forth in this Chapter. Nothing in this Chapter shall be construed to imply any extension of Utilities Commission regulatory jurisdiction over any industry or enterprise that is not subject to the regulatory jurisdiction of said Commission.

Because of technological changes in the equipment and facilities now available and needed to provide telephone and telecommunications services, changes in regulatory policies by the federal government, and changes resulting from the court- ordered divestiture of the American Telephone and Telegraph Company, competitive offerings of certain types of telephone and telecommunications services may be in the public interest. Consequently, authority shall be vested in the North Carolina Utilities Commission to allow competitive offerings of local exchange, exchange access, and long distance services by public utilities defined in G.S. 62-3(23)a.6. and certified in accordance with the provisions of G.S. 62-110, and the Commission is further authorized after notice to affected parties and hearing to deregulate or to exempt from regulation under any or all provisions of this Chapter: (i) a service provided by any public utility as defined in G.S. 62-3(23)a.6. upon a finding that such service is competitive and that such deregulation or exemption from regulation is in the public interest; or (ii) a public utility as defined in G.S. 62-3(23)a.6., or a portion of the business of such public utility, upon a finding that the service or business of such public utility is competitive and that such deregulation or exemption from regulation is in the public interest.

The policy and authority stated in this section shall be applicable to common carriers of passengers by motor vehicle and their regulation by the North Carolina Utilities Commission only to the extent that they are consistent with the provisions of the Bus Regulatory Reform Act of 1985.

The North Carolina Utilities Commission may develop regulatory policies to govern the provision of telecommunications services to the public which promote efficiency, technological innovation, economic growth, and permit telecommunications utilities a reasonable opportunity to compete in an emerging competitive environment, giving due regard to consumers, stockholders, and maintenance of reasonably affordable local exchange service and long distance service."

Section 19. Effective date. Sections 14 and 15 of this act become effective only if the voters approve the issuance of the Clean Water Bonds authorized by this act in the election required by Section 7 of this act. The remaining sections of this act are effective when the act becomes law, and the Utilities Commission shall begin immediately the rule-making process mandated by G.S. 62-159(d), as enacted by Section 17 of this act.

The Chair rules the Conference Report to be material and submission constitutes the H.J.R. 1761, A JOINT RESOLUTION HONORING THE LIFE AND MEMORY OF JEFF HAILEN ENLOE, JR., FORMER MEMBER OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY, upon second reading.

With unanimous consent, on motion of Senator Jenkins, the joint resolution is read in its entirety. Without objection, the President of the Senate orders the remarks of the Senators memorializing the life and memory of Jeff Hailen Enloe, Jr., former member of the General Assembly, spread upon the Journal, as follows:

Senator Jenkins:

"Thank you Mr. President. Ladies and Gentlemen of the Senate, it was indeed an honor and a privilege to know Jeff Enloe and his family. Jeff represented the 53rd House District which is the western most district in the State. He understood, respected and loved his people. Jeff was known as the quiet man from Macon. Indeed his actions spoke louder than his words as evidence by the work in his district for his community colleges and preserving our cultural traditions at places like the John C. Campbell School. Jeff was also a pioneer in distance learning. When schools like Nantahala and Hiwassee Dam did not get courses they needed, Jeff went to work and got satellite TVs sent into those schools. He was a pioneer in that field. On the lighter side, Jeff was an expert at buck dancing or as we call it in the mountains, clogging, and we in the mountains think of that as the State dance, with all apologies to you shaggers and square dancers. Jeff would clog to anything be it classical music, country music, rock and roll, and indeed he tore up the dance floors all over Raleigh, with his wife's permission I might add. He also claimed Abraham Lincoln as an ancestor and, truth be known, there was some scholarly input into this and some folks really think it is true. But when I asked why Jeff was a Democrat and Lincoln was a Republican, Jeff replied, 'Well Lincoln came from the illegitimate side of the family.' Jeff was a good man. He was a faithful servant to the people of Cherokee, Clay, Macon and Graham Counties. He was a wonderful husband, father, grandfather, and friend and in the end that's about the best you can expect to do. North Carolina owes the Enloe family many thanks for sharing Jeff with us. He made a truly lasting impact and we'll miss him. I commend the Resolution to you."

Senator Carpenter:

"Thank you, Mr. President. It is with great pride that I speak favorably to this Resolution. Jeff Enloe was a mountain man and like many of us, he was not only a good friend but also a valued customer. In my case he was a customer of the Bank of First Union all the time that I worked there, too many years to recall. Of all the Enloes apart from Jeff we, my wife Helen and I, we knew his widow, Ruth, his son Bill, and his nephew Robert better than the other descendants. It's heartwarming for us to be close, particularly to Ruth, Bill, and Robert. Bill and Robert just recently paved our driveway there in Franklin. They own the Macon Paving Company which Jeff was a part while he was active and in good health. We think, Helen and I, of all the good times and all the funny stories that always seem to surface about good mountain characters, like Jeff Enloe who served this great State in the Legislature. One of the funny stories, which I'll not tell but it circles about his widow Ruth and the visitors' center over there on Balsam Mountain in Jackson County. He was truly a mountain man with all the antidotes which we associate with the kind of person that Jeff truly exemplified. His humor, determination, his pride in the House, his love and dedication to Liston Ramsey and Charles Beall all illustrated his niche which he coveted during his House of Representatives career in Raleigh. I guess his dedication and support of his friends, particularly Speaker Ramsey, speak out in my mind as the most significant trait in his personality. Jeff was a thoroughly well-rounded, friendly, and resourceful Legislator and he carved into the records his own particular and unique reputation. He's been missed since he left the House in the late 80's and those of us who knew him personally in the Macon Paving Company, we knew him in the businesses like First Union National Bank. We knew members of his closely knit family and also those people in the North Carolina House of Representatives continue to miss him. So to the family, I say thanks to you for sharing this public servant with all of us. And thanks especially for all the contributions he made to the Legislature and consequently to the State of North Carolina. I urge you all to vote favorably for this House Joint Resolution 1761, honoring the life and memory of Jeff Hailen Enloe, Jr. Thank you."

Senator Rand:

"Thank you, Mr. President, Ladies and Gentlemen of the Senate. I think it is particularly fitting that we celebrate this Resolution on the 84th anniversary of the date of Jeff Enloe's birth. Jeff Enloe was an early pioneer in long-distance learning because when he left Franklin County in the early 1930's to come to Raleigh for his education, that was truly long-distance learning in it's greatest sense. He was a great fellow. He was a great friend and I loved to watch Jeff dance. As Senator Jenkins said, he would dance the same way regardless of the music, but he loved it and he was a treat to be with whether it was working on legislation or after hours or whenever. Jeff Enloe was a great fellow to be with and to enjoy. We will certainly miss him. We do thank his family for allowing him to serve as he did and it's people like Jeff Enloe that make service here the great pleasure that it is. Thank you, Mr. President."

Senator Cooper:

"It was my honor and privilege to serve with Jeff Enloe in the House. My administrative assistant, Susan, worked with Jeff before she worked for me and often told me what a fine man that Jeff was and I certainly knew that with my service with him in the House. I'll always remember his twinkling eyes and his rye smile. He never let you know 100% of what he was thinking but you knew that what he was thinking was trying to improve the lives of people of North Carolina. One thing that I would say about Jeff Enloe, is that truly he was a voice for working people, and he was the embodiment of mountain values. He certainly exhibited those values constantly. It was my privilege to serve with him, he will be greatly missed. My sympathy and all heart-felt sympathy goes to the members of the family. He certainly added credit to this Body."

Senator Basnight:

"Thank you, Mr. President and Members of the Senate. He was a delight to be around, a wonderful person to spend any amount of time with. He was generous in his philosophy that a mountain man knew better than an eastern flatlander would know what was in the best interests of a certain bill. I can remember those conversations we had as we talked and it was rare that we had that chance, but we would talk about the issues that meant something to someone from the east of the mountains cause there seemed to be a lot in common at times, most especially on those issues that build an infrastructure or give some opportunity to advance the cause. You found a lot of likeness in the east and the west but what I enjoyed, I guess as much as anything, was the chance to see him not just dance with his beautiful wife or those who were willing to dance at the time, but I believe it was what they call buck dancing, Tommy, when you dance alone. When there was no other customer on the floor, he was there alone. He was a wonderful man, a great person to know and his generosity will be remembered for a long time to come."

Lieutenant Governor Wicker:

"As many of you have mentioned I, too, had the pleasure and honor of serving with Jeff Enloe in the House. There are many things that I can recall about Jeff Enloe, whether it was his slow walking and slow talking demeanor or his rich and vast knowledge of western North Carolina or his love for people. He wouldn't tell you about his love for people but if you were around him long enough, you just knew it. It just reeked and came out. When I started thinking about running for statewide office, I went up to the western part of the state and Jeff Enloe took me around for three days all across western North Carolina. And as I reflected upon his death, I wonder how many of us would take that time today and do that. I enjoyed his company immensely. We'd ride down the highway going through those mountains and he would tell me about Chunky Girl Gap or he would tell me about Shooting Creek. He had a unique way of saying he didn't know because I asked him where those names came from and he thought a moment and he looked and he said, 'I don't know, I guess it's some of that Indian folklore stuff.' But that was Jeff Enloe. And I will tell you as we made our way around the western part of the State, it was very obvious and clear to me, that the people in that area deeply respected him and loved him. He was indeed a very special North Carolinian and his life and his memory will etch in my mind and in my heart forever as well as many North Carolinians who knew him."

The joint resolution passes its second reading (46-0) and third reading with Members standing, and is ordered enrolled.

ONE HUNDRED NINETY-FIRST DAY

Senate Chamber
Thursday, September 3, 1998

The Senate meets pursuant to adjournment and is called to order by the Honorable Dennis A. Wicker, Lieutenant Governor.

Prayer is offered by the Reverend Mike Morris, Senate Chaplain, as follows:

"Dear Lord, help us not to lose heart. You know us. We want what we think we want. We hate to wait.

"You know us. Our small corner of the world easily becomes the whole world, our aches and pains the only pain. When we pray, therefore, we mostly pray for ourselves.

"You know us. We attempt to use our faith to get what we want rather than allowing our faith to use us to get what we want. We want the world our way or no way.

"You know us. More than that You love us. Come to us, not as we want You to be, but rather as You truly are -- our Great God, Lord of reconciliation, our Friend, for this is why we do not lose heart. Amen."

With unanimous consent, the President grants leaves of absence for today to Senator Forrester and Senator Rucho.

Senator Basnight, President Pro Tempore, announces the Journal of yesterday, Wednesday, September 2, has been examined and is found to be correct. On his motion, the Senate dispenses with the reading of the Journal and it stands approved as written.

Prayer is offered by the Reverend Mike Morris, Senate Chaplain, as follows:

"Dear God, I am reminded today of a Pastor friend who, on the Sunday of Labor Day weekend, encourages his congregation to come to church dressed in their work clothes, a kind of celebration of vocation. Though we are grateful for our jobs, statistics show 60% of us find some difficulty in our 'calling' to work. My friend must preach to a distracted congregation. As this Legislative Session continues, I suspect the Senators and staff may be counted in that 60%.

"The reality is, Oh God, that at the end of every day, if we were to document in ledger form what we have done that seems worthwhile against all the mundane, meaningless tasks of that day, the ledger would list heavily toward the latter.

"In response to that feeling of frustration someone has said, 'Almost everything we do will be insignificant, but it is very important that we do it!'

" 'Well done good and faithful servant', You say. 'You having been faithful over a little, I will set you over much.' We thank You for that promise on this Labor Day. Amen."

Senate Chamber
Tuesday, September 8, 1998

The Senate meets pursuant to adjournment and is called to order by the Honorable Dennis A. Wicker, Lieutenant Governor.

Prayer is offered by the Reverend Mike Morris, Senate Chaplain, as follows:

"Dear God, a congregation had had some experiences in the Depression that made them very cautious about going into debt. They needed to add some Sunday School rooms and put a steeple and a bell on the church, but they had agreed that they wouldn't start until they had enough money to pay for the whole job. They were quite proud of the money they had already raised, but the last of it was slow coming in, and they were becoming discouraged.

"Their preacher said, 'Well, I can tell you, brothers and sisters, it's time to roll up our sleeves. You know, there are just two ways to climb an oak tree. You can wrap your arms and legs around that rough, scaly bark, and work at it; and when you get to the top, you may have lost a little of your hide, but the view will be pretty, and you'll be proud you're up there.'

" 'Or,' he said, 'you can plant an acorn and sit on it.' Those of us who have ears to hear, let us hear. Amen." (Mountain Preacher Stories, Ben C. Fisher)

COURTESIES

With unanimous consent, on motion of Senator Warren, the President extends privileges of the floor to the members of the Greenville Tarheel Little League All-Star Team, their Manager, and their Coaches. The President recognizes Senator Warren to escort the following Team Members, Manager, and Coaches to the Well of the Senate, who are received with a standing ovation: Richard Barnhill, Brandon Brown, Sam Byrum, Taylor Gagnon, Zach Garris, Justin Hardee, Kevin Hodges, Jordan Lee, Michael Lilley, Brack Massey, J. D. Morgan, Shelton Nelson, Patrick Warrington, and Alex White, Coach Mason Lilley, Coach Randy White, Coach Pete Carraway, Coach Greg Benner and Manager Wayne Hardee.

Upon motion of Senator Basnight, the remarks honoring the Greenville Tarheel Little League All-Star Team are spread upon the Journal, as follows:

Senator Basnight:

"Mr. President, if it is agreeable to you, at this time we have the Little League World Series runners-up from Greenville, North Carolina. This is the 1998 Greenville Tarheel eleven and twelve year olds. As I understand it, while they were in Williamsport, it might have been the first team from North Carolina ever to have been there and played in this tournament. They came ever so very close of winning and being our world champions by name but in the mind of all of us, they are our champions and we're so very proud to have Senator Warren to lead our escort committee at the appropriate time."

Lieutenant Governor Wicker:

"Senator Warren is excused to retire to the rear of the Chamber so that he may escort our Little League World Series Champions to the Well of the Senate along with Coach Wayne Hardee."

Senator Warren:

"Mr. President, I just want to say that we, on behalf of the Senate, appreciate all you've done for the State of North Carolina and number one we want to say that being the third place in the world is a great achievement for this State. You set good role model examples. You've had leadership abilities and Wayne, being a former athlete and prominent lawyer here in Greenville as the manager, he's going to introduce the team players and the other coaches. Let me say, also, as Senator Basnight said, that number two in America, it has been forty-six years since a team in North Carolina has even been in the tournament and I think that's quite an achievement coming from North Carolina. We in the Senate are all proud of each one of you. You are the role model that we like to see in our young people. We think that we have a good future in America with young people like this leading the way. This is quite an accomplishment I think. Wayne if you would, with all the home run deals going on now with Mark McGwire and I think you had some home run hitters in this group, if you would, tell us who they were and let them raise their hand so we can see who the home run hitters are in this group. Wayne, thanks for all you do."

Wayne Hardee:

"Mr. President, Mr. Pro Tempore, ladies and gentlemen of the Senate, thank you very much for the honor of having us here before this distinguished group. This is quite an honor for me and the team, on behalf of the Greenville Little League Tarheel team to come here. We're most honored to have been as successful as we were this season. Let me say first that the credit for the success, I know in our coaches' opinions should go to the boys, they're a very talented young group of boys and we're very honored to have been able to have been coaching with them. We had a good time. It was a long road to Williamsport, it was a lot of fun but, again, I think the credit should go the boys and I appreciate it very much all the honor you had by the invitation to come here today. Let me introduce all the players and the coaches. Let me start with the coaches since they are closer. We have one coach who is not here, Randy White. He was not able to be here; he is a physician in Greenville. But we have here Greg Benner. If you'll raise your hand as we introduce you. Then in front of him Mason Lilley. Mason was our pitching coach during the series and beside him we call him the legend, Mr. Pete Carraway. Mr. Pete Carraway has been coaching little league in Greenville for thirty-seven years and because of people like Mr. Carraway and this coaching staff including Coach White, I, being the manager, all I did is accumulate the great coaching staff and that with the talent of this team is the reason we were successful. Let me introduce now really the players. I'll start right in front of Coach Lilley. When I introduce you guys if you'll just raise your hand. This is my son, Justin Hardee. Step up front so they can see you, then move back. Step up front Justin, he's a little shy, never been before such a distinguished group, I believe. Right in front of him is John Durham Morgan. Right in front of John is Michael Lilley, this is Mason's son. Right here is Brack Massey. Right beside Brack is Taylor Gagnon. Right in front of Taylor is Alex White. Right in front of Taylor is Jordan Lee. To his left is Brandon Brown. Right behind Brandon is Richard Barnhill. Be proud guys, don't be too shy. Right to his left is Shelton Nelson. Right in front of Shelton is Zach Garris. Over here is Sam Byrum and right in front of Sam is Patrick Warrington. Finally, last but not least, is Kevin Hodges. Senator Warren asked me a little bit about the home runs, I know a lot of televisions were tuned in last night when McGwire got his 62nd. They play a little more games than we do but let me just tell you I thought sometimes statistics, a couple of them are interesting. We had actually twenty games. We started on July 6th and went through, I think it was August 28th was our last game I believe. But anyway, there were twenty games and during that time we had forty-three home runs which is averaging more than two a game. The other thing is that of those twenty games, seven of them were shortened by what we call the Mercy Rule. It's a ten-run rule, once you beat a team in the 4th inning by more than ten runs, the game is automatically, they have to yield. The game basically is over so we had seven of our twenty games by the Mercy Rule. In fact, we had twelve runs in one inning in the State tournament. It was quite a feat but just to be sure that you know, we did start in the district tournament which was held in Vanceboro and then from there proceeded to Kernersville which is where the State tournament was. And then once we won the State tournament in Kernersville that entitled us to go to St. Petersburg, Florida for the Southern Regional Championship. And that's where you see on the front of the jersey the South USA and by winning the Southern Regional Championship that's when we became, and our jerseys changed from North Carolina to South USA representing four teams, four US teams to go to the World Series, again by finishing, we finished as you mentioned, second in the United States and third in the world. What was not publicized very much, is that we played Canada who was the other team that lost. We played them at an international friendship game the same day of the final game between Japan and the East. And were fortunate that we beat them eight to seven. So that's why we have bragging rights to say that we're third in the world since we beat Canada. You asked for the home runs, let me tell you that and then I'll be done. We had probably one of the nicest things about this group, is that there are fourteen players and nine of the fourteen players had home runs during this All-Star Tournament. And that is, I think pretty impressive to have nine people with home runs. Just raise your hand when I mention it. Shelton Nelson had a home run; Mike Willey, the littlest guy on our team, had a home run; John Durham Morgan had three home runs; Richard Barnhill had four home runs, including a grand slam; Brandon Brown had four home runs; Alex White had five home runs; Brack Massey had five home runs; and then Justin Hardee had eight home runs; and then finally last but not least, Kevin Hodges had twelve home runs in the series. With all these home runs it's not surprising that in those number of games we actually had 113 runs. So I don't know what the stats are. I think for about a seven-week period of time that's accumulating a lot of home runs and a lot of talent. I'll also say that they played very good defensively and I just appreciate Senator Warren and the members of the Chamber inviting us up here to recognize the boys. I'm real proud to be associated with a team that, in fact, did make North Carolina history by not only making it to the World Series like no other team has since 1952 but to go beyond that in finishing higher than any other team in North Carolina history, by second in the U.S. and third in the world and for that we are very honored by your invitation and we thank everybody very much for coming and we appreciate it very much."

Lieutenant Governor Wicker:

"Coach Hardee and members of the team and coaches and family members and friends, on behalf of the Senate we want to extend to you this flag. We want to do so, Coach, as a symbol of not only what North Carolina stands for but also the pride which these young men brought North Carolina. Like many of you in this Chamber, I watched the games and I'll tell you what I think most of us were proud about, it was not only winning but it was also the way in which your young men conducted themselves on the field. I never saw them once wince when they weren't successful at bat. I never saw them once complain at a call that was made maybe not in their favor. I would like to know what you said to the umpire when he did make one of those calls and you walked up to him. Later. But I think North Carolina joins all of us in saying to all of these future Mark McGwires, that we are awfully, awfully, proud of you and what you mean to this State. And so, on behalf of the North Carolina Senate, we say congratulations to you and we watch for more successful endeavors from all of you in future years. Thank you very much for what you've done for our State."

Senator Basnight:

"Mr. President for a motion, but prior to the motion let me say, the proudness that we all exhibit in here, all fifty of us in the Senate, cannot easily be expressed in any words. What you have accomplished, what you've done, makes North Carolina just a better place for all of us to recognize for what it is. You have been fantastic. You're just wonderful ambassadors, each and every one of you. And to you and to the City of Greenville and Pitt County and most especially to the Moms, we thank you for letting us have them. And if we may Mr. President, I move that the Senate do spread upon the Journal the words of those that have been expressed today. And further more, that we send an appropriate official document to each and every one of these players as a resolution from the Senate for a job well done."

Lieutenant Governor Wicker:

"Without objection, that is going to be ordered. We thank you very, very much. Thank you coach. Thank you, players. Thank you."

The President grants a leave of absence for the remainder of today's Session to Senator Warren.

'Have you not known, have you not heard? God does not faint or grow weary; His understanding is unsearchable. He gives power to the faint and strengthens the powerless. Those who wait for the Lord shall renew their strength, they shall mount up with wings like eagles, they shall run and not be weary, they shall walk and not faint.' (Isaiah 40:28-31 - Selected)

"Oh God, help us to change our wardrobe for garments that are more in line with Your fashion statement. You have taught us that it is always in style to feel and express compassion, tolerance, selflessness, truth, tolerance, humility, and calmness. Help us to join together to work for the good of the people who have entrusted their future to us. Help us to understand clearly the importance of being good models of the robes we wear. Amen."

The Conference Report is ordered placed on the Calendar for tomorrow, Wednesday, September 23, for adoption.

On motion of Senator Basnight, seconded by Senator Ballantine, the Senate adjourns at 2:18 P.M. to meet tomorrow, Wednesday, September 23, at 2:00 P.M.

TWO HUNDRED THIRD DAY

Senate Chamber
Wednesday, September 23, 1998

The Senate meets pursuant to adjournment and is called to order by the Honorable Dennis A. Wicker, Lieutenant Governor.

Prayer is offered by the Reverend Mike Morris, Senate Chaplain, as follows:

"Almighty God, a story as prayer...Oscar Sikes, who subsequently became an outstanding attorney in Monroe, North Carolina, was having a difficult time as a freshman student at Wake Forest University. As a consequence, he was somewhat ill-prepared when the time for examinations came. He was morally certain he had flunked all of them. As he was walking across the campus in a despondent mood, he encountered a student who was an aspiring preacher. The student asked Sikes where he expected to spend eternity. He responded without hesitation, 'If I wait until I get my bachelor's degree, I'll spend it at Wake Forest.'

"It is one thing, Oh God, to say we have empathy with Mr. Sikes' story. It's another, with Your help, to make the very best out of a situation like that in which we may find ourselves.

"Abide with us in our times of joy and in the long night of the soul. For Your sake we pray, Amen." (From Humor of a Country Lawyer by Sam Ervin.)

With unanimous consent, the President grants leaves of absence for today to Senator Dalton, Senator Horton, and Senator Moore.

Senator Basnight, President Pro Tempore, announces the Journal of yesterday, Tuesday, September 22, has been examined and is found to be correct. On his motion, the Senate dispenses with the reading of the Journal and it stands approved as written.

The President of the Senate extends courtesies of the floor to Ed Kirkpatrick from Kinston, North Carolina, who is serving the Senate as Nurse of the Day.

INTRODUCTION OF A RESOLUTION

A resolution filed for introduction is presented to the Senate, read the first time, and disposed of, as follows:

By Senators Lucas, Gulley, Albertson, Ballance, Ballantine, Basnight, Blust, Carpenter, Carrington, Clark, Cochrane, Dalton, Dannelly, East, Forrester, Foxx, Garwood, Hartsell, Horton, Jenkins, Jordan, Kinnaird, Ledbetter, Lee, Martin of Guilford, Martin of Pitt, McDaniel, Miller, Moore, Odom, Page, Perdue, Phillips, Plyler, Purcell, Rand, Reeves, Rucho, Shaw of Cumberland, Soles, Warren, Webster and Wellons:

S.R. 1605, A SENATE RESOLUTION HONORING THE ONE HUNDREDTH ANNIVERSARY OF NORTH CAROLINA MUTUAL LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY, ONE OF NORTH CAROLINA'S GREATEST INSTITUTIONS.

On motion of Senator Rand, the Senate resolution is placed before the Senate for immediate consideration and is read in its entirety.

On motion of Senator Basnight, the remarks of the Senators honoring the One Hundredth Anniversary of North Carolina Mutual Life Insurance Company are spread upon the Journal, as follows:

Lieutenant Governor:

Senator Lucas is recognized to explain the Resolution.

Senator Lucas:

Thank you Mr. President and members of the Senate. The strength of our State lies in the fortitude of our great institutions. From the seed of a small acorn, the mighty oak tree is born. Back on October 20th in 1898, seven valiant men, John Merrick, Dr. Aaron McDuffie Moore, Dr. James E. Sheppard, William G. Pearson, Edward A. Johnson, D. T. Watson, and M. C. Bruce had a vision. And from that vision the foundation of a mighty fortress in North Carolina was created. For one hundred years North Carolina Mutual Life Insurance Company has stood as a symbol of a mighty oak tree in North Carolina enduring the harsh and turbulent winds of political, economic, and social changes. In spite of prevailing circumstances, the founders of North Carolina Mutual had vision to see, faith to believe and courage to do. During the span of their lives they were able to see slavery abolished by the blood bath of the Civil War, the rights and privileges of citizens for Blacks legalized by amendments to the constitutions, men of color and women of color elected by a vote of the people to membership of many legislative bodies, both State and Federal, and the shadows of illiteracy diminishing as the dawn of intellectual light brightened the pathway of the first generation of emancipated African-Americans to whom the doors of educational institutions have opened. These founders, their associates, successors, and patrons, exemplified laudable courage and imminent ambition. North Carolina Mutual Life Insurance Company is the oldest and largest African-American life insurance company in the United States and the oldest life insurance company in North Carolina with license to operate in twenty-one states and the District of Columbia. Today with more than nine billion dollars of insurance in force, North Carolina Mutual Life Insurance Company is ranked in the top 175 of the approximately 1,800 life insurance companies in the United States. Since its inception one hundred years ago, North Carolina Mutual has provided a mark of stability in North Carolina's growing economy and the rock of financial comfort for hundreds of thousands of North Carolina citizens. It is only fitting that we salute and commend today one of North Carolina's greatest institutions for its one hundred years of continuous operation and contributions to our State. I recommend the Resolution to you."

Senator Gulley:

"Thank you Mr. President, Ladies and Gentlemen, colleagues. The Resolution before you is an important one, I think, not just for our community but for the whole State. It certainly recognizes a corporation that has been a central part of one of the major urban communities of this State for many, many years. It recognizes an institution that we are all quite proud of in Durham, not just for the fact that it's there and the service that it provides, but for the help and the leadership that we've gotten from a number of the executives and employees of the North Carolina Mutual Life Insurance for years that have led into decades that now total one hundred years. It is a fine institution. It has been an exemplary corporate citizen in Durham for many years. It has continued to carry on its work in the heart of our downtown and to be part of a vibrant downtown. When I think about North Carolina Mutual, I think there're two lessons to be drawn from their example. One is that, and you have to put yourself back a hundred years ago in 1898, a very different time in this country, a very different time in terms of starting a business and the economic difficulties just of doing that. And also I think a time when it was very difficult for African-Americans to start a business at all anywhere in this country. And yet a small group of folks in our community dedicated themselves to this, worked hard, raised seed capital that, Senator Lucas, at least by history and legend, has a diverse source to it. But with a little bit of seed capital and a chance to make this business happen, they took the ball and ran with it and have turned it into, as you've heard, the largest Black-owned insurance institution in this country and one of the largest in the world and a major economic force. I think it shows that if we give a chance for anyone in America to participate economically, to have a stake to work hard and to make a business, that anyone in America can do it. And so really a lesson that comes to, is to try to make sure that we have an economy that everyone can participate in, that there are no barriers, artificial barriers to anyone participating in the American economy. The second lesson that I take from it, because in my law practice I've dealt with a number of small businesses, you see a lot of them get started with a lot of hopes, you see a lot of them unfortunately fail. You see a lot of institutions have trouble making it through the first year. As we know from statistics most of them don't make it to the fifth year, and yet we have here an institution started in a very difficult circumstance with a true uphill struggle and it's been here now for a hundred years, as Senator Lucas has told us. I think that is a testimony to the vision of the founders but even more importantly to the hard work day after day in the visionary and effective leadership that North Carolina Mutual has enjoyed over the years. And so we salute them today for all the people that have been a part of it for a hundred years, for their leadership and example, and for the contributions back to the Durham community and the North Carolina community. I commend the Resolution to you. Thank you."

Senator Shaw of Guilford:

"I might add a little to Senator Gulley, a little footnote in his history. One of the sons, Asa Spaulding, Jr., in 1976 was a first Black statewide candidate ever to run and I helped recruit him to run as Secretary of State on the Republican ticket that year."

Senator Lee:

"Mr. President, members of the Senate, growing up in the South, it was difficult for young children of color to find models in the world of business after which to pattern. Like many, I was fueled and inspired by my dreams of possibilities, my dreams of hope. I used to look at magazines and see people wearing ties and carrying briefcases and thought how wonderful it would be follow in the footsteps. The only real live person in my community who wore a tie and carried a briefcase was the insurance man representing North Carolina Mutual Life Insurance Company. And I thought, there's a model after which I can pattern myself. Therein lies a possibility, because I thought it was cool to wear a tie and carry a briefcase. When my wife and I married, we lived in Savannah, Georgia. The only policies we bought, the first policies we bought were from North Carolina Mutual Life Insurance Company and we paid something like a dollar a week on that policy. And I recall sitting here that my mother had policies on all of her children and she paid ten cents a week on that policy. And when you think of a company such as North Carolina Mutual standing alone as a beacon light, it is through this company that many people found hope, were able to dream and think of possibilities. I never thought I'd stand here today giving praise to this outstanding institution and to say that I have personally come to know many of the leaders and the descendants of the founders, people who dreamed of things that could be better, who served as a model for us all. I congratulate North Carolina Mutual for having maintained its presence as a symbol of possibilities, a symbol of hope and surviving in a competitive business world. I'm delighted that they're in our State, that they are a part of North Carolina and that we can claim them as a part of us."

Senator Dannelly:

"Ladies and Gentlemen of this august body, before I was born my father was a personal friend of John Merrick. What the Resolution did not say, is that John Merrick, and I'm sure the other six founders of North Carolina Mutual, went out and sold policies. And my father was among one of the first policy holders paying five cents a week for a life policy. And through the years North Carolina Mutual has set the example and given inspiration to the other aspiring African-Americans who wanted to go into business. I'm proud to salute North Carolina Mutual and I commend the Resolution to all of you. Thank you."

Senator Soles:

"Mr. President, Ladies and Gentlemen of the Senate as we look at this Resolution and we think about North Carolina Mutual Life Insurance Company, we all know what a great institution that is and how much the company itself has done for North Carolina. But I think we have to look beyond the company and look at these names and understand what those individuals have done for the State and for the community. And I particularly want to speak about the Asa Spaulding family. The Spauldings originated or had their roots, and still to this day, in Columbus County. They are outstanding people. Columbus County is far better today because of the Spaulding family that has lived there. Many of them still reside in my district, my county. Many of us have gone to Durham and other places and have led outstanding lives and although I can't speak directly to Mr. McDuffie Moore and some others whose names are on here, I'd be willing to bet you that if you look in the communities where they came from, the communities that they lived in, that you would find that those lives and their examples far outweigh and outshine the great accomplishments that even North Carolina Mutual has accomplished. And I recommend this Resolution to you."

On motion of Senator Lucas, the Senate Resolution is adopted (41-0). (The text of this Resolution appears in the Appendix.)

Tuesday, October 13, 1998

The Senate meets pursuant to adjournment and is called to order by the Honorable Marc Basnight, President Pro Tempore, who presides in the absence of the Lieutenant Governor.

Prayer is offered by the Honorable Howard N. Lee, Senator from Orange County, as follows:

"There was once a concerned Christian who wrote a letter to God which in part read: 'Dear God, if You are a merciful God, why do You allow so much suffering in our world? Why do You allow people to live in such object poverty? Why do You allow people to turn against each other because of differences in skin color, in gender? Why do You allow some people to hoard wealth and not share it with others? God, if You know of all of these problems and You see them existing, why don't You do something?' The response from God was, 'I did do something, I sent you.'

"On this day, as we continue our work in this Legislature, as we continue to grind toward what we hope soon will be a conclusion of our work, we ask God that You remind us of our duties. Help us do Your Will. More importantly, help us get the job done, because You've sent us. Amen."

With unanimous consent, the President Pro Tempore grants a leave of absence for today to Senator Rand.

TWO HUNDRED FIFTEENTH DAY

Senate Chamber
Wednesday, October 14, 1998

The Senate meets pursuant to adjournment and is called to order by the Honorable Dennis A. Wicker, Lieutenant Governor.

Prayer is offered by Ms. Eliza Ragsdale, Aspirant for Holy Orders, St. Paul's Episcopal Church, Smithfield, North Carolina, as follows:

"God, we sit here before You as the elected chosen and the powerful. We convey a sense of security and comfort in our positions of governmental service. Outwardly we appear to be different from one another. But we are not. In our inner-core, we are all Your children whether we are Jew or Christian, male or female, black or white. Many of us here today have problems in our private lives that are too deep to bear alone and scars that we are desperately trying to ignore and hide from our life partners, our colleagues, and constituents. All of which we know is of Your knowledge God, and all of which we ask to be released and healed through Your Grace. Help us to take all of our weary baggage of life and all the conflict from this Session and lay it at Your feet. Deliver us, in this occupation of Senator, from the service of self alone, that all may chose the work You have given us to do in truth and beauty and for the common good. Lord God of our Fathers, God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob, God and Father of our Lord Christ Jesus, open our eyes to see Your hand at work in the world around us. Deliver us from the presumption of coming to serve, in this Senate, for solace only, and not for strength. Let the grace of Your Heavenly Kingdom make this Senate one Body, one spirit in Your unending love and infinite forgiveness. Protect those who have been chosen that they may worthily serve the world and the people of North Carolina in Your Holy Name. Give us the freedom to release all negativity and cease to be divided by race, gender, and political party, as these issues of division make us small and petty, all of which is not of You, God. Replace the false sense of self-importance with the omnipotent power of Your Counsel as we deliberate the issues before us. Give each of us the ability to pray, the ability to listen, and the gift of hearing what is being said and asked of each before You. Give us the courage to speak for those who are suffering and for those who have no voice and are forgotten. Let this Senate have the courage to release the politically correct, safe decisions, and to follow what You God have placed in their hearts. Give them quiet, to be able to hear Your voice. In these hallowed halls, where so much has been done to affect so many, help them to remember that they are here as servants of the people, and not by accident, but for greater purposes that are not to be self-serving. God, we give You thanks for insights that find us when solutions are difficult, for hope that surrounds us when our spirits lag, and for wisdom of generations past and for generations yet to be born. Open our eyes and hearts to see the inner souls of the great people of North Carolina, of our colleagues, and the world around us. No matter where we travel in North Carolina, to the sandy shores of our invigorating and glistening coast or to the crystal and renewing mountain peaks, to our mighty cities, to our smallest farms, help us to remember that You are there God. There is no place that we walk where You are not; there is no hand we shake where You are not; and there are no eyes we look into as we make our campaign promises where You are not. You are here today God, and we give thanks for Your presence. Before we cast our vote, let us first ask for Your voice, counsel and wisdom God, and ask if our vote is of You. Be our guide. Keep each gathered here today brave, honest and on track. There is no issue and no problem before this united Body of the North Carolina Senate that Your grace cannot heal and solve for the betterment of all concerned. Deliver us from ourselves into our service to You first. And now, may God bless you with a loving sense of His presence, guide, protect, and comfort you that ye may know what it is to walk close with God all your days long. May God deliver you in all your troubles and deliberations and establish your minds in the tranquillity of His peace; and may God so guide you through things temporal, that ye finally lose not the things eternal. Now unto Him who is able to keep you from falling, go forth into the halls of the Senate in peace; be of good courage for the people you represent; fight the good fight of faith as an example to the world; that ye may finish your course with exceeding joy. To the only wise God, be all glory and honor, dominion and power, both now and forever more. Go out in peace and joy, to love and serve your people and your God. Amen."

With unanimous consent, the President grants leaves of absence for today to Senator Moore, Senator Webster, and Senator Weinstein.

Tuesday, October 20, 1998

The Senate meets pursuant to adjournment and is called to order by the Honorable Dennis A. Wicker, Lieutenant Governor.

Prayer is offered by the Reverend Mike Morris, Senate Chaplain, as follows:

"Dear God, we're reminded of the story when a new county agent, who was working with the county health officer, was driving along one day when he saw perched on some farmland, as if on stilts, a cabin with a long trough that ran from the back porch down to a hog pen which was only about twenty-five or thirty feet away from a corner of the kitchen. There were several hogs in the pen. The farmer was getting ready to have some winter meat.

"The agent called him out and said, 'Friend, I hate to mention this to you, but you've got your hog pen too close to your back door and your well. You're going to have to move that hog lot. This is the most unhealthy thing I've ever seen, and something must be done about it right away.'

"The farmer replied, 'I sure don't understand that. I haven't lost a hog in forty years.'

"When truth does not reside on either side of an issue, the world will let us know. But when, as in this story, truth resides on both sides of an issue, may Your justice and mercy be the final arbiters. Amen."

(a) The Board shall cause to be provided by all local school administrative units and by all other State and local governmental agencies providing special education services or having children with special needs in their care, custody, management, jurisdiction, control, or programs, special education and related services appropriate to all children with special needs. In this regard, all local school administrative units and all other State and local governmental agencies providing special education and related services shall explore available local resources and determine whether the services are currently being offered by an existing public or private agency.

When a specified special education or related service is being offered by a local public or private resource, any unit or agency described above shall negotiate for the purchase of that service or shall present full consideration of alternatives and its recommendations to the Board. In this regard, a new or additional program for special education or related services shall be developed with the approval of the Board only when that service is not being provided by existing public or private resources or the service cannot be purchased from existing providers. Further, the Board shall support and encourage joint and collaborative special education planning and programming at local levels to include local administrative units and the programs and agencies of the Departments of Health and Human Services and ~~Correction.~~ Correction and the Office of Juvenile Justice.

The jurisdiction of the Board with respect to the design and content of special education programs or related services for children with special needs extends to and over the Department of Health and Human ~~Services~~ Services, the Office of Juvenile Justice, and the Department of Correction.

All provisions of this Article that are specifically applicable to local school administrative units also are applicable to the Department of Health and Human ~~Services~~ Services, the Office of Juvenile Justice, and the Department of Correction and their divisions and agencies; all duties, responsibilities, rights and privileges specifically imposed on or granted to local school administrative units by this Article also are imposed on or granted to the Department of Health and Human ~~Services~~ Services, the Office of Juvenile Justice, and the Department of Correction and their divisions and agencies. However, with respect to children with special needs who are residents or patients of any state-operated or state-supported residential treatment facility, including without limitation, a school for the deaf, school for the blind, mental hospital or center, mental retardation center, or in a facility operated by the Office of Juvenile Justice, the Department of Correction or any of its divisions and agencies, the Board shall have the power to contract with the Department of Health and Human ~~Services~~ Services, the Office of Juvenile Justice, and the Department of Correction for the provision of special education and related services and the power to review, revise and approve ~~said Departments'~~ any plans for special education and related services to those residents.

The Departments of Health and Human Services and Correction and the Office of Juvenile Justice shall submit to the Board their plans for the education of children with special needs in their care, custody, or control. The Board shall have general supervision and shall set standards, by rule or regulation, for the programs of special education to be administered by it, by local educational agencies, and by the Departments of Health and Human Services and ~~Correction.~~ Correction and the Office of Juvenile Justice. The Board may grant specific exemptions for programs administered by the Department of Health and Human ~~Services~~ Services, the Office of Juvenile Justice, or the Department of Correction when compliance by them with the Board's standards would, in the Board's judgment, impose undue hardship on ~~such~~ this Department or Office and when other procedural due process requirements, substantially equivalent to those of G.S. 115C-116, are assured in programs of special education and related services furnished to children with special needs served by ~~such Department.~~ this Department or Office. Further, the Board shall recognize that inpatient and residential special education programs within the Departments of Health and Human Services and Correction and the Office of Juvenile Justice may require more program resources than those necessary for optimal operation of ~~such~~ these programs in local school administrative units.

Every State and local department, division, unit or agency covered by this section is hereinafter referred to as a `local educational agency' unless the text of this Article otherwise provides.

(b) The Board shall make and keep current a plan for the implementation of the policy set forth in G.S. 115C-106(b). The plan shall include:

(6) Programs and procedures for the development and implementation of a comprehensive system of personnel development; and

(7) Any additional matters, including recommendations for amendment of laws, changes in administrative regulations, rules and practices and patterns of special organization, and changes in levels and patterns of education financial support.

(c) The Board shall annually submit amendments to or revisions of the plan required by subsection (b) to the Governor and General Assembly and make it available for public comment pursuant to subdivision (1) and for public distribution no less than 30 days before January 15 of each year. All such submissions shall set forth in detail the progress made in the implementation of the plan.

Representatives from the Departments of Health and Human Services and Correction and the Office of Juvenile Justice shall be involved in the development of the standards outlined under this subsection.

(f) After submitting the report required by subsection (e), the local educational agency also shall submit such supplemental and additional reports as the Board may require to keep the local educational agency's plan current.

(h) The annual report shall be a two-year plan for providing appropriate special education and related services to children with special needs. The agency shall submit the plan to the Board for its review, approval, modification, or disapproval. Unless thereafter modified with approval of the Board, the plan shall be adhered to by the local educational agency. The provision of free appropriate special education within the facilities of the Department of Health and Human Services and the Office of Juvenile Justice shall not prevent that Department and Office from charging for other services or treatment.

(j) The Board shall require an annual census of children with special needs, subdivided for `identified' and `suspected' children with special needs, to be taken in each school year. Suspected children are those in the formal process of being identified, evaluated or diagnosed as children with special needs. The census shall be conducted annually and shall be completed not later than October 15, and shall be submitted to the Governor and General Assembly and be made available to the public no later than January 15 annually.

In taking the census, the Board shall require the cooperation, participation, and assistance of all local educational agencies and all other State and local governmental departments and agencies providing or required to provide special education services to children with special needs, and those departments and agencies shall cooperate and participate with and assist the Board in conducting the census.

The census shall include the number of children identified and suspected with special needs, their age, the nature of their disability, their county or city of residence, their local school administrative unit residence, whether they are being provided special educational or related services and if so by what department or agency, whether they are not being provided special education or related services, the identity of each department or agency having children with special needs in its care, custody, management, jurisdiction, control, or programs, the number of children with special needs being served by each department or agency, and such other information or data as the Board shall require. (l) The Board shall provide for procedures assuring that in carrying out the requirements of this Article procedures are established for consultation with individuals involved in or concerned with the education of children with special needs, including parents or guardians of such children, and there are public hearings, adequate notice of such hearings, and an opportunity for comment available to the general public prior to the adoption of the policies, procedures, and rules or regulations required by this Article.

If it appears that a child should receive a program of free appropriate public education in a program operated by or under the supervision of the Department of Health and Human ~~Services,~~ Services or the Office of Juvenile Justice, the local educational agency shall confer with the appropriate Department of Health and Human Services or Office of Juvenile Justice staff for their participation and determination of the appropriateness of placement in said program and development of the child's individualized education program. The individualized education program may then be challenged under the due process provisions of G.S. 115C-116. Each local educational agency shall establish, or revise, whichever is appropriate, the individualized educational program of each child with special needs each school year and will then review and, if appropriate revise, its provisions periodically, but not less than annually. (2) No child shall be placed by the Board or by the local educational agency in a private or out-of- state school unless the Board has determined that the school meets standards that apply to State and local educational agencies and that the child so placed will have all the rights he would have if served by a State or local educational agency.

(3) If the placement of the child in a private school, out-of-state school or a school in another local educational agency determined by the Superintendent of Public Instruction to be the most cost-effective way to provide an appropriate education to that child and the child is not currently being educated by the Department of Health and Human ~~Services~~ Services, the Office of Juvenile Justice, or the Department of Correction, the State will bear a portion of the cost of the placement of the child. The local school administrative unit shall pay an amount equal to what it receives per pupil from the State Public School Fund and from other State and federal funds for children with special needs for that child. "ARTICLE 2.

"Jurisdiction.

"§ 7B-200. Jurisdiction.

(a) The court has exclusive, original jurisdiction over any case involving a juvenile who is alleged to be abused, neglected, or dependent. This jurisdiction does not extend to cases involving adult defendants alleged to be guilty of abuse or neglect.

The court also has exclusive original jurisdiction of the following proceedings:

(1) Proceedings under the Interstate Compact on the Placement of Children set forth in Article 38 of this Chapter;

(2) Proceedings involving judicial consent for emergency surgical or medical treatment for a juvenile when the juvenile's parent, guardian, custodian, or other person who has assumed the status and obligation of a parent without being awarded legal custody of the juvenile by a court refuses to consent for treatment to be rendered;

(3) Proceedings to determine whether a juvenile should be emancipated;

(4) Proceedings to terminate parental rights;

(5) Proceedings to review the placement of a juvenile in foster care pursuant to an agreement between the juvenile's parents or guardian and a county department of social services;

(6) Proceedings in which a person is alleged to have obstructed or interfered with an investigation required by G.S. 7B-302; and

(7) Proceedings involving consent for an abortion on an unemancipated minor pursuant to Article 1A, Part 2 of Chapter 90 of the General Statutes.

(b) The court shall have jurisdiction over the parent or guardian of a juvenile who has been adjudicated abused, neglected, or dependent, as provided by G.S. 7B-904, provided the parent or guardian has been properly served with summons pursuant to G.S. 7B-406.

"§ 7B-201. Retention of jurisdiction.

When the court obtains jurisdiction over a juvenile, jurisdiction shall continue until terminated by order of the court or until the juvenile reaches the age of 18 years or is otherwise emancipated, whichever occurs first.

"ARTICLE 3.

"Screening of Abuse and Neglect Complaints.

"§ 7B-300. Protective services.

The director of the department of social services in each county of the State shall establish protective services for juveniles alleged to be abused, neglected, or dependent.

Protective services shall include the investigation and screening of complaints, casework, or other counseling services to parents, guardians, or other caretakers as provided by the director to help the parents, guardians, or other caretakers and the court to prevent abuse or neglect, to improve the quality of child care, to be more adequate parents, guardians, or caretakers, and to preserve and stabilize family life.

The provisions of this Article shall also apply to child care facilities as defined in G.S. 110-86.

"§ 7B-301. Duty to report abuse, neglect, dependency, or death due to maltreatment.

Any person or institution who has cause to suspect that any juvenile is abused, neglected, or dependent, as defined by G.S. 7B-101, or has died as the result of maltreatment, shall report the case of that juvenile to the director of the department of social services in the county where the juvenile resides or is found. The report may be made orally, by telephone, or in writing. The report shall include information as is known to the person making it including the name and address of the juvenile; the name and address of the juvenile's parent, guardian, or caretaker; the age of the juvenile; the names and ages of other juveniles in the home; the present whereabouts of the juvenile if not at the home address; the nature and extent of any injury or condition resulting from abuse, neglect, or dependency; and any other information which the person making the report believes might be helpful in establishing the need for protective services or court intervention. If the report is made orally or by telephone, the person making the report shall give the person's name, address, and telephone number. Refusal of the person making the report to give a name shall not preclude the department's investigation of the alleged abuse, neglect, dependency, or death as a result of maltreatment.

Upon receipt of any report of sexual abuse of the juvenile in a child care facility, the director shall notify the State Bureau of Investigation within 24 hours or on the next workday. If sexual abuse in a child care facility is not alleged in the initial report, but during the course of the investigation there is reason to suspect that sexual abuse has occurred, the director shall immediately notify the State Bureau of Investigation. Upon notification that sexual abuse may have occurred in a child care facility, the State Bureau of Investigation may form a task force to investigate the report.

"§ 7B-302. Investigation by director; access to confidential information; notification of person making the report.

When a report of abuse, neglect, or dependency is received, the director of the department of social services shall make a prompt and thorough investigation in order to ascertain the facts of the case, the extent of the abuse or neglect, and the risk of harm to the juvenile, in order to determine whether protective services should be provided or the complaint filed as a petition. When the report alleges abuse, the director shall immediately, but no later than 24 hours after receipt of the report, initiate the investigation. When the report alleges neglect or dependency, the director shall initiate the investigation within 72 hours following receipt of the report. The investigation and evaluation shall include a visit to the place where the juvenile resides. All information received by the department of social services, including the identity of the reporter, shall be held in strictest confidence by the department.

When a report of suspected abuse, neglect, or dependency of a juvenile is received, the director of the department of social services shall immediately ascertain if other juveniles remain in the home, and, if so, initiate an investigation in order to determine whether they require protective services or whether immediate removal of the juveniles from the home is necessary for their protection.

If the investigation indicates that abuse, neglect, or dependency has occurred, the director shall decide whether immediate removal of the juvenile or any other juveniles in the home is necessary for their protection. If immediate removal does not seem necessary, the director shall immediately provide or arrange for protective services. If the parent, guardian, or other caretaker refuses to accept the protective services provided or arranged by the director, the director shall sign a complaint seeking to invoke the jurisdiction of the court for the protection of the juvenile or juveniles.

If immediate removal seems necessary for the protection of the juvenile or other juveniles in the home, the director shall sign a complaint which alleges the applicable facts to invoke the jurisdiction of the court. Where the investigation shows that it is warranted, a protective services worker may assume temporary custody of the juvenile for the juvenile's protection pursuant to Article 5 of this Chapter.

In performing any duties related to the investigation of the complaint or the provision or arrangement for protective services, the director may consult with any public or private agencies or individuals, including the available State or local law enforcement officers who shall assist in the investigation and evaluation of the seriousness of any report of abuse, neglect, or dependency when requested by the director. The director or the director's representative may make a written demand for any information or reports, whether or not confidential, that may in the director's opinion be relevant to the investigation of or the provision for protective services. Upon the director's or the director's representative's request and unless protected by the attorney-client privilege, any public or private agency or individual shall provide access to and copies of this confidential information and these records to the extent permitted by federal law and regulations. If a custodian of criminal investigative information or records believes that release of the information will jeopardize the right of the State to prosecute a defendant or the right of a defendant to receive a fair trial or will undermine an ongoing or future investigation, it may seek an order from a court of competent jurisdiction to prevent disclosure of the information. In such an action, the custodian of the records shall have the burden of showing by a preponderance of the evidence that disclosure of the information in question will jeopardize the right of the State to prosecute a defendant or the right of a defendant to receive a fair trial or will undermine an ongoing or future investigation. Actions brought pursuant to this paragraph shall be set down for immediate hearing, and subsequent proceedings in the actions shall be accorded priority by the trial and appellate courts.

Within five working days after receipt of the report of abuse, neglect, or dependency, the director shall give written notice to the person making the report, unless requested by that person not to give notice, as to whether the report was accepted for investigation and whether the report was referred to the appropriate State or local law enforcement agency.

Within five working days after completion of the protective services investigation, the director shall give subsequent written notice to the person making the report, unless requested by that person not to give notice, as to whether there is a finding of abuse, neglect, or dependency, whether the county department of social services is taking action to protect the juvenile, and what action it is taking, including whether or not a petition was filed. The person making the report shall be informed of procedures necessary to request a review by the prosecutor of the director's decision not to file a petition. A request for review by the prosecutor shall be made within five working days of receipt of the second notification. The second notification shall include notice that, if the person making the report is not satisfied with the director's decision, the person may request review of the decision by the prosecutor within five working days of receipt. The person making the report may waive the person's right to this notification, and no notification is required if the person making the report does not identify himself to the director.

"§ 7B-303. Interference with investigation.

(a) If any person obstructs or interferes with an investigation required by G.S. 7B-302, the director may file a petition naming said person as respondent and requesting an order directing the respondent to cease such obstruction or interference. The petition shall contain the name and date of birth and address of the juvenile who is the subject of the investigation, shall specifically describe the conduct alleged to constitute obstruction of or interference with the investigation, and shall be verified.

(b) For purposes of this section, obstruction of or interference with an investigation means refusing to disclose the whereabouts of the juvenile, refusing to allow the director to have personal access to the juvenile, refusing to allow the director to observe or interview the juvenile in private, refusing to allow the director access to confidential information and records upon request pursuant to G.S. 7B-302, refusing to allow the director to arrange for an evaluation of the juvenile by a physician or other expert, or other conduct that makes it impossible for the director to carry out the duty to investigate.

(c) Upon filing of the petition, the court shall schedule a hearing to be held not less than five days after service of the petition and summons on the respondent. Service of the petition and summons and notice of hearing shall be made as provided by the Rules of Civil Procedure on the respondent; the juvenile's parent, guardian, custodian, or caretaker; and any other person determined by the court to be a necessary party. If at the hearing on the petition the court finds by clear, cogent, and convincing evidence that the respondent, without lawful excuse, has obstructed or interfered with an investigation required by G.S. 7B-302, the court may order the respondent to cease such obstruction or interference. The burden of proof shall be on the petitioner.

(d) If the director has reason to believe that the juvenile is in need of immediate protection or assistance, the director shall so allege in the petition and may seek an ex parte order from the court. If the court, from the verified petition and any inquiry the court makes of the director, finds probable cause to believe both that the juvenile is at risk of immediate harm and that the respondent is obstructing or interfering with the director's ability to investigate to determine the juvenile's condition, the court may enter an ex parte order directing the respondent to cease such obstruction or interference. The order shall be limited to provisions necessary to enable the director to conduct an investigation sufficient to determine whether the juvenile is in need of immediate protection or assistance. Within 10 days after the entry of an ex parte order under this subsection, a hearing shall be held to determine whether there is good cause for the continuation of the order or the entry of a different order. An order entered under this subsection shall be served on the respondent along with a copy of the petition, summons, and notice of hearing.

(e) The director may be required at a hearing under this section to reveal the identity of any person who made a report of suspected abuse, neglect, or dependency as required by G.S. 7B- 301.

(f) An order entered pursuant to this section is enforceable by civil or criminal contempt as provided in Chapter 5A of the General Statutes.

"§ 7B-304. Evaluation for court.

In all cases in which a petition is filed, the director of the department of social services shall prepare a report for the court containing a home placement plan and a treatment plan deemed by the director to be appropriate to the needs of the juvenile. The report shall be available to the court immediately following the adjudicatory hearing.

"§ 7B-305. Request for review by prosecutor.

The person making the report shall have five working days, from receipt of the decision of the director of the department of social services not to petition the court, to notify the prosecutor that the person is requesting a review. The prosecutor shall notify the person making the report and the director of the time and place for the review, and the director shall immediately transmit to the prosecutor a copy of the investigation report.

"§ 7B-306. Review by prosecutor.

The prosecutor shall review the director's determination that a petition should not be filed within 20 days after the person making the report is notified. The review shall include conferences with the person making the report, the protective services worker, the juvenile, if practicable, and other persons known to have pertinent information about the juvenile or the juvenile's family. At the conclusion of the conferences, the prosecutor may affirm the decision made by the director, may request the appropriate local law enforcement agency to investigate the allegations, or may direct the director to file a petition.

"§ 7B-307. Duty of director to report evidence of abuse, neglect; investigation by local law enforcement; notification of Department of Health and Human Services and State Bureau of Investigation.

(a) If the director finds evidence that a juvenile may have been abused as defined by G.S. 7B-101, the director shall make an immediate oral and subsequent written report of the findings to the district attorney or the district attorney's designee and the appropriate local law enforcement agency within 48 hours after receipt of the report. The local law enforcement agency shall immediately, but no later than 48 hours after receipt of the information, initiate and coordinate a criminal investigation with the protective services investigation being conducted by the county department of social services. Upon completion of the investigation, the district attorney shall determine whether criminal prosecution is appropriate and may request the director or the director's designee to appear before a magistrate.

If the director receives information that a juvenile may have been physically harmed in violation of any criminal statute by any person other than the juvenile's parent, guardian, custodian, or caretaker, the director shall make an immediate oral and subsequent written report of that information to the district attorney or the district attorney's designee and to the appropriate local law enforcement agency within 48 hours after receipt of the information. The local law enforcement agency shall immediately, but no later than 48 hours after receipt of the information, initiate a criminal investigation. Upon completion of the investigation, the district attorney shall determine whether criminal prosecution is appropriate.

If the report received pursuant to G.S. 7B-301 involves abuse or neglect of a juvenile in child care, the director shall notify the Department of Health and Human Services within 24 hours or on the next working day of receipt of the report.

(b) If the director finds evidence that a juvenile has been abused or neglected as defined by G.S. 7B-101 in a child care facility, the director shall immediately so notify the Department of Health and Human Services and, in the case of sexual abuse, the State Bureau of Investigation, in such a way as does not violate the law guaranteeing the confidentiality of the records of the department of social services.

(c) Upon completion of the investigation, the director shall give the Department written notification of the results of the investigation required by G.S. 7B-302. Upon completion of an investigation of sexual abuse in a child care facility, the director shall also make written notification of the results of the investigation to the State Bureau of Investigation.

The director of the department of social services shall submit a report of alleged abuse, neglect, or dependency cases or child fatalities that are the result of alleged maltreatment to the central registry under the policies adopted by the Social Services Commission.

"§ 7B-308. Authority of medical professionals in abuse cases.

(a) Any physician or administrator of a hospital, clinic, or other medical facility to which a suspected abused juvenile is brought for medical diagnosis or treatment shall have the right, when authorized by the chief district court judge of the district or the judge's designee, to retain physical custody of the juvenile in the facility when the physician who examines the juvenile certifies in writing that the juvenile who is suspected of being abused should remain for medical treatment or that, according to the juvenile's medical evaluation, it is unsafe for the juvenile to return to the juvenile's parent, guardian, custodian, or caretaker. This written certification must be signed by the certifying physician and must include the time and date that the judicial authority to retain custody is given. Copies of the written certification must be appended to the juvenile's medical and judicial records and another copy must be given to the juvenile's parent, guardian, custodian, or caretaker. The right to retain custody in the facility shall exist for up to 12 hours from the time and date contained in the written certification.

(b) Immediately upon receipt of judicial authority to retain custody, the physician, the administrator, or that person's designee shall so notify the director of social services for the county in which the facility is located. The director shall treat this notification as a report of suspected abuse and shall immediately begin an investigation of the case.

(1) If the investigation reveals (i) that it is the opinion of the certifying physician that the juvenile is in need of medical treatment to cure or alleviate physical distress or to prevent the juvenile from suffering serious physical injury, and (ii) that it is the opinion of the physician that the juvenile should for these reasons remain in the custody of the facility for 12 hours, but (iii) that the juvenile's parent, guardian, custodian, or caretaker cannot be reached or, upon request, will not consent to the treatment within the facility, the director shall within the initial 12-hour period file a juvenile petition alleging abuse and setting forth supporting allegations and shall seek a nonsecure custody order. A petition filed and a nonsecure custody order obtained in accordance with this subdivision shall come on for hearing under the regular provisions of this Subchapter unless the director and the certifying physician together voluntarily dismiss the petition.

(2) In all cases except those described in subdivision (1) above, the director shall conduct the investigation and may initiate juvenile proceedings and take all other steps authorized by the regular provisions of this Subchapter. If the director decides not to file a petition, the physician, the administrator, or that person's designee may ask the prosecutor to review this decision according to the provisions of G.S. 7B-305 and G.S. 7B-306.

(c) If, upon hearing, the court determines that the juvenile is found in a county other than the county of legal residence, in accord with G.S. 153A-257, the juvenile may be transferred, in accord with G.S. 7B-903(2), to the custody of the department of social services in the county of residence.

(d) If the court, upon inquiry, determines that the medical treatment rendered was necessary and appropriate, the cost of that treatment may be charged to the parents, guardian, custodian, or caretaker, or, if the parents are unable to pay, to the county of residence in accordance with G.S. 7B-903 and G.S. 7B-904.

(e) Except as otherwise provided, a petition begun under this section shall proceed in like manner with petitions begun under G.S. 7B-302.

(f) The procedures in this section are in addition to, and not in derogation of, the abuse and neglect reporting provisions of G.S. 7B-301 and the temporary custody provisions of G.S. 7B-500. Nothing in this section shall preclude a physician or administrator and a director of social services from following the procedures of G.S. 7B-301 and G.S. 7B-500 whenever these procedures are more appropriate to the juvenile's circumstances.

"§ 7B-309. Immunity of persons reporting and cooperating in an investigation.

Anyone who makes a report pursuant to this Article, cooperates with the county department of social services in a protective services inquiry or investigation, testifies in any judicial proceeding resulting from a protective services report or investigation, or otherwise participates in the program authorized by this Article, is immune from any civil or criminal liability that might otherwise be incurred or imposed for that action provided that the person was acting in good faith. In any proceeding involving liability, good faith is presumed.

"§ 7B-310. Privileges not grounds for failing to report or for excluding evidence.

No privilege shall be grounds for any person or institution failing to report that a juvenile may have been abused, neglected, or dependent, even if the knowledge or suspicion is acquired in an official professional capacity, except when the knowledge or suspicion is gained by an attorney from that attorney's client during representation only in the abuse, neglect, or dependency case. No privilege, except the attorney- client privilege, shall be grounds for excluding evidence of abuse, neglect, or dependency in any judicial proceeding (civil, criminal, or juvenile) in which a juvenile's abuse, neglect, or dependency is in issue nor in any judicial proceeding resulting from a report submitted under this Article, both as this privilege relates to the competency of the witness and to the exclusion of confidential communications.

"§ 7B-311. Central registry.

The Department of Health and Human Services shall maintain a central registry of abuse, neglect, and dependency cases and child fatalities that are the result of alleged maltreatment that are reported under this Article in order to compile data for appropriate study of the extent of abuse and neglect within the State and to identify repeated abuses of the same juvenile or of other juveniles in the same family. This data shall be furnished by county directors of social services to the Department of Health and Human Services and shall be confidential, subject to policies adopted by the Social Services Commission providing for its use for study and research and for other appropriate disclosure. Data shall not be used at any hearing or court proceeding unless based upon a final judgment of a court of law.

"ARTICLE 4.

"Venue; Petitions.

"§ 7B-400. Venue; pleading.

A proceeding in which a juvenile is alleged to be abused, neglected, or dependent may be commenced in the district in which the juvenile resides or is present. When a proceeding is commenced in a district other than that of the juvenile's residence, the court, on its own motion or upon motion of any party, may transfer the proceeding to the court in the district where the juvenile resides. A transfer under this section may be made at any time.

"§ 7B-401. Pleading and process.

The pleading in an abuse, neglect, or dependency action is the petition. The process in an abuse, neglect, or dependency action is the summons.

"§ 7B-402. Petition.

The petition shall contain the name, date of birth, address of the juvenile, the name and last known address of the juvenile's parent, guardian, or custodian and shall allege the facts which invoke jurisdiction over the juvenile. The petition may contain information on more than one juvenile when the juveniles are from the same home and are before the court for the same reason.

Sufficient copies of the petition shall be prepared so that copies will be available for each parent if living separate and apart, the guardian, custodian, or caretaker, the guardian ad litem, the social worker, and any person determined by the court to be a necessary party.

"§ 7B-403. Receipt of reports; filing of petition.

(a) All reports concerning a juvenile alleged to be abused, neglected, or dependent shall be referred to the director of the department of social services for screening. Thereafter, if it is determined by the director that a report should be filed as a petition, the petition shall be drawn by the director, verified before an official authorized to administer oaths, and filed by the clerk, recording the date of filing.

(b) A decision of the director of social services not to file a report as a petition shall be reviewed by the prosecutor if review is requested pursuant to G.S. 7B-305.

"§ 7B-404. Immediate need for petition when clerk's office is closed.

(a) When the office of the clerk is closed, a magistrate may be authorized by the chief district court judge to draw, verify, and issue petitions as follows:

(1) When the director of the department of social services requests a petition alleging a juvenile to be abused, neglected, or dependent, or

(2) When the director of the department of social services requests a petition alleging the obstruction of or interference with an investigation required by G.S. 7B-302.

(b) The authority of the magistrate under this section is limited to emergency situations when a petition is required in order to obtain a nonsecure custody order or an order under G.S. 7B-303. Any petition issued under this section shall be delivered to the clerk's office for processing as soon as that office is open for business.

"§ 7B-405. Commencement of action.

An action is commenced by the filing of a petition in the clerk's office when that office is open or by the issuance of a juvenile petition by a magistrate when the clerk's office is closed, which issuance shall constitute filing.

"§ 7B-406. Issuance of summons.

(a) Immediately after a petition has been filed alleging that a juvenile is abused, neglected, or dependent, the clerk shall issue a summons to the parent, guardian, custodian, or caretaker requiring them to appear for a hearing at the time and place stated in the summons. A copy of the petition shall be attached to each summons.

(b) A summons shall be on a printed form supplied by the Administrative Office of the Courts and shall include:

(1) Notice of the nature of the proceeding;

(2) Notice of any right to counsel and information about how to seek the appointment of counsel prior to a hearing;

(3) Notice that, if the court determines at the hearing that the allegations of the petition are true, the court will conduct a dispositional hearing to consider the needs of the juvenile and enter an order designed to meet those needs and the objectives of the State; and

(4) Notice that the dispositional order or a subsequent order:

a. May remove the juvenile from the custody of the parent, guardian, or custodian.

b. May require that the juvenile receive medical, psychiatric, psychological, or other treatment and that the parent participate in the treatment.

c. May require the parent to undergo psychiatric, psychological, or other treatment or counseling for the purpose of remedying the behaviors or conditions that are alleged in the petition or that contributed to the removal of the juvenile from the custody of that person.

d. May order the parent to pay for treatment that is ordered for the juvenile or the parent.

(c) The summons shall advise the parent that upon service, jurisdiction over that person is obtained and that failure to comply with any order of the court pursuant to G.S. 7B-904 may cause the court to issue a show cause order for contempt.

(d) A summons shall be directed to the person summoned to appear and shall be delivered to any person authorized to serve process.

"§ 7B-407. Service of summons.

The summons shall be personally served upon the parent, guardian, custodian, or caretaker, not less than five days prior to the date of the scheduled hearing. The time for service may be waived in the discretion of the court.

If the parent, guardian, custodian, or caretaker entitled to receive a summons cannot be found by a diligent effort, the court may authorize service of the summons and petition by mail or by publication. The cost of the service by publication shall be advanced by the petitioner and may be charged as court costs as the court may direct.

If the parent, guardian, custodian, or caretaker is personally served as herein provided and fails without reasonable cause to appear and to bring the juvenile before the court, the parent, guardian, custodian, or caretaker may be proceeded against as for contempt of court.

"ARTICLE 5.

"Temporary Custody; Nonsecure Custody; Custody Hearings.

"§ 7B-500. Taking a juvenile into temporary custody.

Temporary custody means the taking of physical custody and providing personal care and supervision until a court order for nonsecure custody can be obtained. A juvenile may be taken into temporary custody without a court order by a law enforcement officer or a department of social services worker if there are reasonable grounds to believe that the juvenile is abused, neglected, or dependent and that the juvenile would be injured or could not be taken into custody if it were first necessary to obtain a court order. If a department of social services worker takes a juvenile into temporary custody under this section, the worker may arrange for the placement, care, supervision, and transportation of the juvenile.

"§ 7B-501. Duties of person taking juvenile into temporary custody.

(a) A person who takes a juvenile into custody without a court order under G.S. 7B-500 shall proceed as follows:

(1) Notify the juvenile's parent, guardian, custodian, or caretaker that the juvenile has been taken into temporary custody and advise the parent, guardian, custodian, or caretaker of the right to be present with the juvenile until a determination is made as to the need for nonsecure custody. Failure to notify the parent that the juvenile is in custody shall not be grounds for release of the juvenile.

(2) Release the juvenile to the juvenile's parent, guardian, custodian, or caretaker if the person having the juvenile in temporary custody decides that continued custody is unnecessary.

(3) The person having temporary custody shall communicate with the director of the department of social services who shall consider prehearing diversion. If the decision is made to file a petition, the director shall contact the judge or person delegated authority pursuant to G.S. 7B-502 for a determination of the need for continued custody.

(b) A juvenile taken into temporary custody under this Article shall not be held for more than 12 hours, or for more than 24 hours if any of the 12 hours falls on a Saturday, Sunday, or legal holiday, unless:

(1) A petition or motion for review has been filed by the director of the department of social services, and

(2) An order for nonsecure custody has been entered by the court.

"§ 7B-502. Authority to issue custody orders; delegation.

In the case of any juvenile alleged to be within the jurisdiction of the court, the court may order that the juvenile be placed in nonsecure custody pursuant to criteria set out in G.S. 7B-503 when custody of the juvenile is necessary.

Any district court judge shall have the authority to issue nonsecure custody orders pursuant to G.S. 7B-503. The chief district court judge may delegate the court's authority to persons other than district court judges by administrative order which shall be filed in the office of the clerk of superior court. The administrative order shall specify which persons shall be contacted for approval of a nonsecure custody order pursuant to G.S. 7B-503.

"§ 7B-503. Criteria for nonsecure custody.

When a request is made for nonsecure custody, the court shall first consider release of the juvenile to the juvenile's parent, relative, guardian, custodian, or other responsible adult. An order for nonsecure custody shall be made only when there is a reasonable factual basis to believe the matters alleged in the petition are true, and

(1) The juvenile has been abandoned; or

(2) The juvenile has suffered physical injury or sexual abuse; or

(3) The juvenile is exposed to a substantial risk of physical injury or sexual abuse because the parent, guardian, custodian, or caretaker has created the conditions likely to cause injury or abuse or has failed to provide, or is unable to provide, adequate supervision or protection; or

(4) The juvenile is in need of medical treatment to cure, alleviate, or prevent suffering serious physical harm which may result in death, disfigurement, or substantial impairment of bodily functions, and the juvenile's parent, guardian, custodian, or caretaker is unwilling or unable to provide or consent to the medical treatment; or

(5) The parent, guardian, custodian, or caretaker consents to the nonsecure custody order; or

(6) The juvenile is a runaway and consents to nonsecure custody.

A juvenile alleged to be abused, neglected, or dependent shall be placed in nonsecure custody only when there is a reasonable factual basis to believe that there are no other reasonable means available to protect the juvenile. In no case shall a juvenile alleged to be abused, neglected, or dependent be placed in secure custody.

"§ 7B-504. Order for nonsecure custody.

The custody order shall be in writing and shall direct a law enforcement officer or other authorized person to assume custody of the juvenile and to make due return on the order. A copy of the order shall be given to the juvenile's parent, guardian, custodian, or caretaker by the official executing the order.

An officer receiving an order for custody which is complete and regular on its face may execute it in accordance with its terms. The officer is not required to inquire into the regularity or continued validity of the order and shall not incur criminal or civil liability for its due service.

"§ 7B-505. Place of nonsecure custody.

A juvenile meeting the criteria set out in G.S. 7B-503 may be placed in nonsecure custody with the department of social services or a person designated in the order for temporary residential placement in:

(1) A licensed foster home or a home otherwise authorized by law to provide such care; or

(2) A facility operated by the department of social services; or

(3) Any other home or facility approved by the court and designated in the order.

In placing a juvenile in nonsecure custody under this section, the court shall first consider whether a relative of the juvenile is willing and able to provide proper care and supervision of the juvenile in a safe home. If the court finds that the relative is willing and able to provide proper care and supervision in a safe home, then the court shall order placement of the juvenile with the relative. Prior to placement of a juvenile with a relative outside of this State, the placement must be in accordance with the Interstate Compact on the Placement of Children, Article 38 of this Chapter.

"§ 7B-506. Hearing to determine need for continued nonsecure custody.

(a) No juvenile shall be held under a nonsecure custody order for more than seven calendar days without a hearing on the merits or a hearing to determine the need for continued custody. A hearing on nonsecure custody conducted under this subsection may be continued for up to 10 business days with the consent of the juvenile's parent, guardian, or custodian and, if appointed, the juvenile's guardian ad litem. In addition, the court may require the consent of additional parties or may schedule the hearing on custody despite a party's consent to a continuance. In every case in which an order has been entered by an official exercising authority delegated pursuant to G.S. 7B-502, a hearing to determine the need for continued custody shall be conducted on the day of the next regularly scheduled session of district court in the city or county where the order was entered if such session precedes the expiration of the applicable time period set forth in this subsection: Provided, that if such session does not precede the expiration of the time period, the hearing may be conducted at another regularly scheduled session of district court in the district where the order was entered.

(b) At a hearing to determine the need for continued custody, the court shall receive testimony and shall allow the guardian ad litem, or juvenile, and the juvenile's parent, guardian, or custodian an opportunity to introduce evidence, to be heard in the person's own behalf, and to examine witnesses. The State shall bear the burden at every stage of the proceedings to provide clear and convincing evidence that the juvenile's placement in custody is necessary. The court shall not be bound by the usual rules of evidence at such hearings.

(c) The court shall be bound by criteria set forth in G.S. 7B- 503 in determining whether continued custody is warranted.

(d) If the court determines that the juvenile meets the criteria in G.S. 7B-503 and should continue in custody, the court shall issue an order to that effect. The order shall be in writing with appropriate findings of fact. The findings of fact shall include the evidence relied upon in reaching the decision and the purposes which continued custody is to achieve.

(e) If the court orders at the hearing required in subsection (a) of this section that the juvenile remain in custody, a subsequent hearing on continued custody shall be held within seven business days of that hearing, excluding Saturdays, Sundays, and legal holidays, and pending a hearing on the merits, hearings thereafter shall be held at intervals of no more than 30 calendar days.

(f) Hearings conducted under subsection (e) of this section may be waived only with the consent of the juvenile's parent, guardian, or custodian, and, if appointed, the juvenile's guardian ad litem.

The court may require the consent of additional parties or schedule a hearing despite a party's consent to waiver.

(g) Any order authorizing the continued nonsecure custody of a juvenile shall include findings as to whether reasonable efforts have been made to prevent or eliminate the need for placement of the juvenile in custody and may provide for services or other efforts aimed at returning the juvenile promptly to a safe home. A finding that reasonable efforts have not been made shall not preclude the entry of an order authorizing continued custody when the court finds that continued custody is necessary for the protection of the juvenile. Where efforts to prevent the need for the juvenile's placement were precluded by an immediate threat of harm to the juvenile, the court may find that the placement of the juvenile in the absence of such efforts was reasonable. If the court finds through written findings of fact that efforts to eliminate the need for placement of the juvenile in custody clearly would be futile or would be inconsistent with the juvenile's safety and need for a safe, permanent home within a reasonable period of time, then the court shall specify in its order that reunification efforts are not required or order that reunification efforts cease.

(h) At each hearing to determine the need for continued nonsecure custody, the court shall:

(1) Inquire as to the identity and location of any missing parent. The court shall include findings as to the efforts undertaken to locate the missing parent and to serve that parent. The order may provide for specific efforts aimed at determining the identity and location of any missing parent;

(2) Inquire as to whether a relative of the juvenile is willing and able to provide proper care and supervision of the juvenile in a safe home. If the court finds that the relative is willing and able to provide proper care and supervision in a safe home, then the court shall order temporary placement of the juvenile with the relative. Placement of a juvenile with a relative outside of this State must be in accordance with the Interstate Compact on the Placement of Children set forth in Article 38 of this Chapter; and

(3) Inquire as to whether there are other juveniles remaining in the home from which the juvenile was removed and, if there are, inquire as to the specific findings of the investigation conducted under G.S. 7B-302 and any actions taken or services provided by the director for the protection of the other juveniles.

"§ 7B-507. Telephonic communication authorized.

All communications, notices, orders, authorizations, and requests authorized or required by G.S. 7B-501, 7B-503, and 7B- 504 may be made by telephone when other means of communication are impractical. All written orders pursuant to telephonic communication shall bear the name and the title of the person communicating by telephone, the signature and the title of the official entering the order, and the hour and the date of the authorization.
